SANTA CLAUS TO VISIT TIMMINS ON SATURDAY

Expected to Land Near Town by Airship. Will Proceed Up Third Avenue to Goldfield Drug Store and A. J. Shragge's

Somebody will be saying that Timmins gets more like New York every day. But New York does not get more like Timmins, for poor little old New York has never had a real Turkey Stag, though the game of "Gimme" is known in New York but is so exhausting there that folks simply haven't the strength to grow whiskers or to eat macaroni by the bowl.

But to return to Timmins and its newest modern big city feature! Timmins is to have preliminary visits from Santa Claus in person, previous to the regular arrival here on Christmas Eve. In the big cities Santa Claus comes along and shows himself some days before Christmas. The children accordingly will be delighted to learn that Santa Claus in person was here on Wednesday evening of this week. This is stated on the authority of the Goldfield Drug Store and A. J. Shragge's, Limited. Santa Claus on Wednesday evening read over the letters sent him in care of the two stores mentioned. He has promised that he will accede to the requests made by his boy and girl friends who wrote him, care of these stores, mentioning the gifts they would particularly like. In case any youngster feels disappointed at Christmas time because he or she fails to receive the particular gift specially longed for, that boy or girl should remember that there are literally millions of boys and girls to be supplied with gifts and poor old Santa Claus has to do the very best he can to make all the gifts go round.

There may be some boys or girls who think they are so wise that they do not believe there is any Santa Claus. Such youngsters would appear to have no more sense than some grown-ups. However, if they don't believe those who say there is a Santa Claus, perhaps they will believe their own eyes. On Saturday of this week they can see Santa Claus in person in the town of Timmins. Santa Claus, according to telegrams displayed this week by Col. Scobell of the Goldfield Drug Store, will reach Timmins again Saturday morning of this week just before eleven o'clock. He will come here from his winter quarters by airship, Santa Claus being nothing if he is not up-to-date these days. He will make a landing somewhere on the outskirts of the town. The children should not enquire too closely as to which section of the outskirts he will use for a landing place. It may be noted that the last airship to land in Timmins used the cyanide as a parking place, but then Santa Claus does not like to do things the way others do so he may strike for some other quarter; or he may not. However, he will make a landing some place near and then he will proceed up Third avenue in a dog sleigh. All youngsters will be able to recognize him by the likeness to his pictures and by his dress which is only worn by Santa Claus. After driving up Third avenue, Santa Claus will proceed first to the Goldfield Drug Store where he will make it absolutely plain to the youngsters that he is really Santa Claus by giving away candy. From the Goldfield Drug Store he will proceed to the A. J. Shragge store where more candy will be distributed for those who may be missed at the drug store. Any youngster who would like to get a look at Santa Claus should be on hand on Saturday, Dec. 1st, at 11 o'clock, at the Goldfield Drug Store or at A. J. Shragge's Limited.

Is there anyone who would like to bet any real money that there will not be a crowd of youngsters on hand to see Santa Claus on Saturday? If so, perhaps, there may be some who will go further and suggest that there will be no adults in attendance?

ESTABLISH RINKS FOR THE CHILDREN

(From The Broke Hustler)

In the past years efforts have been made to establish rinks in town for children's benefit. This year applications have been received by the company from several sources for lumber to build rinks with. As this interest on behalf of the children speaks well for their earnestness in trying to help themselves, the company has decided to give free of charge a limited amount of scrap lumber for this purpose.

It has been decided therefore, to receive applications up to and including December 5th, at the Broke Hustler office from those desirous of building rinks. These applications will be gone over by a committee and this committee will decide where these rinks will be located having in mind allocations which will provide for rinks in various parts of the town.

There will however, have to be the necessary enthusiasm on behalf of the children to influence the committee in providing the number of rinks. They will have to be kept cleared of snow and the size will be governed by the number of children in the immediate vicinity who will be expected to avail themselves of the opportunity for good wholesome and healthy recreation.

When the committee meets and decides upon plans, further information will be published in the Broke Hustler.

NEWSPRINT MILLS AGREE TO LIMIT PRODUCTION

Output to be on the Basis of 80 per cent. of Capacity. To Stabilize Industry

After the articles appearing elsewhere in this issue of The Advance had been printed, more definite announcement was made at Montreal in regard to the plans adopted by the newsprint mills to stabilize production. The recent attitude of some of the mills seemed to assure nothing but the ruin of a material section of the industry. It was certain that the prevailing conditions could not continue without very serious effect to the industry and to the parts of the Dominion, including the North Land, where the paper and pulp business is of material importance.

The reference elsewhere in this issue to the fact that an agreement had been reached by the paper manufacturers in conference in Montreal last week did not disclose any details of the proposed solution. Such details, however, are suggested in an article in The Montreal Gazette on Monday.

"Production on the basis of 80 per cent. of capacity" sums up the solution as outlined by the article in The Gazette.

The Gazette proceeds: "This accomplishment, and the acquiescence of A. R. Graustein, President of the Canadian International Paper Company, to the general agreement, as laid down Friday when Mr. Graustein was not present, and his company not represented, formed the main results of Saturday's work. The newsprint magazines held three sessions, one in the morning, one during the afternoon, and one Saturday evening, and adjourned to meet again Monday.

"The problem of price is at present causing the greatest concern," says the paper. "The feeling of the gathering was that a price of $50 a ton is not sufficient, and notably so in the case of some mills which will have to sacrifice customers to permit of an equitable distribution of the market offering.

"On the other hand, the Canadian International Paper Company has a contract said to be for three years with the Hearst interests at a price of $50 a ton, and it was around this contract, and the consequence arising therefrom, that much of the discussion was waged Saturday. Opinion of the conference was, in the main, that newsprint should be sold at a fixed price of not less than $55 a ton, and mention was made of $57 a ton, though, as those taking part in the conference were pledged to secrecy, it is not definitely known whether the $55 or $57 price had most favour.

"On the subject of limitation of production to a basis of 80 per cent, there was less difficulty encountered," the paper states.

"It is learned that the first proposal was that the reduction from capacity should be on a basis of the capital invested in the mill, the argument therein being that it should be accepted that a definite investment meant a definite output. But ultimately it was decided that limitation to 80 per cent. of capacity would better serve the object of the Government in the matter of encouragement of colonization and distribution in the employment of labour.

The result of this will be that some of the mills, and notably the Abitibi Power and Paper Company, which has been producing considerably less than 80 per cent, will increase their production, and other mills which have been running practically at capacity will have to relinquish a portion of their present market. The reshuffling of business thus involved will necessarily have its influence in maintaining the fixed price to be decided upon, a commitment of a mill as to price not being binding upon the mill which takes over the business.
