OLD TIMER OF THE CAMP KILLED BY ROCK FALLING

Mike Korendich Meets Death by Accident on Sunday Evening. Lived at Schumacher for 13 Years

Sunday evening about 11 o'clock, Mike Korendich met death while at work at the McIntyre mine, being killed by being struck on the head by a piece of falling rock. The coroner's enquiry showed that death resulted from accident, without any blame being attached to anyone in the matter. The late Mike Korendich had been a resident of Schumacher for some thirteen years past, and was well known and had many friends who will regret his death. He was about 44 years of age and was a native of Russia, where his widow and son and daughter reside. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon from Schumacher, being attended by many of the friends of the deceased.

TWO BADLY INJURED IN ACCIDENT AT CHARLTON

The Haileyburian last week says: "William Bousu, about 18 years of age, living in Cobalt, who was badly injured in a car accident near Charlton late Monday afternoon, was still unconscious in the Red Cross Hospital at Englehart yesterday, and grave fears are entertained for his recovery. Miss Olga Rosenblum, a companion, also lies in hospital in a serious condition, although reported to be slightly improved. The extent of their injuries has not been determined. Both were members of a party of five, three boys and two girls, returning from Kirkland Lake to Cobalt on Labour Day, and the automobile in which they were riding got out of control, apparently because of defective steering gear, while descending a steep hill a mile and a half out of Charlton, and between that place and Englehart.

Leaving the road, the machine rolled 50 feet down a rocky bank to the Blanche river, stopping only when its progress was arrested by a large boulder. William Lukkinen, the driver, and Miss Bertha Niemi, who was with him in the front seat, escaped uninjured, but the occupants of the rear seat, Bousu and his brother, Richard, with Miss Rosenblum, all were hurt, Richard not very seriously. Help was quickly obtained from Englehart, and the injured rushed to the hospital there. According to Lukkinen, William Bousu, who had joined the party at Kirkland Lake, had driven the car as far as Charlton, and on the journey had struck a rock, thereby, he thinks, damaging the steering gear, but reports here indicate HOLLINGER WON DICKSON CUP IN GAME LAST NIGHT

WHEN in DOUBT

There are many grown-up folks to-day wearing glasses who would have perfect vision and in no need of such if their parents had been more careful when they were young, correcting minor faults with only temporary use of properly fitted glasses.

How about your child to-day? If in doubt bring the child here for thorough examination. We will tell you honestly whether the child's eyes need attention.
