Christmas Crackers
Order early

Christmas is just twenty-one shopping days away, and the busy housewife knows now is the time to get her spices and peels for the Christmas cake or pudding, or the other delicacies for the Christmas table—and with only twenty-one shopping days to go the discriminating shopper is already buying gifts for the Christmas season. On this page we offer a few suggestions for early buyers, all Hollinger quality and backed by the Hollinger guarantee.

We recommend Thompson's Old English Style Mince-meat
It has the flavour and the quality
We know you will like it.

Meats

Quality is the first consideration at all times when it comes to meats,—especially, perhaps, at Christmas time, when most of us want something a little better than usual.

We buy the best.

We can't afford to offer you second grades in meat, or poultry. The prices may be a little higher, but can you afford to pay less?

The best in meat is true economy.

Dried Fruits for Baking
