PUBLIC SCHOOL FIELD DAY AT SCHUMACHER ON FRIDAY

Winners of Prizes at Very Successful Event at Schumacher. Other Interesting News from Advance Correspondent at Schumacher.

Schumacher October 1st, 1930. Specal to The Advance.

The harvest festival services held on Sunday at the United Church were well attended. Rev. Mr. Summerell's text for the morning was, "God the Great Harvester." Mr. Christopher delighted all with his rendering of "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." In the evening the minister spoke on our great need some day of a Heavenly Father. The anthem by the choir, "O Lord How Manifold" was very much appreciated. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion, with gifts of flowers, fruits and vegetables. On Monday evening in the basement of the church, in connection with the harvest festival there was a concert, in charge of Mrs. Calverley. A quartette of male voices, Messrs Jago, Thom, Docking and Bawdon, sang most effectively. A solo by Mr. Roberts, "I Hear a Thrush at Eve;" solo, by Miss Rosina Mair, The Sunshine of Your Smile, and "Lamp-Lit Hour"; and other items all excellent, were great enjoyed. With community singing and a few games the programme was brought to a close and the sale of the flowers, fruit and vegetables took place, bringing a nice sum of money. The accompanists were Mrs. B. James, Mr. Wilson and Mr Kearney.

The friends of Mrs. D. Hannah regret to hear she is confined to bed with rheumatic fever. Mr. and Mrs. Shippam, of Iroquois Falls, motored over Tuesday for the graduation exercises of St. Mary's hospital.

Mr. J. G. Harris left this week for Christie street hospital, for treatment. The Schumacher Male Chorus are putting on one of their selected programmes in South Porcupine United Church on Sunday evening, October the 5th. They also expect in the near future to go to Iroquois Falls, Kirkland Lake and Cochrane. No one should miss these concerts when held in their community. They are noted for the best of music and excellent talent.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hall returned from their wedding trip and were at home to their many friends Wednesday evening, when cards and dancing were enjoyed. The bride received many beautiful and costly gifts.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the United Church are holding their annual bazaar on Tuesday and Wednesday, October the 14th and 15th. There will be a fine display of fancy work, aprons, candy and home baking. Afternoon tea will be served. No one should overlook this event when looking for Christmas gifts.

Schumacher Public School held its first field day on Friday, September 26. The prizes for the events were procured with the assistance of the school board. The members of the board, Mr. W. R. Sullivan, Mr. J. Shewan and Mr. G. Murphy, were present and assisted materially in helping the events pass off smoothly. Mr. Hayward also made himself very useful.

Mrs. R. Dye acted as hostesses and poured tea.

The prizes were presented by W. R. Sullivan, chairman of the board of trustees.

In passing it might not be out of place to give some measure of credit to the teachers on the staff of the school, for without their initiative and co-operation the field day could not have been held.

Mr. Lowery's songs, grave, gay, sentimental, humourous, were all exceedingly well done. He has a fine voice and an inimitable manner of his field own and every selection went over in a big way. His catchy music with two spoons as his only instruments brought uproarious applause. It was a specially pleasing novelty carried through very cleverly. Another big feature was the singing of the Schumacher Male Choir quartette, Messrs Jago, Docking, Bawden and Thoms. With fine voices, well trained and blending perfectly, they gave a number of melodious gems that were a genuine joy to all. Another outstanding musical number was the wellpresented cornet solo by Carl Johns Humorous songs by Mr. McMillan were great favourites. The songs were good themselves and he gave them in irresistable way. He was a very popular artist on the programme. W. H. Wilson gave material assistance to the programme by his work as accompanist at the piano. One of the delights of the very pleasing luncheon served was the serving of hot pasties, this Cornish delicacy being as popular with ordinary folks as it is with the Cornish people themselves. There was a generous supply of cigars and cigarettes. Other special features of the evening included boxing and wrestling bouts. J. A. Faithful was referee for the boxing and Capt. D. TOO SICK FOR SCHOOL, BUT WENT TO ATTEND THE SHOW

One afternoon this week the chief of police found a couple of youngsters ready to enjoy the show at the theatre during school hours. Youngsters are not supposed to miss school for the show and the chief's expression was along the line of "How come?" Then there was produced a letter intended for the box office explaining that the parents were agreeable to the children attending the show, and giving the reason for their being out of school. This note might have been satisfactory to the box office, but the chief didn't like it at all, because the reason given for the children not being at school was that they were too ill to attend the classes. Everyone has seen youngsters that have occasional illnesses when they feel utterly unable to endure classes, but few people have seen a child too ill to go to a show. The chief is not sympathy with this idea of the difference between school and other pleasures, and suggests to the parents concerned and to all others that children are not supposed to go to the show durbalance of the sports were finished ing school hours at all, and also that youngsters too ill for school should be kept at home. The law, he explains, is quite strict in the matter of children attending shows, requiring the attendance also of a parent or guardian to accompany the youngsters. Chief McLauchlan thinks that with the thresher a team driven by a Bluevale opening of school again, it would be district farmer commenced to balk and | well for all youngsters and their par-Intermediate Boys' Running Broad wouldn't move. C. Gwyn Kinsey Honoured Before Leaving Timmins

A very happy evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones, Birch street, north, on Wednesday of last week, when the St. David's Welsh Society met for the purpose of making a presentation to C. Gwyn Kinsey, prior to his departure to attend Toronto University. It was the type of friendly and informal evening dear to the Welsh people, community singing and solos being the order of the evening. Everyone responded to the call of President Jack Thomas. After refreshments had been served the president, in a very happy and well-chosen speech, expressed the appreciation and good wishes of all, and presented Gwyn, who had acted as the society's accompanist, with a handsome fourpiece ebony travelling set. Gwyn, in responding, thanked the society and said he wished he was worthy of all the nice things said about him that evening. A most enjoyable evening was brought to a close with the whole

Mr. Kinsey was also the recipient of numerous beautiful gifts from other friends.

A host of friends gathered at the railway station on Thursday morning and relatives in Eastern Ontario and to bid Gwyn god-speed and all good wishes for his future.
