

Cornish Social Club
Concert on December 23

The Cornish Social Club are preparing a high-class concert to be given in the Goldfields theatre on Sunday evening, Dec. 23rd, after the church services. At this concert a special feature will be the choir of thirty mixed voices, who will present the well-known Christmas carols so popular in the Old Country and achieving equal popularity here. The Cornish people are noted for the way in which they present the Christmas carols. Each year the carol singing of the Cornish people has delighted all here and they never fail to draw a large crowd. The mixed choir of thirty voices is now training for the event so something specially good may be expected for the Dec. 23rd event.

A NEW KIND OF CAR

Hank—What kind of a car does Ed B. have?
Melville K.—I think it is a regular.
Hank—What do you mean a "regular."
Melville—Because all the others go by it.

There is no truer test of a man's qualities for permanent success than the way he takes criticism. The little-minded man can't stand it. It pricks his egoism. He "craw-fishes." He makes excuses. Then, when he finds that excuses won't take the place of results, he sulks and pouts. It never occurs to him that he might profit from the experience.—Thomas A. Edison.

ACCORDING TO HOYLE

"Why look at that girl, she hardly has anything on!"
"Well, it says on the invitations, dress is optional."
Kind Old Gentleman: "Did 'um break 'um little dolly?"
Sweet Child: "Yes; why the hell do they make the damn things so fragile, anyway?"
—Record.

AVERAGE OF PLAYERS IN OSTROSSER LEAGUE

Playing on Eight Different Alleys the Bowlers Find It Hard to Run Up Big Scores.

The players of the Ostrosser League using all eight alleys this year, and not bowling on any one twice in succession are finding it very hard to put up a good average, as there are only two players over 200. It is to be hoped they can keep up the fast pace they are setting themselves and the rest of the players. There are, in fact, only four bowlers over 190, but as there have been just five league matches played and there are over twenty more to come, most of them contend that in spite of the handicap they have placed themselves under they will have no trouble bettering these averages. Below are the averages of those who bowled in six or more league games:—
