HIGH-GRADE SAMPLES FROM RUN OF THE PRESS
Manilla Bulletin:—Blessed are the poor. The poor woman pays $1.98 instead of $25.00 for a $1.98 hat.
La Grange (Georgia) Reporter:—In this tolerant age most people are broadminded enough to think up some other excuse for their opposition to Al. Smith.

The New Liskeard Speaker last week says:—"Miss Stella Graham and brother Gordon, of Lindsay are guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Eplett. Miss Graham and Master Gordon, who came north with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Eplett of Timmins who had spent the Christmas at Lindsay, will continue their visit north at Timmins."

HEINZ DAY AT HOLLINGER STORES ON SATURDAY

Saturday of this week, Jan. 14th, will be "Heinz Day" at the Hollinger Stores, Ltd. A very general and cordial invitation is extended to all to visit the Hollinger Stores for the occasion and enjoy the delicious samples that will be served. The representative of the Heinz Company is in town and will give demonstration and explanation of the famous "57 Varieties" and why they have enjoyed such popularity and fame on merit. There will be special prices for the day. Those who recall the visit of the representative last year and the demonstration given them of the high-class Heinz goods will be sure of the value of the event on Saturday and will feel that all should attend.
