

Legion Preparing for Poppy Day and Memorial Service

Poppy Day will be Saturday, Nov. 9th. Memorial Service on Armistice Day, Monday, Nov. 11, Thanksgiving Day. Help the Relief Fund by Purchase of Poppies and Wreaths. Memorial Service This Year to be Notable One.

The Canadian Legion, Timmins Post, hope to make Poppy Day this year, and the Memorial Service on Armistice Day surpass all previous records in every way.

Poppy Day will be Saturday, Nov. 9th. A new and better line of memorial wreaths have been made this year, and once more the ladies of the Canadian Legion will canvass the business men and others to purchase a wreath. The wreaths are made by disabled veterans of the great war, so the money for the wreaths goes to the very worthy cause of giving employment to those returned soldiers who are not able to take up work requiring any particular physical effort. Only the very badly disabled veterans are employed in the wreath department of the Veterans Shop, and the money from the sale of the memorial wreaths not only gives these men employment, but a little extra to their dependents in the way of additional necessities of life. Many are the stories of hardship in some of the families concerned, and it is hoped that this year Timmins will again be one of the towns of Canada to be at the top of the list in the sale of the memorial wreaths.

The A. J. Shragge trophy will again be up for competition for the best memorial window in Timmins and district. It is advisable at this time to state that in the window displays only the present year's wreaths may be used. The 1929 wreaths are all of new design, and so previous year's wreaths will be easily recognized and their removal requested. To prevent this happening orders should be placed now, so that all may have the 1929 memorial wreaths ready for the window displays for the trophy competition.

The Poppy Day, Saturday, November 9th, is the day on which every citizen should wear a poppy. A special effort is to be made this year to reach a set objective. During the past year over $1,000 has been expended to those in need among the returned soldiers and their dependents in this town and immediate district. The money to be taken in on Poppy Day will be placed in the relief fund of the local post of the Canadian Legion. Wear a poppy on Saturday, November 9th, and help this very worthy cause.

On Monday, Nov. 11th, Armistice Day, which is also Thanksgiving Day, the memorial service will be held at the cenotaph at the park on Spruce street, Timmins. People will remember the splendid showing made last year at this service. It is the intention to make this year's memorial service one long to be remembered. All fraternal orders are being asked to march with the veterans on this occasion, as well as the service clubs, Girl Guides, Boy Scouts, Sea Cadets, the members of the various allied legions, and others. The whole parade will be headed by the Timmins Citizens' Band as it was last year. The service will be followed along the usual lines, with the observance of the two minutes of silence, and also a short religious service in which the local clergymen will be invited to take part. Further announcements will be made in these columns as plans are completed.

The following is the committee of the Legion in charge of the Poppy Day and the Memorial Service:—W. A. Devine, chairman; Comrades Forrester, T. Neill, Crewell, McMillan, Timmins; Comrade W. Morgan, Schinacher; Comrade Parsons, Dome Mines.

NO INSURANCE FOR ANY TEETOTALLERS YEARS AGO

Kiwanis Hear Very Interesting and Informative Address on Insurance by Kiwanian Wils. Lang, on Monday.

The luncheon of the Kiwanis Club at the Empire hotel on Monday of this week was one of the most entertaining and informative this year. There were two outstanding addresses, one on the history and law regarding insurance and the other on Sweden and its people and industries.

Kiwanian Wils. Lang spoke on insurance law and the history of insurance and his address was both entertaining and instructive. His talk on early insurance plans was most interesting while his review of the feature of modern insurance policies was equally instructive. During his address he quoted Hon. R. B. Bennett, leader of the Dominion Conservative party, who in an address to a company of insurance men had said that if all Canadian insurance companies closed their books and business to-morrow not a single policy-holder could lose a dollar as the law was such that all insurance was fully guaranteed. The law completely protects the interests of the policy-holders.

One of the specially amusing points made by Kiwanian Lang was that in early days in England, any applicant for insurance who said he was a teetotaler was refused insurance, being considered as so abnormal as to be untrustworthy. This stand of the old-time English insurance companies had induced the temperance people to found an insurance company of their own in which only teetotalers were insured.

In Ontario years ago, said Mr. Lang, "Steppin' Along" and "Good Old Mary Brown." The former is sung and danced to by Tom Patricola, who has originated a new dance of the same name, and Bubbles Crowell. The latter number is presented by an ensemble of college boys.

That makes eight songs in all, and all are destined to be hits, as they have been composed by outstanding men in the creating of popular numbers.

"Steppin' Along" particularly is expected to inspire a dance vogue outrivalling that of "The Brakeaway," "Black Bottom" or "Varsity Drag."

The first performance of "Words and Music" will start at 2:30 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 7th, with evening performances at 7:30 and 9 p.m. An all-talking comedy, a Fox news reel and Hodge-Podge with sound effects will also be on the programme for each of the shows.

it was very difficult to secure life insurance. He recounted the story of two gentlemen, from Hamilton, Ontario who found it necessary to travel all the way to New York to get policies. When they returned to Hamilton the inconvenience and cost of getting insurance was discussed with their friends and as a result came the founding of the Canada Life Insurance Co., the oldest Canadian insurance company.

Mr. Lang referred to the care with which the personnel of insurance companies was watched by the Government. Many applications for charters were turned down as the Government was very particular in regard to the character of the directors and organizers as well as the financial standing of the proposed new firms.

Mr. Lang's bright and informative address was very much appreciated.

The other speaker for the day was a visitor, Mr. Loffberg, a representative of the Swedish Steel Co. The Kiwanians were delighted with the very pleasing and informative address by Mr. Loffberg who gave much interesting and useful information relative to his native country, Sweden. Mr. Loffberg said that the country from Windsor to Timmins seemed to him to be very much like his own Sweden in its appearance and contour, so he felt, at home and among friends. He referred to forestry as Sweden's chief industry and gave many interesting facts and figures in this regard. In Sweden forestry and its allied industries were very carefully organized on scientific basis. Like the North Land Sweden also knew something of mining. Mr. Loffberg referred to the mining activities in Sweden in the 15th and 16th centuries when 75 per cent. of the revenue of the crown of Sweden came from the copper mines which are still working. The company Mr. Loffberg represents works five iron mines which have been working since 1668. Mr. Loffberg also made many interesting references to the Swedish match industry which holds a monopoly of the match industry in many parts of the world. Mr. Loffberg was the guest of Mr. A. T. H. Taylor.

When The Thermometer Hits Zero

Motordom turns to Oak Motor Oil for it puts June in the crankcase. Even at 30° below zero when other oils are stiff as rubber or hard as ice, Oak flows freely, lubricating every part and bearing. No frozen motors or run down batteries with Oak—only June starting and June service.

No Carbon

This marvelous oil whose performance has amazed oil experts everywhere does not form carbon. It burns cleanly, preventing sticky valves and many repair bills. It lubricates thoroughly, for its viscosity (or "body") is greater than that of the heaviest of oils under summer heat. Try a crankcase of it today. Many of your troubles will be over. Find out from your motor what oil experts learned from rigid tests against all other oils.

A peppy, smooth running car awaits when you fill its crankcase with Oak.

First "Talkie" Movie Here To Have Noteworthy Music

Also Special Dancing. "Words and Music" the Offering at the Goldfields Theatre Next Week for the First All-Talking, Singing, Dancing Picture to be Shown in Timmins. Some of the Songs Listed in "Words and Music."

What is described as the fastest-moving, most sparkling musical revue yet produced on the audible screen will be the first "talkie" movie to be presented in Timmins. It will start on Monday next, Oct. 7th, at the Goldfields theatre which is to be given over hereafter to the now famous talkies.

The initial offering is "Words and Music," the Fox movietone, all-talking, singing, dancing picture.

In "Words and Music," the action takes place on and about the campus of Darnell College. David Percy, earning his way through school by working in a music store, is in love with Lois Moran, the campus belle. Miss Moran reveals a hitherto unsuspected talent in this difficult realm. She has a voice of unusual sweetness and dances as if she had been doing nothing else all her life. Percy won much applause for his song numbers. He has a baritone voice which is said to register perfectly. In the show, Tom Patricola is his own inimitable self. There are eight song numbers which are classed as the unforgettable kind. Then there is a beauty chorus of one hundred dancers, all fine singers, and the costuming is on a par with the most lavish Broadway productions.

The Goldfields theatre management believe they have the most perfect talkie movie equipment available and that the public will be delighted with this newer form of entertainment. The tests made this week seem to fully bear out the special good words about the equipment which has been installed regardless of expense, but only with the idea of perfect re-production in mind.

A summary of the songs in "Words and Music" will be of interest, and is given herewith:—

The "Shadows" number in "Words and Music," sung by David Percy with Lois Moran taking part, was written by Con Conrad, Sidney D. Mitchell and Archie Gottler, who provided the songs for the "Fox Movietone Follies of 1929." Thirteen persons besides the principals appear in the number.

Harlan Thompson wrote the words and Dave Stamper wrote the music for these songs, listed with those who render them:

"The Hunting Song," sung by Percy to Miss Moran, with an ensemble of forty taking part.

"Take a Little Tip," interpreted by twenty boys and as many girls.

"Too Wonderful for Words," sung by Percy to Miss Moran.

"Beauty," sung by Miss Moran.

"Yours Sincerely," sung by Miss Moran and twelve boys.

William Kernell contributes words and music for two songs, "Steppin' Along" and "Good Old Mary Brown."
