Born—In South Porcupine to Mr. and Mrs. John Manley, of Cochrane, (nee Beryl Childs), on Monday, July 29th, a son.

In the police court last Thursday there were four drunks who paid the usual ten and costs. For having liquor in other than his private dwelling house another man paid $100.00 and costs. For operating a motor car without the proper license a driver paid $5.00 and costs. A speeder paid $10.00 and costs. George Numelaa, driver of the car that broke the road-roller in the accident which caused the death of John Fantorimaki was sent on for trial on a charge of manslaughter. The evidence was practically the same as that given at the inquest a short time ago.

Mr. W. Fairhurst is home again after his trip to England. Wonderful weather was the feature of his whole six weeks visit there.

Bad luck seemed to attend the trip to Kirkland with the Dome Football club last Saturday, two of the cars conveying some of the players and their officials meeting with accidents. W. Kellow, of the Dome, took a number of men down in his car and on the way down a wheel was broken giving a nasty jolt to the occupants. One man had the ligaments of his hand rather badly torn. Luckily the car was not travelling fast at the time or the results would have been more serious. When a short distance this side of Swastika Frank Rich, who had some of the officials of the club in his Studebaker, met with an accident from which the occupants miraculously escaped serious injury. The road is very narrow at this point and getting too close to one edge, the heavy car toppled down over a twenty-foot embankment, turning over twice in its descent and hitting numerous rocks and boulders en route. There were four in the car at the time and other than two broken fingers for one, a gash over the eye for another and some scratches on a third no injury was suffered, the driver coming through it absolutely unharmed. But the car looks like a veteran of many wars. There is not a square foot of it that is not dented and scarred. Every bit of glass is broken, the leather is torn off the top, and the whole top badly twisted; one wheel is stove in; running board, fenders, etc., are dented unmercifully. One new tire was ripped right into two pieces. Luckily the engine and working parts of the car are unharmed. The car was travelling at a very slow rate of speed at the time, which accounts for the lack of serious injury to the occupants. Then when they all did get to Kirkland the game could not be played, Saturday's storm tating on the nature of a cyclone in and around Kirkland Lake. The game was postponed until August, seventeenth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wirta and family are leaving for Sudbury this week.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Bergman took place on Wednesday last, Marti Pohjansalo officiating. The services took place at the Finn hall and burial was made in the South Porcupine cemetery. There was over thirty wreaths and floral tokens showing the sympathy of friends with the young husband and her bereaved family. A large number followed the remains to their last resting place. Besides the young husband, her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Luhta, one brother, Kost, and a sister, Marian, mourn her loss.

Mrs. Gooding, of 17 Crawford street, had a visit of a few days from her brother, Mr. W. J. Cattermole, of England, who has been to Montreal on a business trip.

Mr. M. G. Martin, of Parry Sound, is relieving as teller in the Bank of Toronto, during the absence of Mr. Robinson.

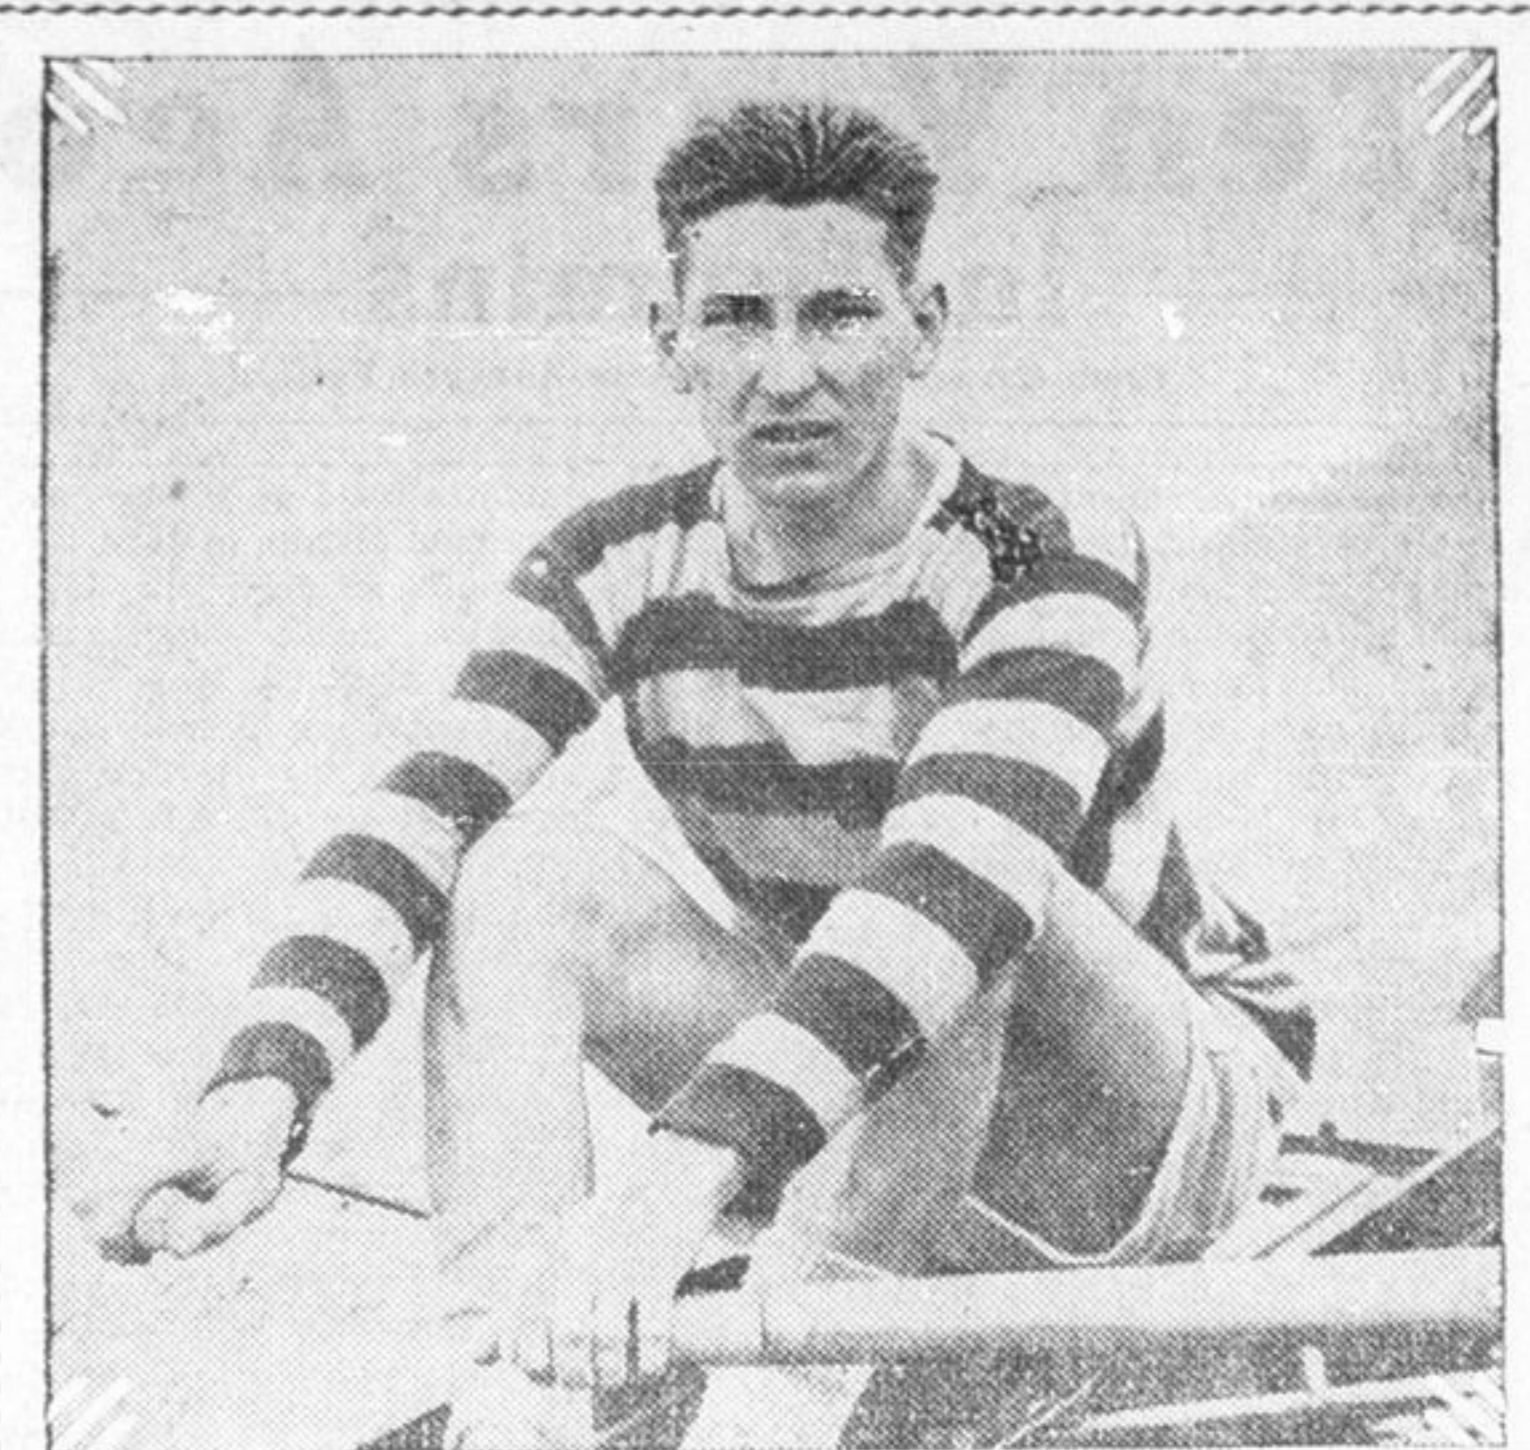

On this (Tuesday) evening Mr. J. Parsons, of the Dome, was driving in to town with two children on the seat beside him. Just as they crossed the bridge on the Dome road one of the children gave his arm a pull taking it right off the wheel. The result was that before he got it returned in the ditch. One little girl got a gash over the eye that required hospital treatment, but the others were unharmed.

There was another collision out on the South Porcupine-Timmings road near the cemetery on Thursday evening last about ten o'clock when a truck and another motor car were both badly damaged but no one was hurt. The aftermath will be heard in the next police court.

Mr. David Scott, who formerly had a sculptor's studio here, but has been in Toronto for sometime, is visiting friends here with his bride while on his honeymoon. Mrs. Scott was formerly Rebecca Margaret Ferguson, of Toronto. They were married there on April 29th, and have been on an extended motoring honeymoon since, visiting Winnipeg and several western points before coming north to Halleybury and Porcupine. They are leaving this week for their home in Toronto where the good wishes of a host of friends follow them.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Thomas, of Connaught Hill, returned Friday last from a motor trip to Toronto and other points South. They were accompanied by Mr. Gordon J. Crookston, of Toronto, Varsity student, who will spend his vacation as their guest. On Sunday evening about twenty of the young people of the town gathered at the home as a welcome to their guest. The happy evening was spent in music and various entertainment. Mr. Robert Miner gave a violin solo accompanied by Miss K. Reynolds on the piano, effectively playing "Poet and Peasant." The overture, "Duscher and Bauer," by Miss K. Reynolds was a treat to the music lovers present. The graceful dancing of little Miss Caroline Sutherland charmed, as it always does. Mrs. Thomas, the hostess, sang an effective solo in her splendid soprano voice. This young woman's songs at such social gatherings are usually of her own composition and are looked forward to eagerly by her friends. Mr. Crookston assisted the musicians with his ukulele and was a general favorite. Miss K. Reynolds and Mr. Crookston gave a pleasing piano duet. Mrs. Boyle and daughter, Lily, had returned from a motor trip the previous night and were among the guests. Mrs. Thomas assisted by Mesdames Boyko and Sutherland, served a very dainty lunch. After twelve o'clock dancing was enjoyed and the guests left in the "wee sma' hours" delighted with the hospitality shown them.

Mr. Joe Thomas is on a motor trip to Toronto.

CANADA'S NEW SENIOR SCULLING CHAMPION
Jack Guest, famous Canadian sculler, who represented Canada at the Olympic Games with Joe Wright, Jr., last year, and who was narrowly beaten by his clubmate at the Royal Henley Regatta in England, early this month, turned the tables on Joe Wright, Jr., at the Canadian Henley to win the Dominion Senior Sculling title by three clear lengths. A sad accident occurred at the McIntyre Mines on Friday night in which Nick Cicci, a shift boss, lost his life. It appears that he was in the act of crossing the ore chute on a plank when the muck suddenly gave away taking him down in the chute in which he was buried for about 3 hours and 30 minutes. Life was extinct when he was recovered. Nick having been in the camp, had become very popular and was respected by all. He will be greatly missed by all the boys. TORONTO PLOICE SEEKING WHEREABOUTS OF G. ALLARD

Toronto newspapers this week contained a picture of Gerald Allard with the information that the police were endeavouring to locate the young man at the request of his wife who resides at Ospringe Place, Faversham, Kent, England. His wife has not heard from him for some time and is naturally desirous of learning where he may be. A young man giving this name was in Timmins until a few days ago, and attracted attention by what some Canadians would term his Old Country ways and mannerisms. Several of the storekeepers here would also be pleased to locate him so as to present some small accounts which he has apparently overlooked before leaving town.
