HAILEYBURY MAN HURT IN MOTOR CAR ACCIDENT

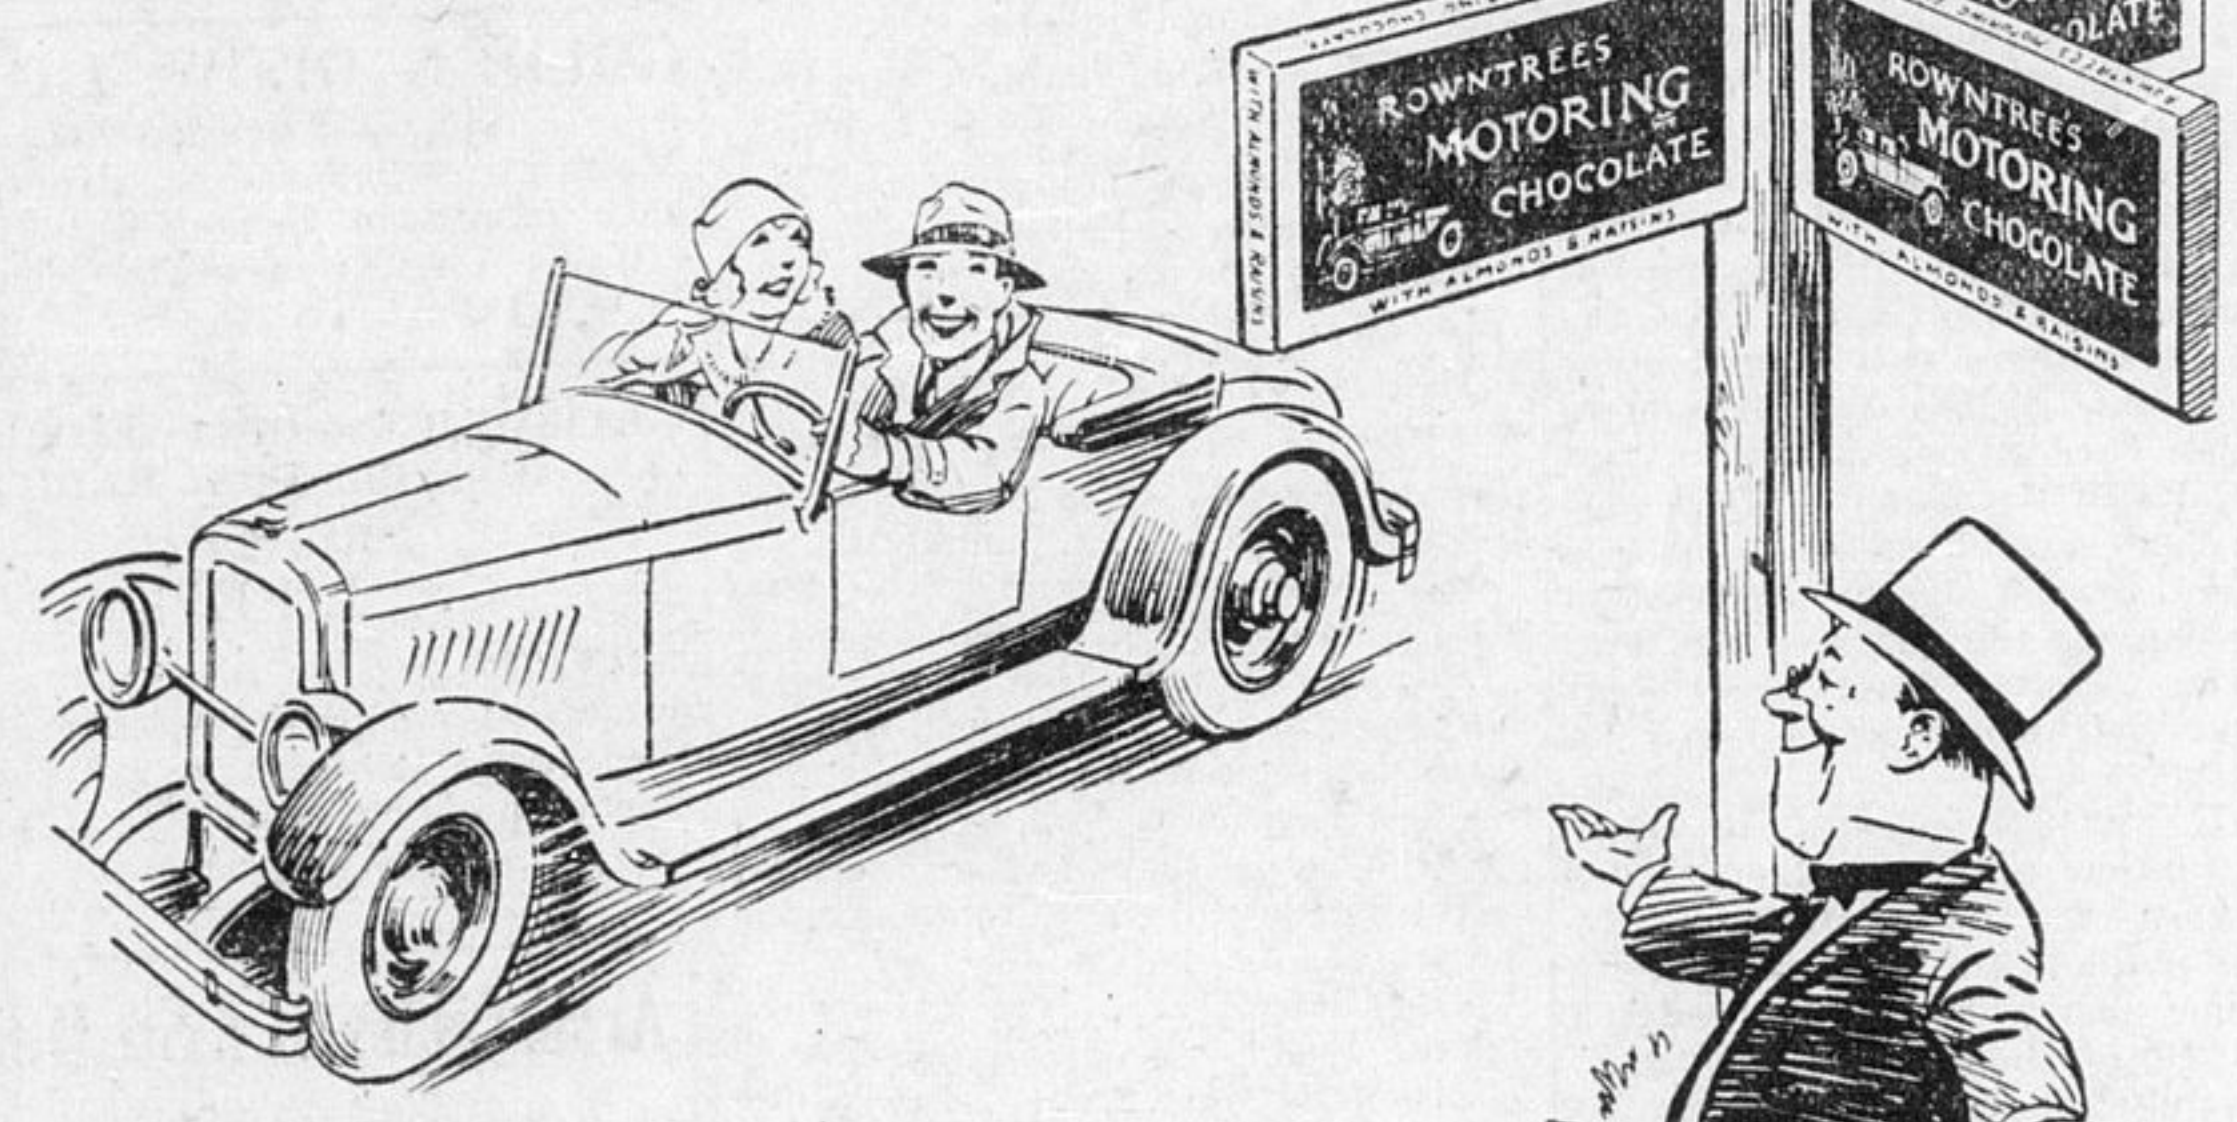

The Haileybury last week says:— "With his collar bone and several ribs broken and the shoulder fractured as a result of a motor smash on Monday, Mr. W. M. Boyce is confined to his home on Russell street and, although it is hoped his injuries will not prove serious, he is suffering badly.

"The accident occurred at about one o'clock on Monday when Mr. Boyce was in New Liskeard and was driving on Wedgewood avenue towards the home of his son, Charles. He turned across the tracks at a crossing near Eplet's factory, when another motorist struck the side of the car in making the turn. Mr. Boyce's car was struck on the side by the other vehicle and is badly damaged. The other car, which belonged to Mr. Finlay, the druggist, of Liskeard, and was driven by a man whom Mr. Boyce does not know, was also smashed to some extent, but the driver was not hurt seriously.

"Mr. Boyce was taken to his son's home following the collision where he received medical attention. On Tuesday it was found possible to remove him to his home here, where his friends all hope for his speedy recovery.

"Inspector Moore, of the provincial police at Cobalt, says that this is the only accident of a serious nature reported to his department over the holiday."

All-ways the Best—

"Are we right for MOTORING?" asked the gentleman at the wheel.

"Right as can be," cheerily called Plain Mr. York of York, Yorks. "All roads lead to Rowntree's Motoring Chocolate. Good roads, too, for Motoring's a delicious blend of sweet Valencia almonds and juicy Nectar raisins in either plain or milk chocolate. You'll thoroughly enjoy it."

Motoring is made by the makers of the famous Plain York Chocolate and bears the Rowntree name—standard of quality in chocolate. Try it to-day—either Plain or Milk—you'll find them positively delicious.

YET THERE ARE SOME THAT DENY ENGLISH HUMOUR

Rosslyn also tells a story about Lord Marcus Beresford who had charge of King Edward's racing stables and who was as full of fun as an egg is full of meat. On one occasion, returning from the races, Marcus Beresford was accompanied by four companions, including Rosslyn and a man known as "Half-Crown" King—so-called because he was supposed to bet only in half-crowns (sixty cents). King unknowingly dropped his railroad ticket as he got into the reserved compartment. Quick as a flash Beresford put his foot on it and later picked it up.

Just before the train arrived at the London terminus the cry of "All tickets!" was heard from the voice of the conductor close at hand. King fumbled for his, and not finding it said desperately: "What on earth am I to do?" "Get under the seat quick," said Marcus Beresford, and under it King went like a rabbit. Marcus handed the conductor five tickets.

"Where's the other passenger travelling?" he asked.

"Under the seat," said Marcus; "he prefers it."

"And out crawled the wretched King to our great amusement," chuckles Rosslyn.

"It says in the Bible that Lot's wife looked around and turned to salt."

"That's nothing. A girl got on the street car and six men turned to rubber."—Baltimore Trolley Topics.—Exchange
