CREDITABLE MAGAZINE BY HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

Timmins H.S. Issuing First Number of The Porcupine Quill, an Interesting Publication.

"The Porcupine Quill," the first annual number of a new publication by the pupils of the Timmins High School, will be ready for distribution next week. It is a very attractive booklet of sixty-four pages, with a cover, designed by pupils of the school. The Porcupine Quill is elegantly printed (the work of The Advance, of course); well edited by Miss Minerva Levinson, with Len Caveney, as assistant editor; Miss W. H. Ruth-erford, advisory editor. The various departments are of special interest and talent, the several in charge being as follows:—poet, Jennie Farley; historian, Harold Michaelson; society, Helen Wright; humorous, Justin Lafreniere; prophetess, Margaret Martin; alumni, Thompson Cooper; miscellaneous, Geo. Dewar. The form representatives include:—Jack Cuthbertson, Petronella Smith, Basil Davis, Douglas Carriere, Margaret Martin, Irene Craig and Nathan Shankman.

The executive staff:—business manager, Emanuel Abrams; advertising manager, Douglas Carriere; circulation manager, Horace A. Brown.

The contents of the magazine, practically all the able work of pupils at the High School, include:—Foreword, by Manny Abrams; The Growth of Timmins, by Minerva Levinson; a letter from Inspector G. F. Rogers, to whom the magazine is dedicated; Educational Appreciation, by V. H. Emery; Secondary Education in Timmins, by J. W. Treleaven; Limbs of the Mnds, by Len Caveney; The Charm of Old Things, by Jennie Farley; Back of Beyond, by Jennie Farley; From the Atlantic to the Pacific, by Horace Brown; The Hallow'en Party, by Helen Wright; The High School Orchestra, by Petronella Smith; A Tayl-or Quinceidance, by Helen Wright; Canada and Her Natural Resources, by V. M. Wallingford; On the Eve of an Exam., by P. M. Smith; Disastrous effects of Reading the "Lotus Eaters," by Jennie Farley; Nonsensical Notions, by Annie Scott; Prejudice, by Horace Brown, Kismet, by Jennie Farley; Notes on the various forms; sports; humorous column; Loud Speaker, by Geo. Dewar; and the various departments.

A specially interesting feature is a series of "International" messages from various countries represented by Sonia Charron, Francis Woodbury, Gino Biondi, Rose Bucovetsky, Sylvia Hakala, H. Owstrowsky.

A number of photographs and art sketches add to the interest of the magazine. The art work and literary efforts of the high school pupils are worthy of the highest praise.

The Porcupine Quill will prove a favourite with all interested and all would do well to secure one or more copies when the magazine is issued next week. All concerned are to be congratulated on the very creditable production.

THE FALLS ODDFELLOWS AGAIN WIN SHIELD

(From The Broke Hustler)
District No. 59 I.O.O.F. held their 4th annual Lodge of Instruction at Timmins, May 24th. A number of the brethren of Iroquois Lodge No. 468 journeyed that way. Under the capable leadership of Bro. A. Dixon, P.G., the team of Iroquois Lodge again won the shield when they exemplified the Second Degree.

The Rebekahs provided the eats and everybody had a great time.

John, at circus: Mother, ain't that a hell of a big elephant?
Mother: Johnny, how often must I tell you not to say, "ain't?"—Toot.

Wife—The piano man was here to collect today and he said unless he got the payment tomorrow they would take the piano.

Husband—How much is it?
Wife—Eight dollars.

Husband—Let him take it. We can get a new one for five dollars down.—Life.

SING IT

There are rules that make us scrappy,
There are rules that make us sad,
There are rules that say be careful,
There are rules we think are bad.

There are rules that warn of danger,
There are rules that help our work,
But the rules that make for Safety,
Are the rules we must not shirk.
