COBALT WOMAN AWARDED
ALLOWANCE SHE ASKED FOR

An echo of an action for alimony which came before Mr. Justice Roney at the Spring Assizes in Halleybury two months ago, was heard in Division Court at Cobalt when Mrs. Myrtle Davis, Cobalt, brought suit against her husband, Edward Davis, for $50, representing two months allowance under the separation agreement reached in the Supreme Court case. She got judgment from Judge Hayward. Davis has applied for a re-trial before His Honor in chambers.

MOTHER OF MR. J. CULHANE
PASSED AWAY AT ASHDOD

In last week's issue of The Renfrew Mercury, the following reference was made to the death of Mrs. Culhane, mother of Mr. Joseph Culhane, of Timmins:—

"One of Ashdod's best known and most highly respected residents passed away on Sunday afternoon at the home of her son, Mr. J. K. Culhane, at the advanced age of ninety-eight years. The late Mrs. Culhane, together with her husband who predeceased her a few years ago, were among the first settlers in Ashdod. Always of cheerful disposition, she was every ready to help those who at any time needed her help, and although she had lived well over the allotted span, she had the full use of her faculties till the last and could recall many incidents of long ago. The funeral on Tuesday morning to the R. C. church and Holy Well cemetery, with services conducted by Rev. C. J. Jones, Calabogie, was largely attended. People came from Eganville, Douglas, and Renfrew to show a last token of respect for the departed. Spiritual offerings numbered thirty-nine. The deceased is survived by four sons and two daughters. Four sons died some years ago. The sons are Daniel, of Butte, Montana; Patrick, of Cobalt, Joseph of Timmins and J. K. of Ashdod; also daughters, Mrs. Daniel Hunt and Mrs. Daniel Mulvihill of Mount St. Patrick. The pallbearers were Messrs P. J. Bulger, James Scollard, Patrick Shanahan, Frank O'Connor, Daniel Mulvihill and Michael Gagan."

Dr. Alexander, specialist, of Toronto, was a visitor to town this week on professional business, having several operations here for throat and nose troubles.

Each year it becomes more difficult for local newspapers to find the names of local students in the list of those successful at the various university examinations. The results as published often occupy columns of space in the daily papers and as the residences of the students are not noted, local students can not always be identified in the lists. Mr. W. J. Dunlop, of the University of Toronto, has overcome this difficulty by sending the local press throughout the province the names of successful students from their respective localities. Through this helpful plan The Advance is able to announce this week that K. C. Charron, Kirkland Lake, recently passed the examinations in First Year, Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto.

Mrs. M. Ryan and children are visiting at her old home in New Liskeard.

Mr. John Turcotte, formerly of Timmins, but more recently of Sudbury, visited here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cadman are receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends. They are residing in the former Pumaville residence, Broadwood Ave."

While unloading timbers at a Kirkland Lake mine last week, Colborne Ames, of last year's Kirkland Lake Senior Hockey team, had the ill-luck to have his left leg broken just above the ankle by a timber that slipped from the load. He will be laid up for some weeks, but as the break is a clear one, he will suffer no permanent ill-effects from the accident. He is considered one of the best hockey goal tenders in the North Land.

THE LUCK OF THE IRISH

An Irish fireman, rescuing a woman at a blaze, lost his hold near the bottom of the ladder and landed heavily with the woman on top of him. A doctor hastily summoned pronounced Pat sound, though badly bruised.

"You are a brave gentleman," said the doctor.

"Brave, maybe, but no gentleman," returned Pat, rubbing his injuries, "or I'd a-let the lady go first."

McManus Red Lake Fully
Financed for the Season

The McManus Red Lake, which is largely operated by South Porcupine men, is now fully financed for the season. Some men are now at work on the property, and more men will be added in the course of a few weeks. It is the intention to carry along a good programme of exploration and development on the property which is proving a very promising one. Results so far have been eminently satisfactory and it is expected that the work this season will still further prove up the property.

Youngsters Throwing
Stones at Motor Cars

Many complaints have been made recently regarding youngsters throwing stones at passing motor cars and trucks. In addition to the very serious danger of injury to people in motor cars through these ill-flung stones, there is the damage done to the cars themselves. One man, who has an elegant new car, last week had full justification for ill-humour when a thoughtless boy threw a stone that slurred the fine enamel and left a nasty ding in the car. The damage can scarcely be fully repaired at any cost. Parents and others concerned should warn the youngsters against this reckless practice of throwing stones at cars. Unless they do they will have a damage bill to pay one of these days that will be a very serious matter. There is also the very grave danger of a mis-sent stone seriously injuring or killing someone in a passing motor. No one surely wishes to see either of these eventualities, but serious consequences are practically certain unless the bad trick of throwing stones at motor cars is discontinued. Parents should take the trouble to see about this matter for their own sakes and for the sake of their youngsters, to say nothing of the respect for the property and safety of others that should be the concern of all who pretend to be good citizens or good sports.

Chaney Gets Assorted
Types of the Gangster

Usually, when a screen director casts for an underworld picture, he assembles all the tough-looking extras he can find for "gangster types" and the present a uniform appearance of "hard-boiledness."

Not such, however, is the "gang" in "While the City Sleeps," Lon Chaney's new starring vehicle, which will be the feature at the Goldfields on Friday and Saturday of this week. Every gangster is individual and not a type, so that many different phases of human nature are seen in the group—just as they are in real life.

Jack Conway, the director of this Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer underworld drama, and Chaney put in several days assembling their "gangsters." There are representatives of every type in it—the hard-faced gangster, the "gentleman" gangster who dresses like a lounge-lizard and carries a gun; the "sneak" type, and the athletic type. No two look alike.

In modern New York gangs such a diversity is to be found, asserts Chaney. For instance, many gangsters are proud of being "nifty dressers with polished manners while others affect the "athletic" type and look like college football heroes. Among the most deadly are the immaculately garbed "gentlemen" gangsters, who usually are gunmen.

Sudbury Star: A man in Atchison, Kansas, can play a ukulele with his toes. This is an advantage, leaving the hands free for self-defence.

Toronto Globe: No false sentimentality should be allowed to interfere with drastic punishment being administered to the man who stowed away on the aeroplane Yellow Bird on its flight to France. According to reports, it was the stowaway's extra weight that forced the plane to land in Spain and frustrated the object of the daring flight. But the folly of this "hobo" might have cost these brave men their lives and sent them unheard of into the depths of the Atlantic. No doubt he thinks he did a spectacular thing, but he should be taught a very much-needed lesson as a warning to others.
