WANTED TO ADVERTISE TO STOP ANSWERS TO-ADVT.

Last week an advertisement in The Advance asked for a house of certain specifications and location which it was desired to rent. Answers came in as usual very quickly and soon the applicant had as many choices for houses as if he were one of the wives of an Abyssinian emperor with summer and winter residences for each one in the family. A suitable house was secured last week, but the applicants continued to come along. This week enquiries kept on pouring in. At last the advertiser said: "I guess I had better put in another advertisement in the want columns this week, explaining that I have all the houses needed and that no more are desired." It was explained to the advertiser that all that was necessary to stop the stream of applicants was to stop further advertising. There is a hint in this for business men generally. The Advance brings results, because it is read and respected and covers the field thoroughly. Also, it may be noted that to keep the public informed it is necessary to advertise all the time.

Iroquois Falls and Porcupine Teams Meet for First Time This Season. New Rink Much Admired by All. South Porcupine Pupils to Present Operetta. Other South End News.

South Porcupine, December 7th, Special to The Advance.
Mr. C. Immerson, of New Liskeard, has been a business visitor to camp during the past few weeks. He was a resident here in the early days.
Mrs. W. Richardson, returned on Saturday from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. R. Way, at Grand Valley, Ont., and is now at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. Michaud.

Teachers and pupils are working hard on the Oriental operetta, "The Magis Ruby," which promises to be one of the best ever given here. There are over one hundred and forty voices in it, chosen from the Dome and South Porcupine schools. There will be an orchestra accompaniment. Special dances and solos, are being prepared and many of the scenic effects are beautiful. There will be a matinee on the afternoon of Dec. 15th, when all children under 14 years of age from both Dome and South Porcupine schools will be admitted free. At the night performance on Thursday, Dec. 16th, there will be an admission charge for children.

We most sincerely congratulate our young townsman, Maurice Bucovetsky on his election to the Boys' Parliament as member from the Porcupine Camp. We feel that a worthy choice has been made and that we shall have reason to feel proud of Maurice while down there, just as we have had reason to be proud of his achievement in various lines here.

On Saturday morning, Dec. 4th, a very sad death occurred at the Dome Extension, when Mrs. Laeroix was suddenly called away from her husband and little family. A still-born daughter had been born on Nov. 27th, and the mother was apparently recovering very well when the sudden change came. A family of four small children, the oldest not yet five are left to mourn the loss of a devoted mother. The remains were taken to Sudbury to be interred at her girlhood home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Foss, have returned from Winnipeg, and are now cosily domiciled in the residence at the Dome formerly occupied by Mr. Douglas Wright and family. Mrs. Foss was formerly Miss Kaye Carlyle, of Winnipeg. We join their many friends in wishing them a long life of prosperity and happiness.

Miss Eddington, of Windsor, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. G. Bowles on Connaught Hill.

We sympathize with Miss Rice, nurse at the Dome Hospital, who was called to Haileybury last week owing to the illness of her brother, but the train arrived too late for her to see him before he died.

On Friday evening a fine attendance greeted the hockey game for the official opening of South Porcupine Arena. The new rink is very comfortable and convenient both for players and audience and its large seating capacity was quite well taken up. The visiting team, the Iroquois Falls Jrs., are noted for their class of hockey and it was a surprise to South Porcupine fans to see their own sturdy team go down, to the tune of five goals for the Falls against two for South Porcupine Hockey Club. The score was not so much an indication of the ability of the teams as a tribute to the stonewall defence tactics of the Falls goal-keeper. The puck was faced-off by Mr. A. F. Kenning, M.P.P.-elect, and there were no slow moments for the onlookers from the start. Our local boys did not show up to good advantage, except in individual play, during the first period. In the second and third they seemed to get down to real hockey. The two goals for Porcupine were scored by Spence, one being very cleverly pushed in from a position behind the net. If it had not been for an unfortunate mix-up that took all the spirit out of the game, we feel that our boys might have made a better showing before the close of the third. In the fracas that occurred, although a Falls boy was the original aggressor, in less time than it takes to tell it, there were so many aggressions and aggressors that unfortunately one Falls player was badly injured and had to be carried off the ice. We believe that many of the boys themselves regret this occurrence, just as much as the citizens do, for this was only an exhibition game and it was an act of courtesy for the Iroquois Falls Jrs. to play here for the opening of our Arena, and many words of admiration were heard by fans on every side for their splendid playing. At one point it looked more like rugby than hockey with nearly all the players on the ice heaped around or on top of the Falls goal-tender, he being on the puck. However he came up smiling, having saved the goal. For our own team, splendid individual efforts were put up by Palangio, Jim Fell and others and there is the ability for fine team work when they get down to business. The Arena was admired by all and its comfortable seating capacity and freedom from draughts, was sure a boon after standing huddled together in the snow as we have other years. The small boys thoroughly enjoyed the hot-dogs as did their elders, the coffee and sandwiches. The playing of the Goldfields band was certainly an acquisition, the harmony carrying to every part of the vast building. Last winter in spite of the band's best efforts the music seemed to dwindle away into the air, if one got a few feet from the bandstand. On Friday night, the music as heard in the remotest part of the building, was a pleasure. Many enjoyed the skating on the good

F. Rioux Accused of Attempted Robbery with Violence. A Lively Hold-Up Affair in Toronto

The Toronto Globe last week under headings rather large for The Globe in such a case carried the following story:—

"With bullets whizzing past his head, James Sammons, aged 55, courageously fought two gunmen in his grocery store, 395 Sackville Street, last evening. Mr. Sammons, armed with a butcher knife, struggled with one of the robbers, while his wife, an invalid, managed to get the receiver from the telephone. Her cries for police were picked up by Miss Clifford, 126 Harbord Street, an operator in the Randolph Exchange, and relayed to police.

"Motorcycle Officers Crowson and Leask happened to be in Dundas Street East Station. Both leaped on their motorcycles and sped to the scene, arriving in time to arrest Frank Rioux, aged 26, of Timmins. Rioux, police said, had dropped the gun on the floor. He said his companion had fled when the shots were fired. Rioux is held on charges of shooting with intent and attempted robbery with violence.

"Squads of detectives were at once despatched to different sections of the city to fine-comb different districts in search of the other robber.

"Mr. Sammons was alone in his store when, at 6.45, two men entered. One asked for a chocolate bar. Opening the glass show case, Mr. Sammons said he was reaching for the chocolate when he heard one of the men say: "Come on; stick them up!" His remark was followed by two revolver shots. One, Mr. Sammons thinks, grazed the top of his head.

"This failed to frighten the store-keeper, who started in the direction of another counter. One of the men, alleged to have been Rioux, set upon him, beating him on the head with the revolver. Although in a semi-dazed condition, Mr. Sammons reached out and secured a grip on a long butcher knife.

"With this he slashed at the thug. Unable to back out of the store, Rioux, it is charge, dropped the gun, and Sammons grasped him tightly by the throat.

"Clinging to his man, the grocer called to his wife. Mrs. Sammons has been suffering from paralysis, and on walking into the store and seeing her husband hanging on to the robber, she became very nervous. She succeeded in getting the telephone receiver from the hook. "Her repeated cries for help were heard by Miss Clifford. In a few seconds the call had been sent into the police switchboard. It was only a matter of seconds until the motorcycle men were speeding to the scene.

"Mr. Sammons has several nasty scalp wounds. After receiving medical attention he remained at his home. In the struggle Rioux's coat was almost cut to shreds by the butcher knife. He has several cuts on his back. The wounds were found only to have been skin abrasions. Police did not think it necessary for the prisoner to have medical attention.

"Rioux is alleged to have admitted planning the attempted robbery. He admitted ownership of the revolver found on the floor of the store. He said he had been in Toronto one week. He had no money. What cash was in the till in the store had not been disturbed.

"The arrest of the second man, police were confident, would be effected within the next 24 hours.

"Police last night were very high in praise of the presence of mind and alertness of Miss Clifford in transferring the police call from the store."
