AMOS DOG ADOPTS HUGH BOYLE FOR ITS NEW MASTER

An interesting story is being told in regard to a dog that has adopted Hugh Boyle, formerly of South Porcupine, but now of Haileybury, and objects to any cancellation of the adoption by those of its former home. The dog formerly had its home at Amos, Quebec, and was lost on a motor trip back from Montreal. Hugh Boyle found the dog by the roadside and learning who owned the animal returned it to the original owner, but the dog very decidedly elected to return to its new home in Haileybury. The animal was returning with an Amos family from Montreal, and on May 31, when car trouble developed on the road 45 miles from Rouyn, the animal disappeared in the bush. Search made for him was without result, and the family continued home without their pet. Some days later, Hugh Boyle, Haileybury resident, passed that way in his car en route to Rouyn, and found the dog by the roadside. Without much coaxing the tired beast got into the machine, was taken to Haileybury, given a name and settled down in new surroundings. A few days ago, Mr. Boyle had business at Amos and brought the dog with him for company. When man and beast went to a hotel, the animal was quite at home, and enquiry showed he had formerly lived there. However, when Mr. Boyle was ready to start back, the dog was equally prepared to depart and went along. The original owners decided that the dog wanted to go with Mr. Boyle and if the dog was so inclined and Mr. Boyle agreed, they also were satisfied. So the dog follows its own wish and stays with Mr. Boyle by mutual consent all round.

Huntingdon Gleaner—The Jugoslav minister of education has forbidden the use of powder and lipstick in all grades of schools. This rule also applies to teachers. Headmasters and school supervisors are ordered to enforce the edict ruthlessly. Girls who are caught with powdered faces will be punished before the class. For the second offence the parents of the culprits may be punished by fines or imprisonment.

Lower School Examinations at the Timmins High School

Certificates Granted to Pupils Writing on Subjects Indicated. Addition of Marks to a Subject Show That Pupil Failed to Secure Standing on That Subject. Requirement to Pass 50 per cent on Each Subject.

The following are the results of the Lower School Examinations at the Timmins High School this year. Fifty percent on each paper required to pass. Where marks are given it indicates the pupil failed to secure standing on that subject. In the case of a failure, if the paper has been re-read, "R" is entered after the marks.
