RAISIN BREAD SUPREME
When you buy a loaf of our raisin bread it is gone before you know it. The children will locate it and help themselves every time they experience that "gone" feeling. The adults, too, are always ready for a slice of it. To be on the safe side buy several loaves at a time. No chance of it getting stale. Make our bakery your sources of supply.

TRIBUTE PAID TO VALUE OF THE BROKE HUSTLER

"Doing a Valuable Service to the Community It Serves," Says Reader of The Advance
The press in general and in particular receives "far more kicks than halfpence," and so The Advance has much pleasure in publishing the following unsolicited tribute to a contemporary, The Broke Hustler, of Iroquois Falls:
To the Editor of The Porcupine Advance.
Dear Sir,—The recent amazingly successful Northern Crusade to Toronto brings to my mind the fact that there are two great factors working for the good of this North Land, and they are: (1) the general kindness and helpfulness of the present inhabitants to the newcomers, and (2) the optimistic and cheery tone of the press.

It is a very great comfort to realize that the world is not altogether barren of love or kindness, and that this part of the North Land is emphatically no exception to any other part of the world in that respect.
And that fact is a valuable help to the newcomers, in that they are made to feel "at home."
But to my way of thinking the greatest and most beneficial assistance we of the North receive, in order to not only popularize, but to populate our land, is the very consistent advocacy by the press in this part of Ontario of the undoubted material advantages that await the conscientious worker here, the openings and opportunities that are to be found in the vast natural resources of this wonderful North Land.
And in this respect one must award the palm to that excellent weekly paper, The Broke Hustler, whose editorial policy may perhaps best be summed up in three sentences—
"Love of country; devotion to the ideals of liberty; and democracy."
By its well-written articles on Forest Conservation and Fire Protection, and its very evident and ably expressed belief in the great future of New Ontario, The Broke Hustler is doing, quietly and unostentatiously, a valuable service to the community it serves.—I am, dear sir,
—T. F.

New Teachers on Staff of Schumacher Public School

School Re-Opened at Schumacher on Thursday Last. Several Motoring Parties From Schumacher Joined the Crusade to Toronto. Pretty Wedding at Schumacher. Other Items of Interest from Schumacher Correspondent.

Schumacher, Sept. 7, 1927. Special to The Advance.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley O'Hara, Schumacher, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, August 31st, when their only daughter, Doris May, became the bride of Mr. Harry Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manning, of Rouyn, Quebec. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Cushing, Anglican clergyman, of Timmins, in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. S. O'Hara, looked charming in a wedding gown of white georgette crepe over white silk, and carrying a beautiful bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. Miss Elsie Corrigan, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid, was prettily attired in a costume of peach georgette crepe. The groom was attended by Mr. Arlington Hill, of Schumacher. The bride and groom received many costly presents from their numerous friends and relatives. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, following which Mr. and Mrs. Manning left amid a shower of rice and confetti for their future home at Rouyn.
