TALKING ABOUT 'DUTCH' DOWN AT KIRKLAND LAKE

Man From Kirkland Lake Interested in Amateur Sport Looking Things Over Here. Mickey Watts Training Strenuously

Report has it that a man very much interested in amateur sport at Kirkland Lake is in town at present to look over the line-up for the boxing exhibition to be put on at the skating rink at Timmings on Friday of this week, May 17th.

"Dutch" Johnson has always experienced trouble in getting sparring partners of his own weight who can stand the gaff, and while fighting at 133 lbs., he has had to train with partners from 150 to 175 lbs., even then knocking the heavier partners down for the count.

Mickey Watts arrived in Timmings a short time ago from Bridgend, Wales. Watts has 7 years on Dutch, and got his training during and shortly after the great war.

Being an old campaign man, if one wishes to call him such, he does not for a minute underestimate his opponent, Dutch Johnson.

It is rather peculiar to compare part of the training of Johnson and Watts. Johnson spends an hour each evening shifting 100-lb. bags of sugar around his company's warehouse, while Watts, at his own request, was changed from nipper at the mine to mucking.
