WOW OF A WESTERN AT THE GOLDFIELDS THIS WEEK

The special attraction at the Goldfields theatre on Friday and Saturday of this week is the Warner Bros. picture, "The Brute," starring Monte Blue and featuring Clyde Cook and Leila Hyams. The story is based on the novel of W. Douglas Newton and was picturized by Harvey Gate. Irving Cummings directed the picture.

Never has the West of pioneer days been more truly pictured. All the thrilling panorama of it is there. Indians, cowboys, bad men, dance hall girls, camp-followers, prospectors, gamblers, Chinks, and greasers. Many of the scenes were taken in grim Death Valley and the surrounding country. But there is much to lighten the grimness. Clyde Cook, for instance, as the lucky miner, Oklahoma Red, is more fun than the proverbial barrel of monkeys.

Monte Blue is cast as "Easy-go-in" Randall, alias "The Brute."

He makes a gallant figure as the lasso-swinging, fighting he-man who rescues Janice (Leila Hyams) from the clutches of Felton of the Razzle Dazzle Saloon. Others in the cast are Carol Nye and Paul Nicholson. "The Brute" is a brave, battling melodrama that will thrill you, make you laugh, make you forget the bad that's in the best of us and remember the good that's in the worst. Don't miss seeing "The Brute."

December Best Month Last Year in Porcupine Output

Gold Production for This Camp Totalled $2,311,082 in December. Kirkland Lake's December Output was also in Excess of Any Previous Month in the Year. Official Figures Produced.

Returns received by the Department of Mines from the gold mines of Ontario for December show increases over November in value of bullion recovered both at Porcupine and Kirkland Lake, although, in the case of the former camp, the tonnage of ore milled dropped off slightly in quantity, while that at Kirkland Lake increased. Figures shown in the table give the month record of tonnage milled and values recovered in the two main fields for the past two years. The value of the total output for 1927 shows an increase of $2,400,144 over 1926.

It should be pointed out that the cumulative total for 1927 will be subject to further revision when the final reports for the calendar year are available. The totals shown for 1926 were the revised figures taken from annual statements, which differ slightly from the cumulative monthly totals. The total output at Porcupine for the year 1927 indicates a slight decrease in value, in spite of a substantial increase in tonnage milled. This is accounted for by the working off of a considerable accumulation of lower grade ore at the Hollinger Mine, in August, particularly.

The outstanding feature in 1927 was the rise of the Kirkland Lake camp from a total value of $600,000 in January to more than a million dollars of output in December, or nearly 67 per cent, in value for an increase of 58 per cent, in tonnage milled. As compared with 1926 figures, the Kirkland Lake mines showed gains of 35 per cent, in value and 54 per cent, in quantity of ore milled in 1927. With the further development and expansion in milling capacity, it would appear that the Kirkland Lake camp approach in the future even more closely to the wonderful record of the Porcupine area.

During December producing mines, in order of output, were as follows: Porcupine (7); Hollinger, Dome McIntyre, Vipond, Ankerite, Paymaster, and Scottish Ontario.

Kirkland Lake (9): Lake Shore, Teck-Hughes, Wright-Hargreaves, Sylvanite, Kirkland Lake, Tough-Oakes Burnsides, Barry-Hollinger, Canadian Associated Goldfields, and Argonaut.

Receipts of crude gold bullion from Ontario at the Royal Mint, Ottawa, for December totalled 138,812.79 crude ounces, containing 104,237.16 fine ounces of gold and 22,739.71 fine ounces of silver, having a total value of $2,168,052.69.

For 1926 the totals for the Porcupine camp were 3,180,943 tons of ore milled, with the value of bullion at $23,810,700.

For Kirkland Lake, the production was 515,124 tons, with bullion valued at $7,107,411, for the year 1926.

The total tonnage of both camps for 1926 was 3,696,067 tons, with the bullion valued at $31,004,111.

The following is the 1927 output of

OIL-DRIVEN MINING PLANT PURCHASED FOR TASHOTA

An oil-driven mining plant has been purchased for the property of Tashota Gold Mines, Ltd., capable of operating five drills, and will shortly be on the way to the property, together with a large amount of supplies and complementary equipment to operate the property.

Freighting is being done by the Brooks Transportation Company, a pioneer transport organization, over the road recently cut to the Tashota Gold Mines, Ltd., property some fifteen miles south of the Canadian National Railway here. Montreal interests are concerned with this development, the company being a subsidiary of Norrington Development Company Ltd., of which R. W. Norrington is the head.
