Timmins and District Notes

The Caledonian Society Christmas Tree will be held in the Hollinger hall on Friday evening, Dec. 24th.

Only two weeks now until Christmas. Don't delay another day about that Santa Claus business.

Don't fail to see our Christmas Gift suggestions. W. Ellies & Son, 26 Third Avenue. -49

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, Schumacher, on Wednesday, Dec. 8th, 1926,—a daughter (still-born).

A letter in regard to the conditions at the local post office has been received this week, but too late for use in this issue.

Mr. Thos. Lawrence returned this week from Toronto where he was completing his course at the College of Pharmacy.

Meeting of the local Victorian Order of Nurses Committee will be held in the Empire Hotel Grill Room on Monday evening next, Dec. 13th.

Ladies! for up-to-date hats, dresses, and coats, see W. Ellies & Son, 26 Third Avenue. -49

Mr. J. Bradette, M.P., for this riding of Cochrane, is in Ottawa to attend the session of the House of Commons opening this week.

Mrs. G. T. Johnston and daughter, Miss Ruth returned on Saturday from Toronto where Miss Ruth Johnston was attending college.

People who are intending to buy those really dainty presents for Christmas would do well to visit W. Ellies & Son, at 26 Third Avenue. -49

The next band concert will be on Dec. 19th, in the Goldfields Theatre, after the church services. It will be a special Christmas programme, with carol singing one of the features.

Mrs. C. R. Murdoch is suffering from a nervous breakdown following an operation on her tonsils. Her many friends in the town will sincerely wish her an early and complete recovery.

Mr. M. Bucovetsky, of South Porcupine, who was elected recently as the representative from this district to the Older Boys' Parliament, will leave after Christmas for Toronto to attend the Boys' Parliament which will be held at Queen's Park the week between Christmas and New Year's.

Despite the inclement weather good progress is being made with the erection of the new R. C. church on Spruce street and it is expected that the new church will be ready for the Christmas Eve services.

The regular monthly meeting of the Humane Society will be held in the town hall on Friday evening of this week, Dec. 10th. A specially large attendance is desired, as there is particularly important business to come before the meeting.

Her innumerable friends in town and district will be pleased to learn that Mrs. M. A. Ellis is making progress to recovery from the attack of typhoid fever suffered recently. Mrs. Ellis is in the hospital, and though quite ill for a time, is now making good progress to recovery, according to the latest reports. All will sincerely wish her early return to complete health and strength.

Friends were very pleased last week to see Lewis Field out and around again as usual, after being laid up for several months through ill luck. In August last he had the misfortune to break his leg while playing in a football match here. He had not fully recovered from the injury when he was quarantined for smallpox. Now, however, he is fully recovered from all his troubles and looking in best of health and strength.

Christmas sale of hand work and home cooking, and tea, under the auspices of the Ladies' Altar Society of the new Catholic church, will be held in Dalton's new store, 35 Third Avenue, from 3 to 11 p.m., on Saturday of next week, Dec. 18th.

The greatest event of the year—the Charity Turkey Stag in the Parish Hall on Friday evening of next week, Dec. 17th. Wonderful contests, wonderful prizes, a wonderful time for all.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Jack Collins who died Nov. 28th, 1925. Meditation makes us think, dear Jack, of thee, As days roll on thou doth not grow less dear; Thine earthly pain has been transformed to gain, While we who suffer loss refrain to count the cost. Knowing thy daily store is joy for evermore. —Ever remembered by family. -49p.

THURSDAY Bulletin

Monthly Theory Examinations for November were held at the Timmins Business College last week, results of same will be published in next week's issue of The Advance.

The College has received news this week that Mr. M. McGrath one of its recent graduates has secured a position as bookkeeper with quite a successful firm in Detroit, U.S.A. Mr. McGrath was formerly in the Assay Dept. of the Hollinger Mines.

At least half a dozen graduates of the "Gold Medal School" are now employed as stenographers and bookkeepers in the city of Detroit as well as in many of our Canadian cities.

The graduates of Timmins Business College are trained efficient graduates who can secure positions anywhere they may be available.

Reservations are now being made in day and night classes for winter term beginning Jan. 3rd.
