NEVER-WASSERS TIE WITH NEVER-WILL-BEES IN GAME

Roaring World's Championship Match Played at Schumacher Last Week. Children's Aid Society Given the Profits of $17.42 from Game.

The following report of the historic softball game between two suspected softball teams has been kindly furnished The Advance by one of the material witnesses:-

The final resting place of the Butler Cup emblematic of the world's softball championship (and was it soft!) is still in doubt as a result of the hardfought struggle between the Never-Wassers and the Never-Will-Bees, of Schumacher, played on Wednesday,

The game was a roaring successrears from the sidelines during the game and roars from the sore muscles next day. Sensational batting and errorless (?) fielding was exhibited by both outfits. The fans saw many dark horses and the players saw many stars The feature of the day was the fielding of Louie Feldman and the mammoth clout by the Sultan of Swat, Stan O'-Hara, who galloped the circuit with the runner ahead holding second base. Sandy Fulton, our local pillar of the law, started in the box for the Will-Bees, and Chas. Butler, head of the money exchange, for the Wassers, but both were yanked early, owing to their inability to allow hits. They were replaced by Happy Woods and McDowell. respectively, but not respectfully. The improvement was not noticeable. The injuries reported to date are as follows, more or less:-sprained ankle, Larry Wilson; sore leg, Jimmie Woods; busted finger, Happy Woods, the injury being sustained in a fight with the umpirein-chief, J. Shewan.

During the game the hat was passed combat that decided the fate of New among the crowd, and a donation of $17.42 was netted. This amount was turned over to the Children's Aid Society Shelter. local agent of the T. & N. O., J. Hawkins reports the wires have been kept hot with offers from the big leagues to some of the players. Boston Red Sox want Fred Dwyer; Connie Mack is after James Campbell for his outfield; Toronto Maple Leafs need Dr. Byers; Ike Solomon would like Bert Cook; and Gold Centre is chasing C. Abrams with a contract; Les. Hall has apparently turned down an offer from Drinkwater Pit. The line-ups were as follows:-

KILLED ON TRACK BY C.P.R. TRAIN NEAR COPPER CLIFF

John Kuoppamaki, better known as John Maki, a Finlander of about 40 years of age, employed by the Canada Creosote Company near Copper Cliff, was instantly killed last week by a C.P. R. passenger train from the Sault while he was walking on the tracks. Although it was known that Maki was an employee of the Creosote Company it was several hours before he was identified. There was nothing on his person to suggest who he was and all other employees having quit for the night it was impossible to check up on them until the next day. When killed on the tracks Maki had been working at the creosote plant only a couple of days. Despatches from Sudbury las: week says:—"Maki was crossing the C.P.R. tracks from the creosote plant to the Copper Cliff road, evidently to wait for a street car, and apparently did not see the train approaching until it was upon him. He was living at a Finnish boarding house on Elm St. E He was reported to be married but was not living with his wife. An inquest will be held at 2.30 this afternoon, and the funeral tomorrow from Jackson's July 9, July 30. undertaking parlours."
