High-Grade Samples From Week's Run of the Press

Kincardine Review-Reporter—Every courtesy should be extended the tourists that they may enjoy their visit among us. There is one quality in the American people that is quite well known in any district that is accustomed to tourist trade and that is they are friendly. They like to meet people, to talk to them and express their opinions as to their visit to this country. It is often a fact that tourists in this manner give hints that when adopted appeal to other tourists. So one needs have no misgivings about giving any tourist the glad

Noted Comedy-Success to Open Canadian Chautauqua

SCENE FROM "BROKEN DISHES"

"Broken Dishes," the popular Broadway comedy by Martin Flavin, which will be presented at the coming Canadian Chautauqua here, seems to strike a responsive chord in the heart of everyone. Pa Hampstead, the central figure in the play, is one of the most lovable characters to reach the stage in a decade. For twenty years Pa has been as meek as a lamb in his own home, but events transpire which cause him to pluck up his courage and roar like a lion, to the intense surprise of the Hampstead family.

"Broken Dishes" is a very human comedy, filled with laughter, romance and pathos. It will be presented here by the well-known Martin Erwin Players of Canada.

ABOUT HON. MR. BENNETT AND BEING IN POLITICS

(Sault Star)

It is said that Mr. Bennett gave a half million dollars to winning the election. He is a very rich man and won't feel the loss. He will draw down a salary of $15,000 as Premier and $4,000 as sessional indemnity, but will no doubt spend much more than this in carrying out his job.

Which looks as if Mr. Bennett isn't in politics for what he can make out of it. A man can't help being a politician. It's something in his blood which drives him to look after public business, generally at a loss to himself. Politicians who make money in office are rare, and their doings are always quite well known. As a rule they don't last.

Would you like to be in politics? Probably you have envied the fellows in the limelight. But after you have given sincerely the best that is in you, found you had to neglect your own business, listened to mean things about yourself and even when a winner found yourself bothered by supporters who wanted some tangible expression of your regard for their help, you would probably wake up to find out how little comfort there is in being a politician. Of course nobody ever believes the wild yarns circulated about candidates, but the victim can't help being a little sore occasionally. In Mr. Bennett's case, a majority of 29 will help him forget some of the unpleasant incidents.

The marriage is announced of Miss Vera Gertrude Jarrett, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jarrett, of Toronto to Mr. Ernest Winslow Pooley on Monday, August 4th, at Toronto. The bride was on the public school teaching staff here, and the groom is on the electrical staff of the McIntyre Mine. After their return from the wedding tour, the young couple will take up residence at Schumacher. Both bride and groom are very popular in the camp and they will receive the best wishes of all.

"The time will come," shouted the speaker, "when women will get men's wages."

"Yes," said a little man in the corner, "next Friday night."

Here and There

(576) "Bill Haxon of Southmore "big Alsatian police dog" with an aristocratic background, from the Burk Kennels Toronto, is on a 7,900-mile trip from Toronto to Yokohama by Canadian Pacific Express and Empress of Asia to the order of a Japanese merchant of the latter city. During his long journey the dog is in charge of Canadian Pacific officials.

Twenty New Zealand athletes and twenty athletes from Australia have already arrived at Hamilton for the Empire Games under the chairmanship of E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway. There will be representatives from Great Britain, South Africa and nearly every province of Canada at the Games, which are scheduled to be held in the Ontario city next month.

Doubling the population of Cobourg for the day, a force of more than six thousand members of the Canadian Pacific Recreation clubs of Toronto and Trenton set a new record for picnic attendances when the annual function was held there recently. The freedom of the city was conferred on the visitors for the day and the high spot of the sports, the Groulx Cup, trophy of the softball match between the Toronto and Trenton clubs, was won for the fourth year in succession by Trenton.

With an aggregate of 133 years of unbroken service, three Canadian Pacific engineers from the Ontario district retired on pension recently. They are John Douglass, Thomas Bennett and John G. Moore and all have unblemished records. Bennett's service goes back to 1882 while Douglass and Moore go back to 1885 and 1889 respectively.

The Toronto Industrial Commission announces that between January 1 and June 30, 15 new industrial firms have come to Toronto, with which the commission has co-operated. Of these, 11 had their origin in the United States and 4 originated in other parts of Canada. The list of these new industries includes a number of outstanding companies whose entrance into the assembling and manufacturing field in Toronto means an important growth and development in the city's industrial life.

The old belief that the Red River fixes a charm upon those who touch it, was tried out recently as Harry Pearse, undefeated Australian Single Sculls champion and one time world champion, stood on its shore and watched his son, H. R. Pearse, Olympic amateur champion, in a try out as a guest of the Winnipeg Rowing Club. Pearse is a contestant in the Empire Games at Hamilton next month.

For the first time in history, horses were ridden over "Ball Pass" near Banff recently. The riders were Jim Brewster, J. Murray Gibson and Glory Temple, the latter a Lake Louise guide and the purpose of the trip was to locate camps for the trail ride at end of July. Only three hours were required to travel from Banff to the summit of Ball Pass yet this pass has hitherto been considered impassable except for Alpino climbers.

Arriving home from the party, Friend Wife took her hat and slammed it on the floor. "I'll never take you to another party as long as I live," she said. "Why?" asked Hubby, amazedly. "You asked Mrs. Jones how her husband was standing the heat?" "Well, what of that?" "Why her husband has been dead two months." —Exchange

A million dollars can't make an ignorant man rich. Cluck, Cluck!—Once upon a time an enterprising poultryman crossed his hens with parrots, to save time. He used to spend much time hunting the eggs, but now the hens walk up to him and say, "Hank, I just laid an egg. Go get it." —Exchange

"Does your bride know anything about cooking?" asked the old friend, meeting a recent groom.

"Well," he grinned, "I heard her calling up her mother the other day to ask if she had to use soft water for soft-boiled eggs and hard water for the hard-boiled ones." —Exchange
