GRAVEL AND SAND—AND PLACER

To one and all and everybody and friends The Advance sincerely wishes a very happy and prosperous New Year...

There is one thing that Scotsmen are generous about giving—and that is, good wishes for a guid new year!

Elsewhere in this issue will be found several references to the case against the editor of the Finnish Sudbury paper, Vapaus, who was recently arrested on charges of making derogatory remarks about the King...

At Sudbury some days ago an old gentleman was before the magistrate on a charge of vagrancy. He was asked to enter a plea as to whether or not he was an "idle, worthless fellow..."

might assist him for the few years he has left of the life that was a busy, honest and a useful one. The police are in no way to blame for laying the charge of vagrancy against this old gentleman...

In these days when all ills are supposed to be removable by legislation, why not pass a law against the "morning after"?

The Advance this Christmas time has received so many Christmas greetings and good wishes from firms and individuals, readers, advertisers, customers...

A two-cent postal rate on letters from Canada to Great Britain is to be re-established by Canada, and, perhaps, someone may give Hon. Mr. Veniot credit for this...

Ripley, the cartoonist, who provides the illustrated feature, "Believe It or Not," for the daily newspapers, pictures Major Coghlan, of the St. Louis Post-Despatch...

Some bold spirit should advocate a four-day Christmas. All will agree that the day before Christmas should be a holiday to allow proper preparation for the event...

A newspaperman visiting Timmins this week asked the old question, "Do people read editorials?" Does it matter much anyway?

Newspapers in general and some technical journals in particular have been featuring recently the story of John Dahlgren, a North Dakota farmer, who is creating a sensation in the oil and mining world...

CLEVER CAPTURE OF MAN WITH STOLEN GOODS

Companion Acquitted of Charge. Other Cases at the Police Court This Week.

The Timmins police made a clever capture of two young men sought by the North Bay police this week. Officer Perreault happened to hear casually of some people in town who had been getting some big bargains in buying watches and rings at reduced prices...

At the same court five drunks paid ten and costs each and some speeders did the same.

In her absence Mrs. Vescusi, charged with permitting drunkenness in her home, was fined $100.00 and costs or one month. The police in responding to a call there found desperate conditions prevailing...

A wife charged her husband with beating her. He was bound over to keep the peace. Some assault cases were adjourned to next week.

Encouraging News From Wright-Hargreaves Mine

This morning over the A. E. Moysay & Co. private wire the following information was received from a very reliable source:—"Wright-Hargreaves at the 1300-ft. level in the downward extension of the new ore body developed on the 1250-ft. level shows considerable free gold..."

Mr. Edward Morris has returned to Kirkland Lake after spending Christmas with his sister, Mrs. Fred Ladouceur.

Mr. Roger Courtemanche returned last week from the Sacred Heart College at Sudbury to spend the Christmas vacation at his home here.

"QUEEN ESTHER" WILL BE REPEATED NEXT MONTH

Cantata so Effectively Presented by Timmins Choral Society to be Given in St. Anthony Parish Hall

The cantata, "Queen Esther," so pleasingly given on Wednesday and Thursday evening last in the Goldfields theatre, will be repeated in the St. Anthony Parish hall in the course of the next month or so. Rev. Fr. Theriault was so pleased with the excellence of the presentation last week that he felt that more music-lovers should have opportunity to enjoy this really remarkable event...

Extended reference was made last week to the excellence of the cantata as presented at the theatre. It may be added that the cast was exceptionally well filled in every case and the choruses were specially good. Mr. Jas. Geils, the director, excelled himself in this cantata this being the best musical event presented by local talent in the North. Another special feature was the orchestra of eight pieces:—Mr. Shrage, piano; Mr. Gilbert, cello; J. Lloyd, cornet; P. Cherry, piccolo; D. Howitz, W. Shub and Birrell Bell, violins; A. Wilford, trombone. It would have been difficult to improve on the leaders in the cast:—Miss Allen, as the Queen; J.

LOCALS

The Misses Knox are home from college for the holiday season.

Dr. Gagnon, V.S., of Cochrane, Ont., renewed acquaintances here during the week.

Mr. Dan Morris left this week for Noranda after spending Christmas with his sister, Mrs. Fred Ledouceur.

Mrs. W. R. Lowery, Miss Lowery and Clifford, of Cobalt, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. J. Massie.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins left this week for a holiday visit to friends in the South.

Mr. Rudoiphe LaSalle, is home from Sacred College, Sudbury, for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Jos. Berini was called home to Fort William last week on account of the death of his father.

Born—in Timmins, Ont., on Monday, Dec. 17th, 1928, to Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Borland, Jr., a daughter (Mildred Evelyn).

Cowan, as the King; Mrs. Stonehouse as Haman's wife; A. J. Downie, as the beggar; J. T. Heffernan, as Mordecai; G. A. Reid, as Haman. All carried the parts in very effective way. A special word should be said for Miss Allen, Mrs. Stonehouse and Mr. Downie. They filled their roles like professionals of the better class. Wilford Thompson, as the scribe, was also very pleasing in his parts. Mrs. Cretney, as the prophetess, was also a favourite. There were an unusually large number of most attractive choruses, solos, duets, etc., and altogether the event was a musical treat that was a decided loss to all who missed it. Instead of writing more in praise of the event, The Advance would urge all to enjoy this excellent musical event on its next presentation.

Mr. Lillie, of Sturgeon Falls, is visiting his son, Mr. H. Lillie.

Mr. R. Orr, of Ottawa, is spending the Christmas holidays the guest of his brother, Mr. W. W. Orr.

Miss Georgette Fournier, teacher, from Cochrane, is visiting her mother at Timmins during the holidays.

Mr. Wm. Morris, of Sudbury, is spending the holidays at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Ladouceur.

Mr. C. B. Alton, of Iroquois Falls, spent the Christmas holidays at his home in town.

Mr. Doug. Brown, now of New Liskeard, spent the week-end at his home in town.

Messrs Dunc. Twaddle and R. Maxwell, of Kapuskasing, are spending the Christmas holidays at their homes in Timmins.

The Cochrane Northland Post last week says:—"Mrs. Prince, of Timmins, is visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Proudfoot at the parsonage."

Owing to the holiday, police court was not held here this week until this morning, the Wednesday court being dropped for the festive season.

Reports are very persistent here that Loblaws intend to open a branch in Timmins, one of the latest stories even mentioning the particular building said to be rented for the purpose. But no official confirmation is given of the stories.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pierce, of Toronto, are visiting relatives and friends in Timmins during the holiday. Mr. Pierce was one of the real pioneers of the Porcupine, being the first merchant here and later being interested in stores, lumber concerns and other industries and businesses. 37p
