IMPRESSIONS FROM SOME OF THE NORTHERN TOWNS

Iroquois Falls a Model Town. Fine Farming Section Around Cochrane. Hearst Visited.

Last week The Advance gave the interesting report published in The Lindsay Post in regard to the visit of the daily newspaper editors to this part of the North Land.

Iroquois Falls is a model town. The streets were well planned with lovely little parks and squares, which are beautifully kept under the supervision of a park superintendent.

"All through this district we saw evidences of the great fires which have laid bare thousands of acres, at Iroquois Falls—a stone's throw from the paper mill—was pointed out to us, the spot where a family of eight perished in the fire of 1916, while trying to reach the mill.

"Arriving at Cochrane the junction of the Canadian National Railways, extending from Halifax to Vancouver, we were met at the depot by several of the most prominent citizens including the Mayor and Mr. Otto Thorning, editor of the Northland Post, who gave us the glad hand, showering upon us as many compliments as they possibly could, in the few minutes we tarried there.

"Around Cochrane there is a fine section of farm land, and young home seekers—who do not object to a pretty cold winter climate—could easily build up prosperous and happy homes, in this part of the great northland.

"We here turned west towards Hearst, in Algoma, the sportsman's paradise—passing through Kapuskasing arriving at Hearst about 7 p.m. One of the party had wired ahead and arranged for a dance in the movie theatre after the show. So we walked over from the station, to the main street of the very small town, and invaded the theatre. After seeing "Tommy Meighan" in "The Big Noise," five movable seats were put on one side and the giddy ones in our party, supplemented by some local youths and maidens, tripped the light fantastic until early morning when our train pulled out for Franz, via the Algoma Central."

ARRESTED FOR THEFT FROM BANK AT KIRKLAND LAKE

The arrest of a young man formerly at Kirkland Lake is told in The Mail and Empire last week as follows:—

"Wanted for the theft of $1,200 from the Bank of Commerce at Kirkland Lake, where he had been employed as an accountant, Thomas Cunningham, aged 24, was arrested yesterday afternoon by P.S. Savage and P.C. Gilpin (227), in a barber shop on Ossington avenue. For several weeks the police throughout the province have been on the lookout for Cunningham and a few days ago word was received by the Toronto authorities that the man wanted was probably in the city. Cunningham made no attempt to resist arrest. According to P.S. Savage, the accused man admitted the theft of the money. He was penniless when taken into custody. "He told me that he spent all the money gambling on the mining market," said P.S. Savage. The accused came to Canada from Scotland, 16 months ago, and obtained employment at Kirkland Lake with the Bank of Commerce. He is a single man. Cunningham told the police that for some time past he had been camping out on the highway with a friend. He was taken to Dundas east police station and lodged in the cells. A police officer from Kirkland Lake will come to take him back to stand trial."

"But You Have to Admit The English are Slow"

How often is the expression heard in some quarters: "You have to admit the English are slow!" Some people have repeated the words so often that they have come to believe them. Others believe them because they wish to do so. To accept beliefs of this kind is quicker and easier than earning records of your own. But read this editorial from The Ottawa Journal of Monday of this week:—

"Those slow Englishmen who plod along with the world speed records for racing automobiles, motor boats, steamships and passenger trains have now capped their reputation for being snails by travelling faster than any human being has ever travelled in the world's history to win the Schneider Cup. All that one of them did was to speed at a rate of 332 miles an hour for a time, while another averaged 328 miles for the entire course.

Corn Cob Supper Friday Evening of This Week

A novel feature is announced this week by Gold Star L.O.B.A. It is a corn cob supper to be held in the Union hall, Second avenue, opposite the Marshall-Ecclestone warehouse, on Friday evening of this week, Sept. 13th. The supper will be served from 5 to 8. At nine o'clock there will be dancing, both round and square dances to be featured to carry along the old-time style of enjoyment. The L. O. B. A. social events are always well-arranged and pleasing, and the reputation of the ladies as cooks is assurance that the corn cob supper will not only be a novelty in these days, but it will be one enjoyed by all who like corn on the cob and a general good time.

Dominion Stores Observe Their Tenth Birthday

The Timmins branch of the Dominion Stores, in company with all the other branches throughout Canada, is observing the tenth birthday anniversary of the Dominion Stores organization. Opening in 1919 with ten stores, the Dominion Stores to-day has no less than five hundred and fifty branches. This remarkable expansion is proof that the Dominion Stores must have given quality and service and earned popular favour on merit with the public.

In observing the anniversary event, the Dominion Stores has not forgotten the public. Indeed, the chief observance is in the offering of extra special opportunities for good buying to the patrons of the stores and to new customers. In addition to a list of special bargains, the Dominion Stores this week is noting the anniversary event by giving away as a special birthday offer 50 cents worth of groceries with every $10.00 accumulated purchase of groceries (except sugar) during the two weeks set aside for the birthday observance. The two weeks started on Monday and will continue this week and next.

COSMOPOLITAN HONOURS GO TO THIS FILM, "THE RESCUE"

Written by a Pole (Joseph Conrad), directed by an Irishman (Herbert Brenon), starred in by an Englishman (Ronald Colman); with the feminine lead taken by Lily Damita, French; and with supporting parts filled by Bernard Siegel, German; Duke Kahanamoku, Hawaiian; Sojin, Japanese; Laska Winters, Spanish; and Harry Harding, Australian, Samuel Goldwyn's "The Rescue" seems to be an adequate candidate for the role of screen history's most cosmopolitan picture. This truly cosmopolitan picture will be at the Goldfields theatre on Friday and Saturday of this week, Sept. 13th and 14th.

BANQUET TO THE PREMIER AT ROYAL YORK NEXT WEEK

More Than 2000 Representatives Men and Women to Do Honour to Hon. G. Howard Ferguson

A banquet is to be tendered to Hon. G. Howard Ferguson at the Royal York hotel, Toronto, on Thursday evening of next week, Sept. 19th, in honour of his notable services to the province and to the Conservative party. Arrangements are now well under way to make the event a notable one. It is expected that over 2000 representative men and women from all over the province will attend this event in Toronto's new and magnificent hotel. A committee of members of the Legislature is working with W. H. Ireland, the whip of the party in the House, to perfect plans and arrangements for the occasion. It is expected that a number from the riding of South Cochrane will be in attendance.

According to announcements made in the matter, the premier will be the only speaker, and it is anticipated that he will give the province something of a definite character regarding the date of the provincial election. If the appeal is to be made this year announcement cannot be much longer delayed.

Blocks of tickets for the dinner are being set aside for Conservatives outside Toronto. Following the enthusiastic support of the plan vouched by all the Conservative members of the house advice has been received that practically every constituency will be represented. From Fort William there has been received a reservation of a large block of tickets for a delegation of Conservatives from that district.

It is also intimated that a valuable gift to the premier will be made during the evening. The nature of the gift has not been definitely decided upon, but it will be worthy of the occasion.

Ontario has had popular premiers before in the history of the province but never one who has gained a more complete grip upon popular favour and approval in a comparatively short time. There is no question that Premier Ferguson's Government has given this province excellent administration, both honest, efficient and progressive. There is still less doubt as to the part taken by Hon. Mr. Ferguson in achieving this very desirable result. Hon. G. Howard Ferguson has proven himself one of the ablest and most courageous of the goodly list of provincial premiers, and on his talent and personality he has won the regard of the people in general who will be delighted to show him honour on Sept. 19th.

BEAR AND CUBS EAT MEALS WITH THE PIGS AT TROUGH

Prospectors and others who know the bear and the bear's ways, manners and habits, are agreed that the bear has many of the characteristics of the pig. A bear will eat nearly anything and seems to have a digestion—like a bear—for there is no other comparison fitting the case. Bears are noted for the way they snoop around and sample anything that looks to a bear—as if it might be eatable. The bear deserves the reputation given the goat for being able to eat anything. The bear has a special fondness for sweets, but apart from that has many of the same tastes as the pig. Accordingly, those who know the bear will not be likely to question the following paragraph from The Barrie Examiner, nor will they even see anything specially odd about it. The Examiner says:—

"Already recently returned from spending the summer in the north end of Agouquin Park reports a most unusual instance of wild and domestic animals feeding together. At a barn near Radiant, a mother bear with three cubs came out of the bush and joined the pigs at their meal in the trough. Strange to say, the pigs were not frightened away by the bears but continued to feed. On more than one occasion, it is said, Mrs. Bear and her little ones helped themselves at the pig's trough. These same bears, attracted by the smell of food, walked into a house. The housewife and her children however, did not wait to interview them but beat a precipitate retreat out of the back door."

Pembroke Newspaper Now Issued as a Semi-Weekly

The Pembroke Standard-Observer has changed from a weekly to a semi-weekly issue. The first issue as a semi-weekly was on Saturday last and the number is a creditable one. The Standard-Observer has been for years a bright, newsy and readable weekly and will be equally attractive as a semi-weekly. Whether the new style of issue will be a success will depend upon the support accorded it by the local business men. The paper itself may be trusted to do its part. Pembroke is a progressive and up-to-date town with a large and prosperous country adjacent to offer a good field.
