McIntyres Edge Out Victory
 From Timmins Juniors, 3 to 2

Exhibition Game at Timmins Rink Last Thursday Shows the Juniors a Promising Team. Heavyweight Mac's, However, Were Able to Hold Them Down in Strenuous Game.

In an exhibition game of hockey played last Thursday evening at the Timmins Rink, the McIntyre team just won from the Timmins Juniors by a score of 3-2. The Juniors were in good shape and appeared to be in perfect physical condition when they came on the ice. This proved to be the case, for at the end of the hard body checking game, the lads were just as fresh as at the commencement.
 The game opened with the McIntyre heavyweights on the offensive and out to give the boys a rough ride. Hardly two minutes had passed when, on a beautiful individual effort, Evans, the heavy defence man of the Macs, beat Porky Levine all the way and drew the only goal of the period. Play was very ragged with the Juniors outskating and checking the visitors. This made the Mac's "lose their heads," and penalties were given away like Christmas presents to the visitors. The Juniors were at this time playing fine hockey, Quinn and Greco being the shining stars. A regular bombardment was being given the Mac's net, but Gray was on the job. At this period of the game the visitors were left with only two men in the ice, and the first episode ended with the Juniors pressing but the visitors leading 1-0.
 The referee called the players together at the face-off and evidently told them to play hockey, and the fans were treated to some splendid plays, the Juniors working in some nice combination play and the McIntyre stars doing some good individual work. The Juniors had the edge on the visitors but could not score on account of too many long shots, which were as easy as picking apples to Gray. Kelly scored the second goal with a fast shot from the wing. Play remained about even until the end with the Mac's two up on the Juniors.

 The Juniors in the final episode were given the weight very freely, but this did not upset their strong offensive and nice combination plays. Dellabbio and Greco, with Arundel, were playing well together and on a nice combined effort Dellabbio scored from Greco's pass. Kelly came back with one for the visitors and Greco and Arundel combined again and then Arundel scored from the former's pass. The Juniors then bombarded Gray but could not get the puck past him and the game ended by the visitors winning by the score of 3-2.
 The Juniors have benefitted greatly by the game and have learned how to take the bumps. On the play they should have won but the hoodoo will be away by January 4th and it will be worth coming a long way to see them in action when they face Iroquois Falls in the first game of the N.O.H.A.
 The line-up follows:—
 McIntyre—goal, Gray; defence, Duval and Evans; forwards, Rothwell, Davidson and Watson; subs., Kelly, Proulx, Boyd and Cameron.
 Timmins—goal, Levine; defence, Greco and Coutain; forwards, Dixon, Arundel and Quinn; subs., Patterson, Wilson and Dellabbio.
 Referee—Billy Burns.

 Doctor—"Take the guy's license number."

PRESIDENT OF POULTRY CONGRESS

HERE'S ANOTHER ONE ABOUT THE WHISKERINO CONTEST

The following is from the "Eye on Everything Column" in The Sudbury Star:—
 Abner McGoofus, old-timer from the goldfields, blew into the office yesterday. Abner always comes to Sudbury to spend Christmas.
 "I'm here again," said Mr. McGoofus, accepting a pipeful.
 "Where did you come from?"
 "Timmins."
 "What was on there?"
 "Whisker-growing contest."
 "Why didn't they hold it in the Summer?"
 "They were afraid of bush fires."
 "Did you enter yourself?"
 "No; I tried to shave myself and was scratched."
 "How did the men come to think o' such a contest?"
 "They couldn't get into the barber's chair because of the women. They had to have an excuse."
 "Well, what will they think of next?"
 "They're going to hold a whisker contest for women next year."
 "For women?"
 "Yes," said the crusty old bachelor, as he went through the door, "a cat show."
 Afterthoughts.—A tardy sense of prudence that prompts one to try to shut his mouth about the time he put his foot into it.

BIRRELL BELL'S CONCERT PARTY MAKES DECIDED HIT

Recent Event at New Empire a Musical Treat. An Attractive and Varied Programme

The recent concert given by the pupils of Mr. Birrell Bell at the New Empire theatre is deserving of more extended reference than it was possible to give in the issue following the event. There is matter for decided regret that the audience was not larger, as the event assuredly deserved an overflow house, but all who attended found it an evening of delight musically, and those whom other appointments during the busy Christmas season prevented from being present missed a genuine musical treat.

The programme was one that did honour to Mr. Bell and to the talent of his pupils. An orchestra consisting of some twenty-five violins, with a well-balanced addition of clarinets, saxophones and cornets, made an unusually effective and pleasing combination, and showed remarkable precision in responding to the capable direction of Mr. Bell. It was very apparent that the pupils had very noteworthy talent, and Mr. Bell's success in directing and training them won very general commendation.

Mr. H. Mullins, in Highland costume, provided a treat in the way of well-given Scottish comedy and entertainment.

Another special on the programme was the violin playing of little six-year-old Grace Murray, of the Dome Mines. Her sister, Lena, played the piano accompaniments for these selections, and the musical talent and skill of these two young girls made a very big hit with the audience.

Master Sam Katz played "Air Varié," by Danga, on the violin, showing a wonderful technique for his age in playing the difficult parts called for in this number. The music-lovers particularly enjoyed the violin playing of Master Katz.

Another violinist of marked talent was Master Willie Shub, whose presentation of "The Polish Dance," was a much-appreciated favourite on the programme.

A string quartette, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Birrell Bell and Masters Willie Shub and David Payne, roused very decided applause, and "more" of this pleasing music was insistently demanded.

Mr. Bell favoured the audience with two numbers that showed him a master on the violin. First in the wonderful "Souvenir," by Franz Dradla, and then in the difficult "Obertass," by Wieniawski, he held the audience's keenest attention and appreciation by the finished manner in which he interpreted these compositions.

One of the touches of variety was given to the programme by the dancing of Misses Frances and Mary King, of Golden City. Their first number was the "Irish Jig," given with perfect skill and grace. Their other number was the "Dutch Dance," a selection that they presented to perfection. The dancing of these youngsters was true music in its rhythm, beauty and grace.

The whole programme of the evening was an excellent one and won very high praise from all attending.

Master James McFadden made a very capable accompanist for the evening.
 Dr. Lee S. Honey presided in very pleasing way, and made a very capable chairman for the occasion.

The only place to live a happy life is within your income.—Franklin.

LANCASHIRE CHRISTMAS TREE AND DANCE EVENT

Santa Claus Delights the Lancashire Youngsters. Mr. Ted Whaley Remembered by His Orchestra

The children of the Lancashire Social Club had a very enjoyable time at the annual Christmas Tree event on Thursday last in the Hollinger Recreation Hall. The event started at 6 p.m. and there were a good number of children present. Children's games took place until the arrival of Santa Clause at 7.30. Mr. Joe Ormston in this case was the man the kiddies were looking for. He got right to work in presenting the presents. There were 28 children of the club members presented and 40 odd others. The presents for the latter were bought by friends and parents. Each child was given a bag of candy and fruit.

After the children had had a little time playing with the toys Mr. Joe Ormston favoured them with a solo. This was followed by a supper, each child sitting down to a table of plenty and being helped by the committee to the good things. A few games were played while the grown-ups had supper.

The visitors started to arrive for the usual dance which takes place after the children's event. Previous to the dance a surprise was given to Mr. Ted Whaley when the president called on Mr. Joe Ormston to present Mr. Ted Whaley with a beautiful smoker's stand, a gift of appreciation from his orchestra. In a few words he thanked his orchestra.

In the centre of the hall hung a big Tom Turkey given to the club by Mr. H. Unsworth to raise funds. This went at the price of a dollar a pound the bird weight, 25 pounds.

The dancing was of the best, the hall being crowded for this event. They included the usual Waltzes, Fox Trots, Tag Dances, and a Paul Jones. A couple of prizes were given for a lucky spot dance.

Ted Whaley and his orchestra provided the best of music for the dancing, while Mr. James Ormston played the piano for the children.

BIG MONEY FOR CLOVER SEED

As far as known Wm. A. Reid, of Earlton, holds the record for Alsike Clover Seed production for this season. Mr. Reid had 236 bags of Alsike and 10 bags of Red Clover Seed, all of this season's threshing.

He retained eight bags of Alsike for his own, and some neighbor's use, and sold the balance through F. W. Hendry, of New Liskeard, to the Wm. Rennie Seed Co., of Toronto whose buyer, H. C. Bailey, was instrumental in putting the deal through. This means that Mr. Reid has received enough money from his crop of seed to pay for the land value of any ordinary Ontario farm.
