PROMISING GOLD FIELD AT JUNCTION OF A.C.R. AND C.N.R.

A report to the Ontario Department of Mines by James E. Maynard, who is investigating the geology of the Oba gold area at the junction of the Algoma Central and Canadian National Railways, states that the region is largely drift-covered with numerous swamps. The formation is keewatin consisting of mica schists and gneisses which contain varying amounts of coarse pegmatite and granite. Free gold is quite abundant in Walls Township but the veins are small and widely spaced, although they can be traced for considerable distances. Chalcopyrite and molybdenite occur in small amounts in Derry on Kabinakagami Lake. Considerable prospecting is going on in Lizar township and westward towards Nameigos lake. Rain during the season has been very heavy and impeded the work of investigation.

COCHRANE PEOPLE IMPRESSED WITH HON. RAMSAY MACDONALD

The Cochrane Northland Post last week says:—

"This has been a week of distinguished visitors for the town, even though the visits have been of a few minutes duration only. Our last visitors and also the most distinguished, passed through on train number two to-day on their way to Ottawa. The Rt. Hon. Ramsay MacDonald, accompanied by his three daughters, Ishbell, Joan and Sheila. Mayor Ivy, Mr. Way, President of the Board of Trade, and several of the citizens were at the station to pay their respects, and also to take advantage of the opportunity to see the man who had held the biggest position in the world, and who may hold it again. Mr. MacDonald impressed everyone by his simple dignity and democratic bearing."

MAID OF THE NORTH

(By Geo. Straatman, Timmins)
Ever I think of Lula,
The sweetest girl I've known.
I've suffered many losses,
This leaves me most alone,
For now I've lost my Lula
My heart almost will break
For Lula, Lula, Lula,
For Lula, Lula's sake.

Her eyes were stars of beauty,
Gemmed with fiery sparks of love.
I've praised those eyes in verses,
But, oh, not near enough.
Since Lula went, I've suffered,
Wept tears by day and night,
For Lula, Lula, Lula,
My little Northern Light.

Her lips were of perfection,
With kisses sweet adrift.
Her feet were like Diana's,
Of hunting fame, so swift.
When all the world is silent
I hear the echoes ring,
First gently soft, then rising,
Like Lula used to sing.

Her face was like the lily,
Grown on the Northland shore.
In her hair of dark-brown ringlets
A maple leaf she wore.
When in my sleep I'm sailing
Down memory's silver stream,
Then graceful on the farther shore
Stands Lula in my dream.

O, please come back my Lula,
My maid of Nordic blood.
I'll sink my sorrow, suffering,
In the Mattagami flood.
I'll have the pictures taken
When skies are azure blue
Of the North Land and its beauty—
My Lula, Lula, you!

SPECIAL SERVICES AT GRACE CHAPEL, 75 ELM STREET, NORTH

The meetings conducted in Grace Chapel, 75 Elm street south, by Mr. Jas. F. Spink, the noted evangelist and Bible teacher, of London, Eng., have been very successful. Mr. Spink dealt with the "Second Coming of Christ" and the coming of the Anti-Christ. He said that the latter was not Mussolini, as some people seemed to imagine, for the Anti-Christ must be a Jew. Dealing with Mussolini, the speaker said that this remarkable personage is the world's most popular man—the world's ideal. Recently 100,000 people gathered in the old Coliseum to do honour to Mussolini. He was called the modern Julius Caesar and was perhaps the most loved and most feared man in the world to-day. Mr. Spink thought Mussolini was making Italy a great nation and that he seemed to be the supreme dictator of modern times. In Mr. Spink's opinion, God was using Mussolini to work out His purposes and when these purposes were accomplished Mussolini would go the way of all flesh, to make way for even a greater person whom Italy will produce. This greater man is the one for whom the world is waiting, Mr. Spink said. Mistaken statesmen will hail him as the head of the nations, the one who will solve all problems, social, political and economic, that are now disturbing the world; he will combine in himself the statesmanship of Caesar and the military genius of Napoleon; thus Mr. Spink summed up his belief in the matter.

Mr. Spink concludes his series of meetings this (Thursday) evening. Mr. Ludbrook, of London, Ontario, commences a series of meetings at Grace Chapel on Sunday night. Mr. Ludbrook is a bible teacher who is well known. He is a friend of Mr. Spink who speaks highly of him as a teacher and a man. The people of Timmins are invited to hear Mr. Ludbrook.

A bore is a man who, when you ask him how he feels, tells you.

MR. J. R. GORDON ENJOYING FINE HOLIDAY IN THE OLD COUNTRY

A note last week from Mr. J. R. Gordon, one of the pioneer business men of the Porcupine camp and still holding important interests here, gave interesting details of the pleasant holiday he is enjoying in the Old Country. At the time of writing Mr. Gordon was at Inverness. The previous week he had been in Glasgow. Recently he spent a few days in Oban, and intended going from Inverness to Aberdeen. The day he wrote he described the weather as "grand, sunny and warm," none of which was applicable to the weather in the North Land when the latter arrived. Enclosed with the note were two Scottish postcards, one giving "A Hielandman's Prayer" and the other "A Scottish Divine's Reading of the Scriptures." These are reserved for publication to a day when the Aberdeen jokes run out in The Advance. The Advance has still a contract for 7,287 of these Aberdeen humourisms. Mr. Gordon sends kind regards and best wishes to all his old friends in Timmins and district, and these will be reciprocated by hosts of friends here.

Those using the Ferguson highway last week are agreed that in wet weather certain strips of the road are not too good.

Each week The Speaker has been publishing a list of visitors stopping at the New Liskeard Beach tourists' camp. Last week there were 20 parties stopping at the camp, many of the groups being family parties of several persons, and all but one being two or more.
