The Judges for the Six Best Baby Pictures were
MR. TOMKINSON of the Royal Studio and
MR. D. OSTROSSER

The judges had great difficulty picking out the Six Best Pictures. After going over the 100 Pictures several times, the six were at last chosen. The store had nothing to do with the judging.

The enlargements and envelopes were numbered and only the photos were given to the judges. So in that way they did not know the names of the Babies.

Every mother who entered the Baby will receive an enlargement of the Baby Free. These are now ready, please call for same. The Six Pictures winning the Prizes can be seen in our window.

Miss Bessie Mansfield gave a party to a number of her young friends on Thursday last.

Mrs. C. Kehoe and two children are spending the summer at Woodstock.

Mrs. M. Hill, of Toronto, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Hanneberry.

Miss Janet MacFarland, of New Liskeard, is the guest of Miss Irene Armstrong at the West Dome Mines.

Miss Anna Sullivan, Mr. Frank Sullivan and Mr. Percy McCann motored to Halleybury recently.

Mr. Constant Minieri, of town, has started a gang of men working on his company's claims in Shaw township this week. They also have a number of men working in the Kamiskotia district.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Deacon and family are on a trip to southern points.

Mrs. F. Hamilton is spending a week at Halleybury and New Liskeard.

The Flinn who were injured in the crash which broke the road roller and resulted in the death of one of their number, are now progressing favourably at the Porcupine hospital but it will be a while yet before they will be able to give evidence at the inquest into the death of Nemilau, the man who lost his life in the accident.

In the football game of the Boxer series at the Dome on Thursday night between the Dome and the Sons of England, the Dome won easily, being on the better side of a 9-0 score. The game was too one-sided to be interesting, the visiting team, not seeming to get into a scoring frame at any time.

Mr. Chenier, of Timmins, has opened a flour and feed store in the corner block on Bruce avenue, lately occupied by the Porcupine Feed and Transfer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. DeBortoli celebrated the christening of their baby girl on Monday.

Mr. Dan Miller is having a new home with a cement basement erected on his lot on Golden avenue.

Messrs Ed and Annabale Gallai, who were home from the Abana Mine for the holiday, returned this week.

In the police court on Thursday there were several who paid fines for allowing their dogs at large contrary to the by-law. These fines cost $12 each. There were about the usual number of drunks. A case of reckless driving was dealt with severely. These cases will not be handled with any kid-gloved hands in future. The sentence for the offender tried on Thursday was a fine of $100 and costs as well as a sentence of fifteen days in jail.

Mrs. Joe. Campagnola, with her three children, has returned to the Dome from Arcade, near Venice, Italy.

Messrs E. and Louis Fenato visited their sister at the Dome Mines over July 1st.
