TWO YOUNG LADIES REACH HERE ON HIKE FROM N.Y.

Have Been Three Weeks on the Way. Greatly Interested in Timmins and the North

On Sunday two young ladies reached Timmins on what is called a hitch-hike from New York City. The idea of a hitch-hike is that only highways and other roads may be used for travel, and the journey has to be done chiefly on foot, though rides may be accepted in automobiles or other vehicles, but not in trains or trolleys.

The young ladies, Miss Blanche Gerkoff, 22 years of age, and Miss Cecilia Silverstein, 20 years, left New York City about three weeks ago. They walked to Toronto, and there hearing about the great city of Timmins, decided they would like to see this place, so on they started. They followed the road to North Bay and from there they went by the Ferguson highway to Porcupine Junction. From the Junction they got a ride in an auto most of the way to Timmins. They said that when they left New York they had only about $35.00 between them, so by the time they reached Timmins they were getting close to being broke. Walking down street they met Officer McCord. "Are you an officer?" they asked. "Well, I'm supposed to be," he answered. "Oh, yes, now we see you are," one then responded, her eyes having travelled as far as his new cap. They asked the officer to direct them to the police station so that they might have lodging for the night. At the station, there was some communcation about placing two such nice young ladies in the cells, so communication was taken up by phone with some of the good citizens of the town. As a result of this the young ladies were taken in charge by the Hebrew Ladies Aid who entertained them very handsomely during their stay in town and who arranged for their return to New York by a more comfortable mode of travel than the hitch-hike.

Misses Gerkoff and Silverstein, who appeared to be very intelligent young ladies, are understood to be members of the Art Students' League of New York City. That they were clever artists was proven by the effective sketches they had made of people who had assisted them on their hike. They had many of these sketches, as well as other souvenirs of their remarkable trip.

The young ladies were dressed in light khaki blouses and breeches and carried knapsacks. They were well tanned by the sun and seemed to be healthy and happy as a result of the trip.

REVIVAL OF INTEREST IN TENNIS IN DISTRICT

There has been a great revival of interest in Lawn Tennis this year and the Timmins Club is showing considerable strength in membership and playing ability. Tournaments for ladies and gentlemen are now under way, and there is every sign of the club having the most successful year of its existence. Arrangements are being made to play an inter-club match with the McIntyre Club at Schumacher during the week-end, and more of these visits will be arranged between the clubs of the district as the season progresses.

MCCHESENEY'S MILL FIRST TO START THIS SEASON

Keeps Up Record of "First to Start and Last to Stop Operations"

The lumber mills of S. McChesney & Sons resumed operations for the season last week, being the first mill in Timmins to re-open after the spring break-up. For some years past the McChesney mill has had the distinction of being the first to resume operations each spring, as well as continuing work later in the season than any of the others. The McChesney mill started sawing on Saturday last, and while not having its full complement of men for the season it will soon be under operation at full force.

On account of the floods this spring, all the mills are about two months behind time in resuming operations. The McChesney mill, however, had logs on hand ready to take up work as soon as other details were ready. The McChesney mill is looking for a busy season and planning to be once more the last to quit the season's work, just as it was the first to start.

SAYS HE WAS HELD UP AND ROBBED OF $300 IN TAXI

John Kazaruik's Memory of Affairs on Saturday Night and Sunday Morning Not Clear Enough

Sunday morning at an early hour John Kazaruik reported to the police that he had been held up and robbed in a taxicab on the way to South End from Timmins. He said that he had visited a woman who accepted money from him. He had foolishly displayed a roll of some $325.00 which he was carrying. The woman, with another woman and three men took him for a drive in an auto. He was set upon and beaten up and then deserted. He was unable to lead the police to the shack where he had been. Eventually, however, the Timmins and Schumacher police working together were able to locate the house and Kazaruik was able quite positively to identify the house and its furniture. In one bedroom of this house two men and two women were found, and Kazaruik was able to identify some of these as occupants of the car where the hold-up occurred. When the case came to court this week Kazaruik's evidence was rather confused. He admitted having been under the influence of liquor at the time he lost his money and not having very clear idea of what had happened or where he was. The accused on the other hand denied having stolen the money. They said that Kazaruik had been driven to Connaught and not to South Porcupine. At Connaught he had first given the money to a clergyman there for safe-keeping, later taking the money back again. None of the money was found on any of the accused, and the charges could not be sustained. Kazaruik is out whatever money he may have lost during the evening, while at the same time he had his face marked up to prove that at least he had certainly been beaten up.

BAND CONCERT TO-NIGHT IF THE WEATHER PERMITS

Attractive Programme to be Presented at the Band Stand Near the Depot.

Another band concert will be given by the Timmins Citizens' Band this (Thursday) evening at the band stand on Spruce street near the station, provided the weather is favourable. With the present weepy condition of the weather it is hard to arrange for concerts that can be given in the open air. In case the weather permits, a very attractive programme will be presented by the Timmins Citizens' Band. The numbers will include marches, two fantasias, a waltz, and two selections, "Recollections of Verdi" and "Recollections of Wales."

This evening's band concert will be the last to be conducted by Bandmaster F. J. Wolno, who leaves this week to take a position with an important supply firm in Montreal. Future concerts by the Timmins Citizens' Band will be conducted by Mr. A. Wilford, the new leader, of the band. Mr. Wilford, who has been deputy leader of the band for some time past, is a musician of marked ability with wide experience in good bands.

Timmins Kiwanis Observe "All-Kiwanis Night" on Monday

Seventy-Seven Present at Pleasing and Impressive Event at Empire Hotel. Programme of Much Interest and Attraction. The Zero Hour Duly Honoured. Inspiring Addresses.

The "All-Kiwanis Night," observed by all Kiwanis clubs throughout the United States and Canada in honour of the International Kiwanis convention held at Seattle this year, was a very pleasing event here, being held at the Empire hotel on Monday night, and all arrangements being effectively made, the evening being a most pleasing and interesting one. The event here took the form of a dinner and programme. There were seventy-seven in attendance and all were pleased with the enjoyable evening.

The programme for the evening included some special features in addition to the programme carried through simultaneously by the 17,000 Kiwanis Clubs on the continent. At Seattle, President Chas. G. Keddie, of the Timmins club, attended the All-Kiwanis Night programme, while the members here and their Kiwanee guests observed a similar affair and the "Zero Hour" period when all clubs in Canada and the United States met simultaneously with the Seattle convention hour to pay an impressive continent-wide tribute to the fellowship and accomplishment of the organization.

At Timmins, the Zero Hour was at 11.15 (it was at 7.15 in Seattle), and it included a fellowship moment of silence, the singing of "God Save the King" and "America," and the reading of the presidential message from Henry C. Heinz, of Atlanta, Georgia, president of the Kiwanis International. The presidential message was given here by Rev. J. D. Parks.

A feature of the event on Monday night was the community singing, there being a large number of popular songs on the programme for all to sing and enjoy. For the dancing programme there was an orchestra of five pieces with W. H. Wilson at the piano, and music and dancing were much enjoyed. Instrumental selections by the trio, Messrs. Bain, Sprague and Gilbert were greatly enjoyed for their merit and interest. Vocal numbers by Mr. Mitchell also delighted the gathering. In the absence of the president who was at the Seattle convention, the vice-president, Mr. W. S. Jamieson, presided and carried the evening through with effectiveness and talent. In the community singing Mr. Phil Young was especially good. As one Kiwanian puts it, "Everybody was singing, including those who can't sing."

Three outstanding features of the programme were the addresses by Mr. C. G. Williams, Dr. Lee Honey and Rev. J. D. Parks was interesting and Williams, "The Meaning of All-Kiwanis Night," gave a very clear and inspiring review of the purpose of the evening. Dr. Lee Honey spoke most effectively on "Kiwanis and Fellowship." In his "Zero Hour" address Rev. J. D. Parks was interesting and inspiring as usual and his address was greatly appreciated.

At Seattle the local Kiwanis delegate has been busy this week at the opening of the convention proper and the sessions devoted to Kiwanis business. On Tuesday the convention was inspired by addresses by outstanding speakers from Kiwanis clubs from far and near. Conferences in regard to administration and business also took the time of the convention. On Tuesday evening the convention attended the International president's annual reception and ball, which was held in the Trianon. There were 6000 Kiwanians at this great event. Reports on public affairs, the work for underprivileged child, vocational guidance and placement, agriculture, business standards, and other phases of Kiwanis activities and ideals were heard by the convention on Wednesday and to-day. The election of International officers for the year and the choice of a convention city for 1929 were before the convention this morning. Three cities are seeking the next year's convention, these being Atlantic City, Detroit and Milwaukee. At the time of going to press word has not been received as to the decisions in these matters.

TWO BODIES RECOVERED IN THE ABITIBI RIVER

One of the Bodies is Positively Identified as That of E. Santarien, Drowned on May 23rd.

Word from Cochrane this week records the finding of two bodies of the victims of the drowning accidents in the Abitibi river on May 22nd and 23rd. Despatches from Cochrane say that with the finding of the two bodies at widely separated localities and at spots far removed from the scene of the tragedy, the Abitibi river has yielded up two of the seven victims it claimed on May 22nd and 23rd.

One has been identified as that of E. Santarien, and he was recovered from the stream near the railroad bridge at Brower, 15 miles from where he met his death on the earlier date. Santarien was one of four Finns of Pyne Township who tried to cross the swollen stream in a boat, three of them being drowned when their craft filled with water. River drivers recovered his body and provincial officers brought it here for burial to-day.

The police have gone to Island Falls to identify the remains of another man found in the same river but 20 miles farther down stream. It is not known yet whether the body is that of one of Santarien's companions, or whether it is the remains of a member of the Lanning survey party who were lost on May 23 and whose wrecked canoe was found a few days ago far down the river.

HORWITZ JEWELRY STORE BROKEN INTO ON SUNDAY

Heavy Plate Glass Smashed and About a Hundred Dollars' Worth of Goods Stolen.

On Sunday morning, apparently about three o'clock, Horwitz's Jewelry store at the corner of Maple street and Third avenue was broken into and goods to the value of about $100, were stolen. The chief loss was in fountain pens and pencils, a number of these being taken. Some Ingersoll watches were also stolen.

Entry was made by smashing the plate glass in the door, likely with a steel bar, as no stone or other similar weapon was found, but there were marks around the door to show where a bar had been used to break off the locks. The locks had proved very stubborn, however, and so entry was made by smashing the window. The glass was fully half an inch thick and the smashing of it must have created considerable noise, pieces of glass being knocked in all directions and most of the pieces being small. About three o'clock Mr. S. T. Walker heard the smashing of glass and looked from the window of his apartments, but noticing nothing unusual anyway took it for granted that nothing untoward had happened. At 3.40 a.m. Mr. Alex Patent of 10 Wilson avenue noticed in passing the place that the window had been broken and notified the police. The police went to the scene at once, and awakened Mr Horwitz and had him investigate to see what had been taken. Several clues were found and the police are working on the case with the expectation of some arrests to be made shortly in the matter.

This little book is a very attractive one and should prove very appropriate for a gift. The cook book is unique in many ways and comprises favourite recipes secured from children going to school. The book also includes articles by Mrs. Zimmerman and Miss Lawrie on the feeding of children.
