NAILS ON POWER POSTS ARE MENACE TO SAFETY

Serious Accident May be Caused by Posting of Bills on Posts. Practice is Contrary to Law, and Why.

This week Chief McLauchlan asks that the public be informed that the practice of posting bills on telephone and power line posts must be discontinued. The practice is against the law and those who engage in it are liable to prosecution, but the police do not wish to use the force of law in the matter at present believing that this practice, which has become very common recently, is done by many good people without realizing the danger they are creating. The chief believes that if the people knew just the risk they were making for others they would themselves avoid the danger by strictly refraining altogether from the practice. The posting of bills on telephone and power line posts is against the law and there is, of course, a special reason for this, even apart from the appearance of the property of the companies concerned. The reason is the danger created for the linemen who have to climb the pole. The posters are usually put up with tacks and these tacks form a decided danger for the men who have to climb the poles. The linemen using the spurs to go up or down the poles are in constant danger of a serious or perhaps fatal fall through tacks on the poles. The spurs striking these tacks are turned and may slip down the pole with the ever-constant possibility of an accident that all would deeply regret. The linemen who strikes his spurs very energetically is also in danger of the spur being deflected by the tack and hitting the other leg with undesirable results. The power and phone companies have been good-tempered about the use of their poles, but every once in a while they have made energetic protest. This has been wholly on behalf of the safety of their linemen. The fact is, as any lineman knows, that tacks and nails on the poles, add so materially to the hazard of the work of climbing that no one who stops to consider the question will blame the companies for strictly enforcing their rights to prosecute those illegally using the poles. It should be remembered also that the companies have no time or opportunity to examine bills posted to see whether their posting constitutes a danger or not. It seems to be a case where the only practical way is to enforce the regulation altogether forbidding the use of the poles for bill posting. This makes for the safety and convenience of the linemen. The fact that some bills are properly put up and the work done in such a way that there is no risk created has no bearing on the case. The truth is that the greater part of this thoughtless use of the poles constitutes a menace to the safety of linemen and so should be forbidden as required by law.

Thirteenth Anniversary of South Porcupine Rebekahs

Delightful Social Evening Spent After Work of the Order. First Hockey Match of the Season at South Porcupine This (Thursday) Evening. Funeral of the Late Thomas Laffin Largely Attended. Other News from South Porcupine Correspondent.

South Porcupine, December 10, 1929.
Mrs. T. Gibbons is in Toronto, where she is receiving special medical treatment.
The first hockey match of the season is to be held at the arena on Thursday night, December 12th. It will give us a real chance to see the new material in the camp in action against a picked team and be a splendid opportunity to size up the various players. Come and see the Rookies vs. Lookies.
Mr. Norman Cross has returned from the parental home at Port Arthur.
The thirteenth anniversary of the Rebekah Lodge of South Porcupine was held in their hall last Friday evening. After the business of the evening was over a large number of friends came in and euchre, bridge and cribbage were enjoyed for which good prizes were given. A three-tier birthday cake, beautifully iced and adorned with thirteen candles, occupied the place of prominence and every guest was treated to a share of it. This cake was made and donated by Mrs. A. Ewing. Mr. S. Sherrin, representative of the Heinz Company, very kindly donated a large quantity of relishes, sandwich fillings, etc., for the birthday luncheon. The prize-winners of the evening were:—bridge, ladies, first, Mrs. Laforest; second, Mrs. E. J. Rapsey; consolation, Mrs. Brinton; gentlemen, first, Mr. Larkin; second, R. Verne; consolation, Maurel Rosenbloom. Euchre, ladies, first, Mrs. Farrell; second, Mrs. Stringer; consolation, Miss Burgess; gentlemen, first, Roy Gemmill; second, Mr. Lacroix; consolation, B. Brinton. Cribbage, first, Mrs. Spiers; second, Mrs. Stone. There was a good attendance and all enjoyed themselves.
Mr. J. Shaw, of Edmonton, visited his sister, Miss B. M. C. Shaw, last week while en route to the South.
The United Church Sunday School are planning a Christmas tree for Thursday, December 19th.
His many friends regret the illness of Mr. Ralph Moore. He is leaving Wednesday for a hospital in the South, accompanied by Nurse Rice.
Mrs. C. McInnis got a telegram on Saturday night, telling of the serious illness of her father, Mr. G. L. Pearce, of Toronto, and she left on Sunday morning's train to be with him.
Mrs. J. Ostrom and Mrs. R. Cameron entertained the two bridge clubs at the Blue Bird Tea Room on Thursday evening last. A very happy time was spent together; the lucky ones being Mrs. H. M. Martin and Mrs. M. Besette, while Mrs. J. Barry and Mrs. Besette shared the consolation honours. Mrs. F. Clark and Mrs. Laforest are each entertaining at their own home on Thursday of this week.
The pupils of the Continuation school are busy preparing the programme for their commencement exercises to be held in the high school hall on Wednesday evening, December 18th.
The ladies of the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church are busy making pretty things for their bazaar on the 14th of December. Nothing is to be of more than two dollars in value.
In the police court on Thursday last there were a few drunks who paid fines and one drunk, Jack Ferguson, who was sentenced to six months for a fourth offence.
Mrs. N. Maki, who went down to Sudbury to be with her sister, Mrs. T. Laffin, returned on Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Laffin and infant son. The funeral of the late Thomas Laffin, who was killed at the Champion Reef Mine on Thursday, November 28th was held at the United Church on Monday afternoon at two o'clock and was one of the largest seen in the camp. Rev. T. Mills preached a sympathetic and helpful sermon. The pall-bearers were: J. Ostrom, Jack Short, Will Gannon, Fred Chenette, Jimmie Burns and Tommy Mahoney. Among the many beautiful floral tokens were: pillow from wife and son, wreath from Champion Reef Mining Company; gates ajar from Mr. and Mrs. Vert Laffin, spray from Bennie and Viola Laffin; wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Melville Laffin, spray from Mr. and Mrs. N. Maki, spray from Mr. and Mrs. N. Ihander, spray from Mr. and Mrs. R. Talentino. Burial took place in the Porcupine cemetery.
