GRAVEL AND SAND—AND PLACER

A certain, or uncertain Toronto newspaper has made much unlovely howl about officers of the law shooting at fleeing prisoners in Ontario. Yet this same certain, or uncertain, newspaper has had nothing in objection to United States revenue men shooting at a Canadian vessel at sea, sinking the boat and causing the death of one man.

Too much should not be expected from Premier King in regard to looking after the interests of Canadians in regard to the recent sinking of a Canadian schooner at sea by a United States coastguard. Washington can always reply to any serious pressure by the words, "Now, you just keep quiet, or you can't come to our country in the next war."

Communists attempted to break up a labour meeting at Toronto on Saturday evening. J. S. Woodsworth, M.P., of Winnipeg, was the speaker to the labour gathering and James Simpson was the chairman for the labour men. These two have often enough begged for the license caled liberty for the communist type of humans, but even this tolerance did not save these two from the intolerance of communism. ranny was made evident.

Kapuskasing's new newspaper, The Northern Tribune, KILLED BY SPEEDER IN would be inclined to be proud and boastful, to judge from appearances. In a recent issue The Northern Tribune recounts with triumphant vanity that it had a visit from a burglar recently. Not content with this the paper proceeds to suggest that the cash box was stolen. Of course, if a Member of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association newspaper found a cash box it would be very convenient for storage room for extra spaces and quads, if there are such things. The fact of a newspaper talking about burglars breaking into its office, and about having a cash box recalls to mind the vanity of a chief of police in Timmins many years ago. In recounting a call received by him at night for ing Mr. Simpson's speeder in time an attempted murder plot, he told the newspapermen, "I came down stairs in my pyjamas." When police chiefs wear pyjamas and newspapers have cash boxes, it seems time that this North were moving farther North away from the corroding shell of effete civilization.

> A local Scotsman tell the latest joke about the Scot. He says a Scotsman recently attended a four-ring circus, and has been cross-eyed ever since. (Diagrams may be obtained at this office).

> Last week was Orange Week in Timmins. Oranges of the finest quality were sold at ten cents a dozen by local groceterias that were trying to outdo each other in the bargains offered to the public.

This paragraph is inserted at the request of a local Scotsman who gave a quarter of a dollar to a friend, and had to Seagulls in East Lincolnshire have re- cepting Ford parts); 6 used cars; office depend on his own ingenuity to get the quarter back from another friend. The Scotsman asks that the story be published so that no more Scots may have the anxiety of fear- ng guns to protect their stock. ing that it may not be possible to locate a friend who will part with a quarter. Some joker started the trick in town this week by approaching a friend and saving, "Lend me a guarter, please!" The friend complied and was handed the following typewritten receipt:-"Thank you for the quarter! You are now a member of the Jewish Navy. This money is to be used for transporting hogs to Jerusalem. Eventually the police reserves had to be called out to assure | Don't get sore! Get your quarter back the way I got min? the labour men the right of free speech at thir own meet_ Literally scores of people in town this week fell into this ing. The real communist brand of intolerance and ty- trap. And now the jokers will feel that it does not pay to advertise!

The suggestion of The Northern Tribune that the Red a supposedly important United States firm, the letter bear- Cross maintain an airship at Remi Lake so that speedy help ing the address, "Timmins, Canada, U.S." Probably there may be sent to the Hudson Bay area in case of serious need is some excuse for people mistaking Canada for a part of such as illness or accident or danger of food shortage is one the United States, when they apparently think that the that is worthy of consideration. The Northern Tribune suggests that the plan might be financed by donations from the people of the North Land. Despite all the statements Recently newspapers in Ontario have been carrying on a issued by the departments at Ottawa there is a general begrave and gay discussion arising from the decision of a lief among those in a position to know that there is much learned judge, as to how many constitutes "a few." Even suffering among the Indians in the Hudson Bay area scripture has been quoted to prove that a few is eigh. through lack of medical and surgical attention. To pre-, have been sold in recent years. The Dominion Government is in duty ists, too many blind pigs, too many hold-ups, too many bank bound to protect and care for its Indian wards, but if the robberies, too many postmasters dismissed by Hon. Mr. Federal administration shirks its duty it might be no more Veniot for political reasons, and too many emotional breaks than simple humanity for the people of the North to get by Hon. Mr. Finlayson. It would indeed, be interesting to behind the Red Cross or some other organization that would see that the original people of this country are not allowed to suffer and die unheeded.

Dog owners should be warned by the discussion in the the benefit of men working in plants where furnace fires town council on Monday. Some months ago there was dismake floors intolerably hot for ordinary footwear. There cussion about the enforcement of the by-law forbidding dogs may be a deeper significance hereafter in the expression to run at large, and it was felt that a rigid application of the by-lay would be a hardship to dogs and their owners alike. RAILROADS AND BUSES

(New York Sun)

The diminution of passenger revenue is a matter of serious concern to railroad finance. Almost every day records new gains for the automobile and the motor bus at the expense of the railroad. Fully aware of the trend of the times, several railroads are themselves going in extensively for motor bus operation as an auxiliary to regular passenger traffic. This is rather a good thing for the public, since the railroads are in excellent position to give to the operation of motor buses their vast experience in handling passengers.

ABOUT DRUNKS

"The Way of the World," in the Daily

Herald.) "Drunk means drunk," bluntly declares Sir Leonard Dunning, H.M. Inspector of Constabulary. If it is as simple as all that why have we so many different expressions for the state? Does Sir Leonard see no distinction among any of these; fuddled, mellowcut, boozy, fou, frsh, merry, elevated, flustered, disguised, groggy, top-heavy, potvaliant, glorious, potulent, tight, overcome, whittled, screwed, corned, primed, raddled, sewed-up, lushy, nap muddled, muzzy, obfuscated, maudlin, half-seas over, and three sheets in the wind?-and there are plenty more. There are, in short, few plain drunks.

Word was received here of the death this week at Toronto of Mr. Chas. Sheridan, well-known in the North Land, where he was a frequent visitor years ago, bringing in here cars of fruit and vegetables for sale at a time when this service was greatly appreciated. Mr. Geo. Sheridan, foreman for Hill-Clark-Francis, and Mr. J. G. Sheridan, of town, are brothers of the late Chas. Sheridan.
