TIMMINS CITIZENS' BAND AT BIG CARNIVAL WEDNESDAY

To the extended notice given elsewhere in this issue regarding the grand carnival at the Timmins rink on Wednesday evening next, Feb. 29th, under the auspices of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, it may be added that the Timmins Citizens' Band has been engaged for the evening and will provide the best of music for the occasion. Further it may be noted that Rev. J. D. Parks, Mr. Chas. Hall, Mr. P. T. Molesley and Mr. Chas. Roach have kindly agreed to act as judges of the various events during the evening. There is a fine list of prizes for the evening and a programme that should prove of unusual interest throughout.

An Aberdeen shopkeeper went to London to pick up a few tips. He found them under the plates in the tea-shops.

WOMAN ATTACKED, BUT BEAT OFF ASSAILANT.

Sunday evening about 8.30 while returning home after visiting her daughter a lady was attacked near the corner of Montgomery avenue by a man who grabbed her by the wrist and attempted to throw her down. The woman attacked called for help, but at the same time beat at the man's face with her free hand, and eventually succeeded in getting free. The man's face was sore enough that he used both hands to soothe it, and the lady took the opportunity to run for home. Fearing that the woman's cries would bring help the man also ran, and by the time the lady reached home and secured help her assailant was nowhere to be seen. The police were notified and made a search in the hope of securing trace of the man. A fairly good description of the man was secured, but so far no trace of him has been found. The man appeared to be under the influence of liquor.

FEW CASES AT POLICE COURT HERE THIS WEEK

The police court docket this week showed only a few cases. One solitary drunk paid $10.00 and costs. Three charged with non-payment of wages were ordered to settle up forthwith. An order was made for the payment of some arrears in the amounts due a wife in the case against a man who some months ago had been ordered to contribute to her maintenance and the maintenance of her two children.

There may be some other cases proceeded with to-day, there being some charges of vagrancy likely against some men who have been sleeping at the police station but who do not seem to be able to get along with hard work. These men are among those drifting in here without money or employment and becoming charges on the town. Some of them appear not to care so long as they have a place to sleep and someone to provide the food. Work that would make them self-supporting appears to be distasteful to them.

ESCAPED FROM OFFICER AND JUMPED BEFORE TRAIN

A Swastika despatch on Tuesday of this week says that Allan Jones, a barber, who home is understood to be at Cobalt, was badly injured about the head and hips when he escaped from Provincial Officer Stringer and jumped before Train No. 18 as it was coming into Swastika station. The injured man was rushed to the hospital at Kirkland Lake where hopes are held out for his recovery. From what can be learned of the case, it would seem that Jones had been acting peculiarly of late and had been taken in charge and was being brought by Officer Stringer to Cobalt for medical examination. While waiting at the station for change of trains, Jones broke away from the officer and seemed to throw himself before the oncoming train, sustaining a fractured hip and injuries around the head as a result.

MURDER TRIAL SEES MANY WITNESSES TO BE CALLED.

Last year there was much interest taken in the case of a woman whose dead body was found in a river near her home. Interest will likely be increased by the trial now in progress in the matter. Nineteen witnesses were called by the Crown Tuesday in an attempt to weave a net of circumstantial evidence around Omer Dube, who is on trial for the murder of Mrs. Peter Therrien at Espanola. The murdered woman's body was found in a river near her home.

Peter Therrien, husband of the deceased, testified that Dube had lived at his home for seven years, that he had reason to suspect that the accused had been guilty of misconduct with his wife, and that on May 12, the night of the woman's disappearance, Dube had stated that she had been killed and thrown in the river. Two weeks later the finding of the body proved this theory to be true. A friend of Mrs. Therrien, Mrs. Eva Booth, stated that Dube was jealous of Mrs. Therrien. Mrs. Duplessis, another witness, stated that on the night of Mrs. Therrien's disappearance the murdered woman had called at her home, and that after she had left she got into a car which pulled up at the side of the road. Evidence was also offered to show that Dube had said that he was going to rent a car that evening.

A later bulletin says:—Omer Dube acquitted of murder. Judge says he was murderer of husband's happiness.

GOLDALE RETAINS SOME GROUPS OF CLAIMS HERE.

The Northern Miner this week says: "Goldale is retaining its groups next to McIntyre and Dome, also the claims at Mattagami Heights, on which it has mineral rights. All its other Porcupine holdings have been sold as a result of the recent sale. Amounts secured were not very large, indicating that there is little outside exploration interest at Porcupine, or that the field has not much attraction for promoters."

"Offers for the groups retained were not particularly appealing. There is some talk of a big amalgamation of claims northeast of Dome, into which Goldale's ground may be thrown, but Goldale people have nothing to say about it and apparently the plan has not reached anything very definite yet."

"There is no definite word on what Goldale proposes to do with its Coni-anum shares but it may be taken for granted that sooner or later they will be distributed to shareholders."

"Goldale has enough cash to carry itself along comfortably."

FAILED TO APPEAR IN AN ACTION FOR $15,000.00

The Mail & Empire, of Toronto, had the following paragraph in its Tuesday issue:—

"Charles L. Sherrill, of Buffalo, who as second vice-president of the Consolidated West Dome Lake Mines testified last week in the trial in the sessions of C. H. Manaton, on a charge of stealing $118,537.16, failed to appear in the non-jury assizes yesterday when his action against the King Edward Hotel for $15,285 was called. Mr. Justice Logie consequently gave judgment for the hotel. The writ for this suit was issued on November 11, 1922. Mr. Sherrill claimed compensation for a quantity of precious stones and jewelry, as well as $285 in cash, which he said was stolen from his room at the King Edward, on June 23, 1922. The hotel, in its statement of defence, questioned the loss and denied responsibility, declaring that it had no knowledge of Mr. Sherrill carrying the jewelry and stones, and that he had failed to notify the officials so that the goods might be kept in the hotel safe. Further, it was stated, Mr. Sherrill had left his window open upon leaving the room during the interval in which the theft was alleged to have occurred."

The Launch of "The Duchess of Bedford".

No. 1—Leaving the ship after a thorough inspection. No. 2—Premier Baldwin and his wife about to press the release button. No. 3—The Duchess shortly after taking the water.

In the presence of a monster crowd which thronged the great Glasgow shipyards of John Brown and Co. the "Duchess of Bedford" 21,500 gross tons was launched recently by Mrs. Stanley Baldwin, wife of the Prime Minister. The vessel is one of the four "Duchess" class of steamers under construction for the Canadian Pacific Railway Transatlantic route.

At the launching of the new ship speeches were made by the Prime Minister, Lord Aberdeen, Chairman of John Brown and Company, Sir George McLaren Brown, European General Manager of the C. P. R., Captain J. Gillies Manager of the C. P. S. S. and Sir Thomas Bell, Managing Director of the Clydebank Yard.

Premier Baldwin recalled his recent visit to Canada and spoke of this country's wonderful possibilities for a marvellous future. "I am quite confident," he said, "that whatever vision and imagination can do for the Empire at large will be done by the Canadian Pacific Railway."

After cutting the cord from which a bottle of champagne was suspended, Mrs. Baldwin, before touching the button, which was to be the means of the vessel being released, said: "I name you 'Duchess of Bedford'. May God protect and prosper you. May he preserve and bless all those that go forth with you into the known and unknown."

And then, to the accompaniment of tremendous cheering from the large gathering of spectators, the massive structure began to move from the stocks, and gathering impetus as she went, took the water gracefully.
