Finer Foods of Greater Richness

MANY foods we serve today have been so refined in preparing that much of their essential food value is gone.

The remedy for "starved" foods is plenty of double-rich, full-cream Carnation Milk.

Used in cooking, Carnation adds flavor, smoothness and food value to all kinds of dishes. Every drop is as rich as every other drop because Carnation is "homogenized"—the butter fat broken up and evenly spread through the milk. Every time you use it, you can count on the same sure results.

Being neither an electrician or mechanic, we got our wires mixed up in one sentence of our account of the fire at the pump house last week. The electricians who had been making repairs on the motor, not the pump, had finished and were packing up their tools ready for departure when another workman went to do some work on the pump, with the result that a leak sprang in one of the glands throwing the jet of water that started the trouble. It was lucky that the gang of electricians were not yet out of call as they were able to lend a capable hand in reducing the danger that necessarily resulted from such an accident.

Mrs. Craik is this week visiting her mother, Mrs. Pareher, of Cobalt.

Mrs. Allan Merchant, of New Liskeard, spent the Easter holidays with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Longworth, in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Henry left on Saturday to make their home at Kirkland Lake where Mr. Henry has secured a position in the offices of the Teek-Hughes Mine.

Miss Beatrice Michaelson is home again after a pleasant sojourn in Windsor and Detroit. She reports her sister, Florence, as being much better in health and enjoying Detroit.

The annual meeting for the election of officers of the Porcupine Hockey Club is being held in the council chambers on Friday evening April 29th. All interested are invited to be present.

Mr. Robt. Kerr, of the Dome Extension, is recovering nicely after an operation to his foot during the past week.

The Ladies' Guild of the United Church are planning a bazaar for May 14th, and are busy now on children's clothing, spring dresses, bungalow aprons and fancy work. Home-made cooking will also be on sale.

On Sunday evening the Oddfellows and Rebekahs marched in a body to the Anglican church here and listened to a very able talk from Archdeacon Woodall. They were accompanied by several brethren and sisters from Timmins. The church was filled to capacity. The Archdeacon's talk on "Loyalty" was very appropriate and given in such a clear-sighted, comprehensive manner that all were both pleased and benefited. The solo, "Teach me to Pray," was rendered by Mrs. F. Reynolds with feeling and reverence. A hearty vote of thanks was afterward sent to the Archdeacon for his helpful talk.

All those who have not finished paying their 1926 taxes are reminded that after this week there is a 10% penalty attached. Thus all taxes not paid by May 1st will be increased by ten per cent of their present amount. Those delinquent income taxes after May 1st are liable to garnishee.

Mr. V. Laffin is this week in New Liskeard and vicinity buying up a car-load of fresh milk cows for sale in the Porcupine district.

Mrs. Pelkie, of Latchford, is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. Starling.

On Friday evening a large number of the young friends and class mates of Ivy Freeman gathered at the High School and spent a very pleasant evening under the chaperonage of Miss J. Burns, of the teaching staff. During the evening Ivy was presented with a fountain pen and eversharp pencil. Miss Kathleen Gallagher made the presentation with a neatly worded address on behalf of Ivy's schoolmates, telling how they would miss her.

Mr. W. Donaghy has returned from a business trip to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Richardson, of Moose Jaw, Sask., were the guests of Mrs. Richardson's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Strain, Bruce avenue. They were returning from an extensive tour of the States, having visited Chicago, New York and many other points of interest.

There is a special meeting and banquet being planned by the Rebekahs for Friday evening. This was to be Past Grand's Night and will also take the form of a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Freeman, who are leaving shortly for Montreal to reside.

On Thursday afternoon and evening last week, Mrs. W. W. Wilson gave a benefit bridge at her home on Main street. There were four tables each time and several other friends attended. This was for a Mr. Bert Riley, a pioneer of Porcupine, who is now a helpless invalid in the County Hospital at El Paso, Texas. Mr. Riley will be remembered as one of the helpers at the time of the "flu" epidemics here in 1918, having worked in the diet kitchen when the public school was improvised as a hospital. He afterwards contracted rheumatism and went to Florida in company with the late Tom Strain, Jr. From there he went to Texas but has gradually become worse and is now suffering with tubercular trouble, as well as rheumatism. He is absolutely without relatives and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilson have been keeping in kindly touch with him. Mrs. Machin, probably one of the church visiting committee in El Paso, reported to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson that his room needed new furnishings. Thirty dollars was realized by the bridge, and forwarded and since that, other kindly donations have added five dollars more to get comforts to his room in the Texas hospital.

At the police court on Thursday last there were two charges of reckless driving,—one pleaded guilty and was fined $20 and costs; the other was adjourned. There were also three or four speeders who paid the usual fine, as did also three or four drunks. One man found guilty of being intoxicated while in charge of a motor car was sentenced to ten days hard labour in Haileybury jail.
