ARROW CLUB FIELD DAY PROVES VERY SUCCESSFUL

Excellent Programme Well Carried Through on May 24th. Many Striking Events.

The field day under the auspices of the Arrow Athletic Club on the athletic grounds on Tuesday, May 24, was a successful event. About a thousand people enjoyed the day, the weather though cloudy, keeping fine until the programme was completed. Timmins Citizens' Band furnished good music for the occasion. The events were well contested, and there was keen competition in many of the events. The Arrow Club has shown what it can do and proven the amount of athletic talent in town and district and the result no doubt will be felt in Timmins in future events. There was a remarkable array of good prizes and trophies and contestants and spectators alike were well satisfied. Reference is made elsewhere to the dance given in the evening.

GRAVEYARD SHIFT REVUE MAKES VERY DECIDED HIT

Event Last Friday by the Kiwanis Club the Biggest Entertainment Value Ever Given in Timmins.

The Graveyard Shift Revue, 1927, under the auspices of the Timmins Kiwanians, in aid of children's playgrounds, given in the Goldfields theatre on Friday evening last after the regular show, proved an outstanding success from every viewpoint. The house was filled to capacity and many were unable to secure seats. A neat amount was realized, with a further sum from the sale before the show commenced of surprise packages. These went like hot cakes, and the three hundred secured proved completely inadequate to meet the demand. The Graveyard Shift Revue itself was the biggest half-dollar's worth of clever, wholesome and original entertainment ever offered the people of Timmins. The fact that it was organized, directed and presented by all-local talent speaks volumes for the amount of outstanding talent in the town.

The event was a decided credit to all concerned. Every part on the whole programme was taken with striking ability. There were no weak features, and a general vote of thanks from the public is due to one and all concerned. In the management of the event, special credit is due to the following whose places and parts were duly set forth in the humorous programme prepared by "Lap" Laprairie, said programme alone being worth the price of the show:—Bill Pierce, manager; Joe Weston advance agent; Jack Walker, property man; P. Bardesson, scenic artist; Leo Mascioli, stage carpenter; Frank Byck, lighting effects; Chas. Pierce, lyrical effects; Nick Blahey, costumer; Chas. Keddie, stage director; Lap. Laprairie, advertising manager; and also Morris Belanger, Karl Eyre and Shorty Grant for special services.

The music by the Graveyard Shift Orchestra under the skilled direction of Gene Colombo was an extra special enjoyed from 10.45 to the end of the show.

The original programme followed the type of entertainment given by the vaudeville houses in the city except that it had more than the usual originality and merit. Any item on the programme was worth the price of the show, while such items as the Ukrainian Juvenile Entertainers, the Croatian Orchestra, the Shooting of Dan McGrew, and some others were alone worth double the price of a ticket. There was not a single hitch or misfit on the programme. It was all good, and went like clockwork.

The show opened with selections by the big orchestra; then there was a special meeting of the Kiwanis, with the salute to the flag, and President Lee Honey conducting proceedings. Next a one-reel Kiwaniscope comedy picture pleased all; this being followed by the Ukrainian Juvenile Entertainers who brought down the house. A group of clever young musicians in costume, under able leadership, furnished very pleasant music on Ukrainian instruments, this being followed by Ukrainian folk dances that roused the greatest enthusiasm by their charm and the talent and grace with which the young folks carried them through. Two little tots leading the dance particularly caught the fancy of the big crowd.

Mr. E. R. Street, in fine voice added to his high reputation as a soloist by his effective presentation of popular songs.

The Shooting of Dangerous Dan McGrew, a semi-pantomime in one act, was cleverly done and made a striking hit. Scenery, acting, staging and everything were done better than most professional troupes would do. The "play" followed the lines of the story in Service's poem. The cast of characters included:—The Tall Stranger, Jack Walker; Dan McGrew, Karl Eyre; The Girl Lou, Norval Banks; The Rag-Time Kid, Des. Murphy; Sam, the Spitoon Cleaner, Art Chisholm; Mueg Aggie, Horace Laidlaw; Dirty Gertie, Harry Jackson; Red Maggie, Chip Ball; Lawyer Silas Skinner, W. O. Langdon; The Souse, Dr. Brennan; Fan Salesman, P. C. Young; Saloonkeeper, R. Dye; Bartender, A. Laprairie; Newsy Long, Shorty Grant; Card Cheat, Bill Pierce; gamblers, prospectors, hangers-on, etc. Pete Bardesson and his orchestra made a big hit in this act. The elocutionary work of Joe Weston was another big feature. Every member of the cast deserves special mention for good work, with double mention for the clever way the girls were portrayed and extra special reference to the female impersonation given by Norval Banks.

Bell's Mis-Fit Orchestra was a laugh-provoking anti-melody jazz band, while the dancing of the Charleston by the wee little Bell lassie brought down the house.

Some good comedy, gags, stories, songs and music were provided by the clever trio, Art. Chisholm, Des. Murphy and Frank Rogers.

The Croatian Orchestra won unstinted applause by their delightful music played with so much ability and musical talent.

The Graveyard Shift Quartette, in miner's costume, lamps and all, had the audience gussing.

One of the outstanding items on the programme was "Early Carrot's Bath

TWO 2-2 DRAWS IN P.O.F.L. SERIES ON SATURDAY

Cornish One-and-All Play to a Draw at the Dome. Lancashire and Holly Rees. do the Same Here.

The Dome football team drew with the Cornish One-and-All on Saturday at the Dome, the score being 2 to 2. The Cornish were leading up to five minutes from the end, when Street stopped the ball with his face. The referee awarded a penalty for hands, and the Dome tied the score.

The Lancashire Roses also drew, 2 to 2, with the Holly Rees. on Saturday in a closely-contested match. The Holly Rees. won the last point on a penalty that was questioned by many, but it was awarded and so must go. There was one objectionable incident during the match and it would be well in future if spectators would strictly keep off the field and leave the players alone. There is a referee to take care of the players and if the public get on the field the referee is handicapped in giving his judgments.

The match was very fast from beginning to end and there was some good football to be seen. Carroll, of the Lanes., was an outstanding player, his ever-trying efforts were well played, and he was on the job every minute. McKenzie and McWhinnie got in a lot of nice combinations, but were well looked after, and Studden and Jackson spoiled their efforts to score, while Liddell and Stephenson cleared well for the Rees.

Carroll was the first to score when he sent the leather to Jones, who in turn passed it back to Carroll in front of the goal to score. The leather went up and down for some time, and finally McKenzie and McWhinnie combined and the latter shot, but sent it a little wide. The Rees. were having the better of the play now, and Wilkinson was called on to save from Robson. This was followed by five corners for the Rees. and McKenzie scored before the ball could be got away. The Lanes. went down again and Carroll broke through but tipped the ball too far and Elrick cleared. The Rees. came away again and should have scored, when Robson's shot went wide at an empty goal. The Lanes. went right back

Tub Party," a surprising farce in which the leading parts were taken by Norval Banks and Shorty Grant and the bath-tub, these giving place to Paddy Gallagher who gave a clever burlesque of the opera toreador, while Art Chisholm and Bill Pierce took the respective parts of the bull,—the antics of the bull being unusually well done.

A very clever playlet, "The Athletic Wedding" was very cleverly presented by the A.S.D. Players, each and all of whom did remarkably well. This was a special number.

THROWING FIRECRACKERS COSTLY, AS WELL AS SILLY

Fine of $10 and Costs Imposed on Young Man for Dangerous Trick. Other Police Court Cases.

At police court this week one thoughtless fellow was fined $5 and costs, or $11.50 in all for the foolish trick of throwing firecrackers at the heels of passersby. The charge against the man was disorderly conduct, and the practice objected to was not only disorderly but dangerous. The shock to anyone of nervous temperament from the silly trick might prove a serious matter.

Six simple drunks paid $10 and costs for looking upon the alkai after it had given its colour to the wood.

A man charged with being drunk in charge of a motor car was remanded for a week to look up some points of law. The accused claimed he was not in charge of the car there being another man there as driver.

A coloured gentleman, answering to the name of J. W. Jackson, or rather not answering when his name was called, had his bail estreated and a warrant issued for his arrest. Jackson was charged by Provincial officer Finger with having firearms in his possession without a permit while he was an alien.

Six charges of speeding and reckless driving, wrong parking and other offences under the highway act and kindred statutes were disposed of by fines, the said fines running from $5 to $25.00 each according to the seriousness of the charge.

A woman charged with immoral conduct was remanded for a week.

again and Saigar nearly scored, Elrick having to come down full length to save.

The second half was much the same as the first. In less than twenty minutes Carroll scored again from a pass from Jones. The Lanes. now pressed hard and Elrick had a lively time for nearly ten minutes, and the Rees. did well to keep the ball out. Two minutes from the end Robson got a pass and Studden and Jackson went over to clear and Robson fell. A penalty was awarded and Liddell scored.

Lanes.—Wilkinson, goal; Studden and Jackson, backs; Daniels, Backhouse and Thompson, half-backs; Jones, Kitcher, Carroll, Saigar, Love, forwards.

Holly Rees.—Elrick, goal; Liddell and Stephenson, backs; Jenkins, Ewart and Trenouth, half-backs; McLatchie, Robson, McWhinnie, McKenzie and Harris forwards.

G. Ritchie, referee.

Mrs. J. D. Parks returned last week from Toronto where she attended the annual branch conference meeting of the W.M.S., Mrs. Parks represented the Cochrane Presbyterian. The meetings were most interesting and helpful.

Says Dangerous Varicose Veins Can Be Reduced at Home

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way.

If you or any relative or friends are worried because of varicose veins, or bunches, the best advice that anyone in this world can give you is to ask your druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) and apply night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you will notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are of normal size. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that even Piles are quickly absorbed. Moislely & Ball sells lots of it.
