

South Porcupine Curlers to Play at Cochrane Friday

South End Rinks to Compete for Geo. W. Lee Trophy. Mrs. Geo. Hawkins has the Misfortune to Fracture Ankle in a Fall. Other News from Correspondent at South Porcupine.

South Porcupine, Dec. 28th, 1927. Special to The Advance.

Mr. J. M. Hendry spent Christmas day with his father in Haileybury.

Mr. John Hendry, of the Dome, is staying for a week at the parental home in Haileybury.

Mrs. Frank Brown and daughter, Mary, is visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. Brinton.

Mr. J. E. Boyle is leaving on Friday for a trip to Red Lake.

South Porcupine Curling Club intend to meet Cochrane on Friday, December 30th, to compete for the George W. Lee trophy. Eight players will be sent up from here.

Mrs. George Hawkins had the misfortune to slip just as she was about to go on the ice at the arena on Monday afternoon and falling injured one ankle quite severely, one of the small bones being broken. She will be confined to her bed for possibly a month with the injury. We wish her a sure and speedy recovery.

Christmas was comparatively quiet in town, we heard in police circles to-day, there being no serious disturbances of any kind, just a few drunks who will pay the usual, most likely. There are also some drunks on the docket for Thursday's court who will most likely get more than the usual fine, it being the second offence for one and the third offence for another. The new liquor act carries heavy penalties for drunkenness and they will likely get a touch of some of them. The Russian, Harry Patussnick, who was arrested sometime ago in connection with a stabbing affray at the Dome is again in trouble. He will be up on Thursday, we understand, on a charge of illegally entering the home of M. Meloz, of the Dome, the Russian, whom he stabbed before. It is claimed that he may have had intent to again do bodily harm to Meloz. He got off before on suspended sentence, owing to his previous good character. The high-grading case against George Keucheran, of Schumacher, was remanded to this week's court.

CALLS "THE LOVE OF SUNYA" A GREAT MASTERPIECE

In referring to "The Love of Sunya," Gloria Swanson's picture, which will be at the Goldfields theatre on Monday and Tuesday next, January 2nd and 3rd, Regina Crewe, of The New York Morning Telegraph, calls it "a photodrama which cannot fail to be a masterpiece."

"In photographic effects, in dramatic power, in strength, sufficiency of cast," Miss Crewe writes, "she has prepared a photodrama which cannot fail to be a masterpiece. And she has labored so hard to accomplish this purpose."

Writing of Miss Swanson, Miss Crewe says she has been unspoiled by her remarkable success and still works with the inspiration which marked the days when she was climbing upward to fame.

"Gloria Swanson is one of the super-women of the screen," the critic continues. "One does not predict where she is concerned. Stars have come, and stars have gone. Many of them. They will always do so. But there will remain the few who are firmly fixed in the firmament of fame. They attain the heights and hold them. They are constant—true they live by the light of their ideals. Success does not spoil them. It spurs them on to higher accomplishment. Gloria Swanson is one of these."
