South Porcupine Scouts Won in Hockey in Overtime

Fast and Exciting Hockey Between South Porcupine and Dome Scouts. Visitors To and From South Porcupine. Franklin Hall Seriously Ill. Mrs. Hall Loses Sister by Death. Other South Porcupine News Items.

South Porcupine, March 19th, 1929. Special to The Advance.

Miss Betty Pearce spent a few days last week visiting friends at Kirkland Lake.

Mr. H. M. Wilson is on a business trip to Kapuskasing.

Mr. W. P. Taylor left on Sunday to join Mrs. Taylor in Toronto for a week. Mrs. Douglas Warren, of Connaught, was in town on Monday. Mr. W. D. Pearce has bought Mrs. Warren's house on Broadway, we hear.

Mr. H. R. M. Turner was a guest of friends in town this week on his return from a business trip to Noranda.

Mr. M. Clark was in Halleybury over the week-end, having gone down to attend the banquet given by the Order of Railroad Telegraphers at the Halleybury hotel. The officials of the company were the guests of the Order. Senator Robertson being one of the guests of honour.

Born—On Wednesday, March 13th, to Mr. and Mrs. Jock Robertson, of Domes Mines,—a son.

On Saturday evening last a number of her friends gathered as a surprise party, at the home of Mrs. Henry Miller in honour of her birthday. Three tables of five hundred were enjoyed and Mrs. Miller was made the recipient of a beautiful tray.

We understand that Mr. George Banks has been appointed as curate at St. John's Anglican Church, Toronto, for the summer. During other years, Mr. Banks has spent the period out of college here in Porcupine and has frequently occupied the pulpit in St. Paul's church. We wish him every success in his new field.

On Wednesday, March 13th, the First South Porcupine Troop played the last game of the Scout League with the Dome Troop. The teams lined up:—Dome—goal, McWilliams; defence, C. McCaffrey, R. McPhail; centre, B. Doran; wings, S. Stovell and B. Stovell. South Porcupine—goal, Cattarello; defence, H. McInnis, B. Bucovetsky; centre, T. Sampson; wings, Holding and H. Martin. In the first period both teams worked hard but seemed to be testing each other out. There was no score in this spasm. The second period saw the Dome Blue Shirts and the Porkies both roughing it a little but there was still no score. Cattarello in goal held his own. The Porkies charged the Dome citadel and a scramble resulted in which McWilliams, the Dome goalie, was knocked down. The boot-heel did not get over the line, however, and the gong rang for the end of this bout in a 0-0 score. The third period opened with the Dome pressing hard. After two minutes of play Sam Stovell scored for the Dome. The Porkies came to life and rushed the Dome troop off their feet and a goal was scored from a melee in front of the Dome citadel, making the score a 1-1 tie at the close so the game ran into overtime. S. Sampson went into the net for South Porcupine during overtime and Cattarello played at centre ice. After the first five minutes of play the teams changed ends. Still no score. Then Cattarello, on an assist from Martin, slipped the disc past McWilliams putting South Porcupine one up. Soon after on a lone rush he made another tally. McCaffrey worked his way through the whole Porcupine team but failed to score, the game ending 3-1 in favour of the Porkies. The Dome boys had speed to burn which they used to advantage but seemed to lack the weight of their opponents. This gives the South Porcupine Troop possession of the "Nitro-Glycerine" trophy for this year and they wish to convey their thanks to the donors of this trophy. The good sportsmanship of the Dome and Schumacher troops has been very favourably commented upon. Pete Mill refereed the game, keeping the boys down to hockey and it was so fast at times that Pete himself had to hurdle the boards to keep out of the players' way. The attendance was not very large but those present enjoyed the brand of hockey dished up.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hendry have opened their home and hearts to a bonny fourteen-months' old baby boy who was left an orphan. We congratulate this little man on his choice of parents.

Mr. C. V. Gallagher has returned from Woman Lake in the Red Lake area.

Mrs. W. Gagnon and little son, Gerald, are visiting Mrs. Gagnon's parents at Cobalt.

The whole district sincerely sympathizes with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall in the serious illness of their only son, Franklin, who was taken sick a week ago. On Sunday a transfusion of blood was given him. Mr. Jim Fell supplying the blood. Others have been ready if more was needed. We understand oxygen is being used this afternoon and the stricken boy is still holding his own in the grim struggle. While torn with anxiety over the fate of their little son, another blow came to Mr. and Mrs. Hall this morning when a telegram arrived from Toronto bringing the sad news of the death there from pneumonia of Mrs. Hall's sister, Miss Elsie Smith. The late Miss Smith has frequently visited here and won many friends whose hearts are full of sympathy for Mrs. Hall who is prostrated at the blow and under the care of the nurses at the Porcupine hospital, where her little son is also being cared for. Later reports Wednesday state Franklin is improving.

Mrs. Jamieson, of Toronto, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Honer, at the Dome Mines.

The two bridge clubs were both entertained at the home of Mrs. M. Smith on Thursday last. Mrs. W. Johns and Mrs. Smith being the joint hostesses. The house decorations, table adornment, lunch, etc., were all in keeping with St. Patrick's Day spirit, this being the meeting nearest the 17th of March. The first prize winners were Mrs. Andy Taylor and Mrs. D. McLellan, while Mrs. J. Alexander and Mrs. Frood shared the consolation honors. The prizes were also in keeping with the saint of the Emerald Isle and a "rae jolly Irish noit" was spent by all. There were six tables played.

Mr. George Stanger arrived from Toronto on Tuesday last week.

Master Marshall Hamilton returned on Monday from a visit to his grandparents in Toronto. While there he enjoyed the Iroquois Falls series of hockey games and as one of The Advance newsboys he had the privilege of being shown over the fine new 21-storey building and equipment of The Daily Star, and was presented with a copy of this week's comic section of The Star Weekly as it came off the press, after having seen it in the various stages of its make-up.

In the police court on Thursday last two men were fined $100 and costs for having liquor illegally and two more paid $25 and costs for choosing the wrong place in which to drink it. For obtaining goods under wrong pretences a man from Schumacher got three months in reaty, no pretence about it.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Gregory, of Hamilton, Ont., were Timmins visitors last week.

We Offer You Photo Finishing of the Prize-winning Kind

EASTMAN'S big prize contest is for amateurs only—for everyday pictures anyone can take. That means that your chance of turning out a prize-winning picture is as good as any other entrant's.

After you have taken your contest pictures your part is done. The final appearance of your pictures, however, will depend entirely upon the manner in which your exposed films are developed and printed.

Don't take any chances with your valuable contest films. Don't leave them just anywhere to be finished. Be sure to send them where you can depend on skilful and careful workmanship for every roll of film.

The concerns whose signatures appear below can be counted on for results that are right. Their contribution toward your success in the contest is to give you photo finishing of prize-winning quality.

Send your contest films to them or their agencies and be assured that your prints will be the best it is possible to make them.

If you have had much experience in taking pictures you know that Kodak Film in the familiar yellow box produces the highest-quality negatives. Stock up with Kodak Film and make any of the stores listed below—or their agencies—headquarters for contest information, supplies and finishing.

of the goat and the proverbial fact that it finds few things "hard to eat" would suggest that the animal would be of some use in keeping down the growth of sprouting trees on partly cleared land.

In any event Mr. Ballantyne has given a good foundation for intelligent discussion of the question, and farmers' clubs and individual settlers might do well to carry on the discussion to a logical conclusion. The suggestion of The Northern Tribune that the Governments might also take a hand in experimentation and encouragement of goat-keeping among the settlers, if such were found to be practical and profitable, is also well worthy of consideration and action to follow.

Simcoe Reformer—A federal grant towards maintaining Jack Miner's game sanctuary at Kingsville would meet with the approbation of everyone who has seen or read of the wonderful work Mr. Miner has done in preserving the wild life of the country. It is an institution as unique as it is valuable and its fame has undoubtedly been responsible for bringing thousands of American visitors across the border to see it first-hand.
