Olie Maki Remanded on Murder Charge Tuesday

At Englehart on Tuesday Olie Maki was remanded until Monday next by Police Magistrate Atkinson on a charge of murder preferred against him as a result of what appeared to be a row following some drinking at a lumber camp near Krugersdorf last week. A man named Fukki was stabbed in the stomach, later dying at the Englehart hospital. Maki, who was said to be the man who did the stabbing disappeared from the camp immediately after the affray and search was being made for him in the bush in the district. He voluntarily returned to the lumber camp near Krugersdorf and was arrested there by the police on the charge of murder.

Big Crowds Enjoying Harry Lottridge Shows

The noted amusement feature, the Harry Lottridge Shows, opened at the athletic grounds this week, and have been having increased attendance each night. The show is a wholesome one with many unusually pleasing features. The dances by the Hula-Hula girls and other vaudeville and novelty features are attracting great attention. The ferris wheel, dangle, whip, merry-go-round are all being largely patronized. Large crowds are out to each performance and all the employees and staff are well-known for their courtesy and consideration for others. The staff of the Harry Lottridge Shows are reliable people. The general tone of the employees is much superior to that of other similar amusements.

Michigan Students Here on Visit to the Mines

Wednesday evening of this week a party of 27 or 28 students of the Metallurgy class from the Michigan School of Technology came to the camp by motor to visit the mines here as part of their course of study. They motored from Houghton, Michigan, and are to visit the principal mining camps of this North before returning to Michigan. Their itinerary includes visits to Sudbury, Kirkland Lake, Cobalt, Porcupine, and Noranda.

The young men spent to-day in Timmins, and were kindly shown around the mine and mining plants and country here by Mr. J. Knox, assistant manager of the Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines. The visit proved of great interest and value to the young men. From here they leave for Noranda.

Body of V. Urbanavicius Recovered from Water

The body of Vincas Urbanavicius was recovered from the river at Hoyle on Thursday last and the funeral took place on Saturday from the Timmins Funeral Parlours, interment being made at the cemetery here.

The late Vincas Urbanavicius was drowned at Hoyle on May 10th, when he and a friend attempted to cross the river in an old boat which upset and threw them into the water. The body of the drowned man was seen in the river a couple of weeks ago and every effort was made to recover it but this was impossible on account of the logs in the river. Eventually however, after several days' effort the body was secured. It was badly damaged by water and by contact with the logs but identification was made largely through the clothing worn and other circumstances. The unfortunate man had no relatives in this country but leaves a wife and three children in his native land to mourn his loss. He was a Lithuanian and was about 37 years of age at the time of death.

WAITING ON FIXTURES FOR OPENING NEW POST OFFICE

The new post office building here is practically completed, but there are a number of fixtures yet to come for the working part of the post office and until these fixtures arrive and are put in place it will not be possible to transfer the post office business to the new building. It will likely be a week or two more before the new post office building is in actual use for post office business, though everything is ready now for the transfer of the post office work from the old building to the new, awaiting the arrival of the fixtures referred to.

The Advance understands that it is not the intention to have any formal opening ceremonies, but that the transfer will be made in the usual way and business carried on in the new building as soon as the transfer is made.

REV. FR. MARTINDALE GIVEN HIGH HONOURS OVERSEAS

Another Very Interesting Letter From Rev. Fr. O'Gorman, Now in Rome. Description of Roman Universities Given.

The Advance has much pleasure in publishing another of the letters written by Rev. Fr. O'Gorman, of the Church of the Nativity, Timmins, during his visit overseas. Rev. Fr. O'Gorman's present letter is as follows:—

Rome, June 12th, 1930

Dear Advance—A great many of your readers will be interested to learn that to-day the Angelico University conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity upon Rev. Hugh Martindale, P.P., of Cobalt. We must add that previously Father Martindale received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. This double honour is the first instance of such achievements by any Northern Ontario priest. His friends may rightly be proud of his record.

The Rev. Dr. Martindale was born thirty-four years ago near Prescott, Ont., the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Martindale, of Osseo. The family moved to New Liskeard when the children were all attending the primary school. There Dr. Martindale completed his High School course as well. Following this he spent five years in Montreal Seminary, taking the regular courses in Philosophy and Theology, at the end of which he was ordained, in Haileybury in December 1909, by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Latulipe.

Dr. Martindale spent the first eighteen months of his ministry in La Tuque, P.Q. He was then named the first pastor of Kirkland Lake, and here he remained until transferred to St. Patrick's Parish, Cobalt, in 1926. The five years of hard pioneer work in the gold camp and the two succeeding years of labour as intense in Cobalt, did not deflect the young pastor from his love of study. Accordingly, when the opportunity presented itself in 1928, of making a post graduate course in Rome, he gladly resigned the parish of Cobalt, and again took up the congenial tasks of attending lectures. That his energy and ambition have been crowned with the fullest success in receiving his degrees "cum laude," will be a deep source of satisfaction to his many friends. But personally, of course, the student finds his greatest happiness in having had access to those profound reservoirs of knowledge which to-day as ever have been housed in the Eternal City.

The Roman Universities for clerical students are, of course, famous. But what is not so well known, they are attended by thousands of students drawn from practically every part of the world. Only yesterday Pope Pius held a reception in the Vatican of the two thousand students of the Gregorian University, who comprise 48 nationalities. Most of the students are undergraduates, not having yet been ordained. But there are many graduate schools as well. The Canadian residence is, however, the only one which is confined to those doing post-graduate work in one or other universities.

The Canadian students are practically the only body not wearing a distinctive gown. The variety of these gowns is, to the visitor here, one of the striking features of the kaleidoscopic scene presented by the streets of Rome.

My next letter will deal with the beatification and canonizations, which have already commenced, and which will be concluded, June 29. The next day we shall turn homeward.

J. R. O'Gorman

O. yard house no less than three times, tearing streaks in the roof. The fact that the building did not catch fire is attributed to the type of roofing. Hail reputed to be as large as pigeon eggs is also said to have fallen during this same storm at North Bay. At Sault Ste. Marie it would have been the pigeon-egg sized hailstones, not the lightning, that would have been credited with cutting the roof of the yard office.

Port Arthur News Chronicle—He was a strapping fellow and was fairly well dressed in working clothes as in a soft Irish voice he said: "I'm ashamed of myself, but what's a man to do that can't get work and is hungry? I have ten cents and that will buy me a bite, but if I had a few cents more I would get a meal, and the good Lord knows I want it." He got what he wanted and made a bee line for a Chinese restaurant. What is a fellow going to do who is hungry and ashamed of himself for asking help? That is a question that should cause every one to stop and think something about the thousands of men who are seeking work and none is forthcoming.

The report that a Scotchman lost money in Wall Street is true. It rolled down a grating.
