WELSH IMPERIAL SINGERS DELIGHT BIG CROWDS HERE

Fascinating Programmes of Solos, Duets, Glees, Part-Songs Choruses. Welsh Singers May Revisit Timmins This Year.

It would be impossible to exaggerate the delight given to the people in genexal in Timmins, practically all of whom are music-lovers, by the visit here of the Welsh Imperial Singers last week. This famous choir was at the United Church on Friday and Saturday, under the auspices of the Timmins Welsh Choir, and they were greeted by large houses on each occasion. Many who enjoyed the musical feast on Friday evening returned on Saturday evening for more. The audiences were most appreciative. In a word, they were delighted, and they plainly showed the pleasure they felt in the wonderful music provided. The director, R. Festyn Davies, expressed the pleasure felt at the appreciation shown and said that the singers would be willing to call again at Timmins for a night on their return from the West. This was greeted with very hearty applause, and the only difficulty in the matter will be to secure a suitable hall large enough to accommodate the crowd.

Friday evening the accommodation was well filled to greet the Welsh Imperial Singers. The choir were in attractive Welsh costume, the old-time garb of the director, R. Festyn Davies with its lace and ruffles and silk hose being especially pleasing. From the opening number, 'The March of the Men of Harlech." to the last selection, the evening was one of variety, interest and musical delight. The advance notices that every man in the choir was a soloist of high merit was proven beyond question; as a choir the work of the singers was perfect. Not only were the members of the choir remarkable in their talent, but it was easy to see that the director is a genius in his line. The response of the singers one and all to the conductor's slightest sign was one of the outstanding features noted. In solos, duets, glees, part-songs and choruses, the Welsh Imperial Singers showed a perfection that proved their world-wide fame to be well-earned Their repertoire makes particular popular appeal, though there is not a single number that is not good music, nor one that is not presented in most effective way, Among the part-songs and choruses given on the two evenings were:- "A Farewell." "In Absence. "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny," "Boys of the Old Brigade," "The Song of the Jolly Roger," "All Through the Night" (in Welsh), "The Lost Chord," "Sleep, Gentle Lady," "Ye Banks and Braes." By Babylon's Wave," "Little Tommy,' "I'm a-Longing for You," "Dafydd y Gareg Wen," "A Song of the Armada," "Killarney," "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," "The Lost Chord," "Sword of Ferrara," "Kentucky Babe," "Pilgrim's Chorus," "Cuckoo" (in Several of these were repeated and all were enjoyed. The fine voices, the musical training, the marvellous skill of the director and the blended beauty and harmony of the chorus made the singing a genuine joy to all. Only a few of the sixteen singers were heard as soloists, but these gave delight as marked as from the choir numbers. Harry Williams, lyric tenor, has a voice of singular sweetness and expressiveness. In numbers such "My Little Welsh Home," and "Soft and Pure," his remarkable voice was heard to advantage. Elwyn Edwards, only seventeen years of age, has a notable tenor voice of range, richness and high promise. He won most enthusiastic encores. His numbers included:-"There's a Land," and "Only a Tiny Garden." The duets by Jabez Trevor, tenor, and Howell Williams, baritone, were most effective both as to the voices and the sympathetic interpretation. The magnificent baritone of Mr Williams was heard with keen appreciation also in solo parts in several of the numbers. The duets included, "Watchman, What of the Night," and "Plant y Cedyrnn." The tenor solo, "Mountain Lovers," by Jebez Trevor was an outstanding number that won special recall. Henryd Jones, baritone, has fine voice of much range, richness and expressiveness. His numbers included, "Credo," and "The Blind Ploughman." Good bass voices are not too common and ones of the richness and power and expression of Jack Newbury are rare indeed. He won unstinted applause with his presentation of "O Isis and Osiris," while his singing of "I Passed by Your Window" was one of the big-standing features of Saturday evening. The gifted young pianist, Norman again delighted by their singing on the gest hits of a great programme. Another fine bass voice was that of Mor-

THE KAMISKOTIA RAILWAY

Report That Government Intended to Commence Extension at Once Not Founded on Fact. Rumour Gained Wide Currency

Rumours around town last week to he effect that the Government ended to start construction work the Kamiskotia railway at once gained wide currency and created much interest and some excitement for a brief time until a message from A. F. Kenning, M. L. A., who is Toronto, gave the information that the report was not founded on fact, as the Government had made no announcement in the matter. It is understood that the report originated through a telegram Morgan, Porcheron, T. Clarke. sent to North Bay and signed "Ferguson," this being the first name of the person alleged to have sent the wire. the wire suggested that it came from the highest authority in the matter, the premier of the province. Later information, however, proved that Hon. Mr. Ferguson had sent no such wire and had made no announcement or suggestion in regard to the building of the extension at this time. In view of the general desire among so many interested for a railway to Kamiskotia, and in view of the recent developments in the Kamiskotia area. there were many very ready to believe the reports regarding the building of the new line. Others, however, were dubious from the start, feeling that before any announcement was made in the matter there would be preliminary ndication of the intention to make an early start on the building of the line. Though last week's rumours were premature there are many who believe that new developments in Kamiskotia make an announcement relative to the railway not improbable for the notdistant future. There was suspicion that the wire to North Bay that resulted in the crop of rumours last week was designed to influence stock market affairs, and this feature is being inves-

the Junior N.O.H.A. to Monteith on Monday night at Iroquois Falls the Timmins Juniors lost all but one slim chance of any opportunity for group honours. That one small chance is that Monteith will defeat Iroquois Falls on Friday evening. This would make a three-cornered tie, and Timmins would have another chance to come out on top. No one is holding out too much hope in this line. If Iroquois Auxiliary served refreshments which Falls wins from Monteith, Timmins is were in keeping with the high standard | definitely out of the running and the honours go to the Falls Juniors. The game at Iroquois Falls on Monday night between the Timmins and Monteith Juniors was a hard-fought battle, but the Timmins lads did not fight hard enough to win. Practically throughout the boys of the Academy had the edge on the play and won on merit, though the Timmins team has generally been ocnsidered as superior to the Monteith one this season. For Monteith on Monday the Clarke lads starred. It was the Clarke brothers who scored three goals between them in the last few minutes of play, with the help of awkward work on the part of some of the Timmins players, to give a win to the Monteith lads after the score had been tied, 2 to 2.
