Second Annual Scottish Night at Masonic Lodge Here

Very Enjoyable Evening Spent by the Masons of the Porcupine District. Excellent Programme Delights Scottish Hearts. Start Made in Forming Masonic Library Here.

Golden Beaver Lodge, No. 528, A. F. & A. M., was the scene of the second annual Scottish night put on by Scottish Freemasons resident in the Porcupine Camp last night, when two hundred members of the local lodge and visitors united to do honour to the patron saint of Scotland, St. Andrew, on the closest lodge night to anniversary of this saint which falls on November 30th. For the work of the lodge, the regular officers yielded their chairs to Scottish members, when a Masonic night was held, with special Scottish practices being observed. A start was made at this meeting to form a Masonic library, two volumes being donated by Bro. J. Massie, twelve by Scots Freemasons and one volume by Bro. P. Dougall.

At the conclusion of the work of the lodge a banquet was held downstairs, Scottish delicacies being the chief bill of fare.

An enjoyable and interesting toast list and musical programme was then held, Bro. W. G. McHugh occupying the position of toastmaster. The first toast of the evening "The King and Craft" was responded to with "God Save the King."

Bro. McHugh then made a few remarks, referring to the second St. Andrew's Night event held by Scots Masons in Timmins, and expressed the appreciation of the brethren from the Old Land to Golden Beaver Lodge for allowing the holding of these events which recalled to every Scot memories of St. Andrew's Night in the homeland.

A bagpipe selection "Will Ye No' Come Back Again" by Bro. F. McPhail won loud and long applause.

Wor. Bro. G. C. Murphy then took the floor and on behalf of Golden Beaver Lodge presented Bro. W. G. McHugh with twenty volumes on Freemasonry as a token of esteem and appreciation. In his reply Bro. McHugh accepted the gift and expressed his appreciation and surprise.

Community singing led by Bro. G. A. Reid was the next order of the night, "Annie Laurie," "Comin' Through the Rye," and "Duncan Gray" being the selections, Bro. Thos. Twaddle accompanying on the piano. Bro. McHugh made a reference to the community singing events held by various Scottish lodges in midsummer for hospital and charity purposes.

The toast "The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Canada in Ontario" was proposed by Wor. Bro. G. C. Murphy in a short speech, Right Wor. Bro. E. J. Mason replying in a witty address.

The whole gathering then united to sing three other popular Scottish songs, "Ye Banks and Braes," "Scots Wha Hae," "There was a Lad," Bro. G. A. Reid again leading, and Bro. Twaddle again accompanying.

The toast "The Grand Lodge of Scotland" was proposed by Wor. Bro. E. L. Longmore, who expressed the honour he felt at being picked to propose this toast, and referred to the history of Freemasonry from the earliest days in Scotland, making special reference to the destruction of records through the civil and national wars of these far-off days.

Bro. G. A. Reid then favoured the gathering with a solo "Hail Caledonia" and in response to the insistent demands for another gave "I Love a Lassie."

In introducing Bro. P. Dougall to reply to the toast to "The Grand Lodge of Scotland," Bro. McHugh said that he was the father of the St. Andrew's Night events held by Golden Beaver Lodge during the past two years. In a short speech Bro. Dougall also referred to the history of the Masonic order in Scotland, and to the strong religious strain which was in the make-up of nearly every Scot.

A banjo selection "Scottish Airs" by Bro. J. Reid of Connaught was an enjoyable event on the programme.

An address on "St. Andrew" by Bro. D. Mackie drew the closest attention. Bro. Mackie referred to the apostle, his call by the Lord, his service and crucifixion, and the subsequent traditions in regard to the final resting place of the saint. Reference was also made to the choice as Scotland's patron saint, the history surrounding this event being recalled.

Bro. Jas. Ralph then delighted the gathering with a monologue.

The toast "Golden Beaver Lodge" was proposed in a few well-chosen words by Bro. W. G. McHugh, Wor. Bro. E. Richards responding to this in an equally short and to-the-point speech.

A banjo selection by Bro. J. Reid and another bagpipe selection by Bro. McPhail were enjoyable numbers, Bro. D. Mackie making a great hit with his rendition of "Rolling Home."

Bro. McHugh then called on Rt. Wor. Bro. C. G. Williams for a few remarks. Bro. Williams made a short speech, using the title of Bro. Mackie's solo as the theme.

The Junior Warden's Toast and "Auld Lang Syne" concluded the second St. Andrew's Night and one of the most enjoyable events held by the Freemasons in Timmins.

Gold Nugget Rebekah Lodge, No. 173, Timmins, is holding a dance on Thursday, Dec. 6th, at 9.30 p.m. All Oddfellows and Rebekahs will kindly accept this as their invitation. Music for the occasion will be by Tommy Stephens' orchestra.

Less Than a Dozen Cases at Week's Police Court

There were less than a dozen cases at police court this week—eleven, to be exact. Four of them were the ordinary drunk type, and the penalty was the ordinary $10.00 and costs. On a charge of illegally having liquor Victor Thomas was fined $100.00 and costs. One charge of theft was adjourned for a week. An assault charge was withdrawn. The case against Geo. Ticalo, charged with the theft of some gold ore, was adjourned to next week. There was adjournment also in the case of a theft charge. Two charges of theft developed from the stealing of a shirt, razor and some other goods from a camp near town. One of the young fellows concerned in this was found guilty and sentenced to thirty days. The other was found to be only fifteen years of age and was paroled to the C.A.S. superintendent for a year.

Ensign and Mrs. Bond left last week for Toronto to take up their new charge, the Rhodes avenue corps of the Salvation Army. Ensign and Mrs. Bond made many friends both in and out of the Army during their stay in Timmins, and they will be followed with all sorts of good wishes to their new home and new duties.
