Eczema Goes In Seven Days

Or Money Back

Thousands of people who suffer from itching skin, eczema and unsightly eruptions will be glad to know that Moore's Emerald Oil, a clean, powerful, penetrating antiseptic oil, will banish their trouble in seven days or less.

For years they have been using ointments and salves, and while they helped to relieve the itching, soreness and pain they often choked the pores and did not allow the poisonous matter to escape.

Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) overcomes this objection, for this oil penetrates down through the pores and leaves them free to discharge all poisonous secretions. It is highly concentrated, and only a few drops are required at an application. You can get it at Moitsley & Ball's or any progressive druggist's and if it doesn't end your trouble in seven days—money gladly returned—directions on each bottle.

Dates for the Deer and Moose Hunting Season

A reader of The Advance asks for the repeating of the dates of the deer and moose hunting season as applicable this year. The following are the details as required:

The open season for moose and deer north of the C.N.R. (Cochrane) is from Sept. 15th to Nov. 25th, both days inclusive.

North of the Mattawa River and the main line of the C.P.R. to Heron Bay on Lake Superior and south of the C. N.E., Oct. 20th to Nov. 25th, both days inclusive.

North of Lake Nipissing and the French River and south of the main line of the C.P.R. to Heron Bay on Lake Superior, Nov. 1st to Nov. 25th, both days inclusive.

South of the French and Mattawa Rivers, Nov. 5th to Nov. 20th, both days inclusive.

There are many here who go up the C.N.R. from Cochrane for the hunting season, the open season being from Sept. 15th to Nov. 25th, inclusive. Others prefer the section covered by the paragraph "North of the Mattawa River, etc." where the season is from Oct. 20th to Nov. 25th, inclusive. One hunter says he prefers both. Anyway, there you are!

To this it may be added that a license fee of $4.00 is charged for deer hunters resident in Ontario and $6.00 for moose licenses.

Anyone desiring any further information in the matter may secure the same from R. Edleston, game warden for this district, who will no doubt be pleased to give any particulars desired by any who contemplate a hunting trip this fall.

RECIPE FOR DELICIOUS CARAMEL PUDDING DESSERT

One of the most delicious desserts one can serve, and it is one especially loved by children, can be said practically to make itself. It is called Caramel Pudding. Here it is:

"Place an unopened can of Borden's Eagle Brand Condensed Milk in a kettle of boiling water and simmer for two and a half hours, being careful not to let the kettle boil dry. Remove can, cool and chill. Remove top of can, cutting along the side of can—not the top—so that the contents may be removed whole; place on a serving dish and garnish with broken nut meats and whipped cream. To serve individually, cut in slices, garnish with nut meats, and whipped cream—or use plain unsweetened cream, with or without garnish."

Strawberries were picked at North Bay on Oct. 4th. In the same garden there were two rose bushes in bud.

Things So Much Out of Joint, Must be Righted

An editorial in The Northern Miner last week says:—

In a world overflowing with wheat, men and women and little children go hungry.

In a world deluged with wool and cotton, half-clad people shiver.

In a world overflowing with oil, there are people who cannot get gas to run their cars.

In a world overloaded with lumber and metals, men cannot build or make things.

In a time of money plenty, men are going broke.

And a world full of men eager to work, with thousands of things needing to be done, sees millions unemployed.

The times are surely out of joint, and the sad thing is that, while the leaders of peace are unable to wallow through the great masses of grain to give food to the hungry, the warlike are sure that only a new war in Europe could correct the world's economic plight and restore prices of labour and goods to their former levels.

We have always held the idea that a shortage of gold would bring about a falling of commodity prices. But we are not convinced that gold production has fallen to keep up with world requirements to the extent that commodities have fallen. There has been no dropping away of gold mining activity, in fact this year will see the two leading gold producers, South Africa and Canada, at new high peaks, and we may expect low operating costs to stimulate production. There has, however, been clumsiness in the handling of gold stocks to the best advantage. And what has been described by many as the crowning ineptitude in the handling of money-metal has been the wiping away of the value of silver to half the world's population, reducing their ability to buy from the rest of the world, helping to bring industrial calamity upon all, throwing an extra burden upon gold as a money-metal.

Fortunately for the world, its human beings love to work. By toil, thought, persistence, they will struggle out of their difficulties and will win the rewards which their natural qualities of hope and optimism deserve. And we can say this for the present: Things seem so much out of joint that they are bound to be righted. We sincerely hope it will be accomplished by a marking up of prices rather than by a marking down of wages.

In its column headed, "Halleybury in 1923," The Halleyburian last week had the following item from its files seven years ago—"The marriage of Miss Margaret Caldwell to Dr. C. E. Taylor of Timmins, was solemnized on Wednesday, Oct. 11th, 1923."

C. R. HARRISON, OF NORTH BAY CANDIDATE IN NIPISSING

Chas. R. Harrison, passenger conductor on the C.P.R., was chosen last week as Liberal-Conservative candidate to contest the riding of Nipissing in the provincial by-election. Mr. Harrison is widely known, having been a resident of North Bay since 1891. Mr. Harrison, was elected Federal representative for Nipissing in the Union Government election in 1917. The Conservatives in Nipissing consider him an unusually able and desirable candidate and feel that he will carry the riding without special difficulty. At the same time they are planning to carry through a campaign that will assure his election.

PRESIDENT OF TECK-HUGHES PASSED AWAY LAST WEEK

Reference was made last week to the death of C. L. Denison, president of the Teck-Hughes. At that time no details of the death were available. Since then, however, Toronto newspapers have given the following particulars as to the late Mr. Denison and his passing:—

Charles L. Denison, president of Teck-Hughes Gold Mines, Ltd., died at his home at Saddle River, N.J., on Wednesday, Oct. 8th. Mr. Denison had been in poor health for the past two years but recently appeared to be showing improvement. His death came suddenly, following an attack of acute indigestion.

Mr. Denison, while an American citizen, had large faith in the mineral possibilities of Canada and spared neither personal endeavour nor expense to prove his convictions. He was a prominent figure in the early development of the Kirkland Lake gold camp, having been a member of the original syndicate which, in 1915, optioned the Teck-Hughes property. Prior to this he was associated with mining enterprises in the Cobalt district.

Much of the credit for bringing Teck-Hughes to its present place among the leaders of gold producing mines of this province, is due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Denison. This pioneer stepped in at a time when the Teck-Hughes property was but little better than in the prospect stage and with years of hard work and good judgment, on the part of himself and associates, succeeded in building up one of the five most valuable gold properties in Ontario. Mr. Denison did not live to see the completion of the plans devised by himself and directors, which will materially increase gold production next year.

Mrs. A. G. Hattie has returned to Timmins from Smithers, B.C., to visit her sister.

RAILWAY GETS VERDICT IN FOURTH ALEXANDER TRIAL

Jury at Cochrane Last Week Finds That S. Alexander, Formerly of Kapuskasing, Did Not Lose Leg By Railway's Negligence.

Despatches from Cochrane last week reported that the action by S. Alexander, Rouyn merchant, formerly of Kapuskasing, against the Canadian National Railway Company for $2,000 damages for the loss of a leg sustained when he alleges he fell from an open vestibule on the Continental Limited at Kapuskasing on May 15, 1925, was dismissed by Mr. Justice Garrow in Supreme Court at Cochrane last Thursday, following the jury's decision that he did not lose his limb through the negligence of the railway company, as he alleged.

After having won his case twice, only to have the decision upset by the appellate court, and secured a disagreement on the jury once, Alexander lost his case on the fourth time it came before the courts, but the first time it was tried before a jury in the district in which he resided and engaged in business for years. The three previous hearings were held in Halleybury. Defendants always objected to the case being tried in Halleybury, but counsel for the plaintiff succeeded three times in convincing the authorities that his client would not be given a fair hearing in Cochrane.

The verdict was returned at 8.15 Thursday evening, after the jury had deliberated less than two hours on the evidence adduced during one of the most lengthy hearings ever tried before a local jury. The case opened at 1.30 Tuesday and though it included a two hour sitting Wednesday night, all evidence was not in until noon Thursday. Counsels' pleading and the judge's instructions to the jury occupied all Thursday afternoon.

Replying to four questions submitted by his lordship the jury found that: First, the plaintiff did not suffer any injury due to negligence on the part of the servants of the railway company; second, and following from the answer to the first question, no servant of the defendant was in any way responsible; third, the plaintiff's own actions were contributory to the accident; and fourth, he sustained his injury in unlawfully alighting from the westbound Continental Limited, of his own free will.

The jury consisted of Jos. W. Fenn, Timmins, foreman, Michael Butler, Smooth Rock Falls; Frank Reid, Hearst; Herbert Sullivan, Township of Tisdale; Godfrey Waldron, Cochrane; Sydney Smith, Cochrane; Joe Easterbrook, Timmins; John Williams, Cochrane; J. H. Seguin, Cochrane; Frank Reynolds, Township of Tisdale; Herbert Dyer, Matheson, and William McKendry, Iroquois Falls.

Plaintiff was represented by James Cowan, of Slight and Cowan, Toronto, and A. V. Waters, defendant by R. E. Laidlaw and C. W. Bell, K.C.

Bowlers interested would do well to clip out and preserve the above schedule for reference.

BUS SERVICE INAUGURATED AT NORTH BAY ON MONDAY

A city bus service was inaugurated at North Bay on Monday of this week when the North Bay Transit Company commenced the operation of a motor bus of the street car type to tap the various sections of the city. As soon as the traffic appears to warrant it a second bus will be added. This service will be extended to leading streets in all parts of the city and particular attention will be given to the transportation of workmen to and from their employment at convenient hours. Giving advance details of the service last week The North Bay Nugget on Saturday last said:—"The fare will be 10 cents from point to point with four tickets for 30 cents. School children will be carried for a 5 cent fare. A special bus will tour Klock avenue and Cassells street at 7.30 a.m. for the T. N.O. railway shops and return from the same point to the same streets at 5 p.m. During the day the post office will be made the central place of stop and the bus will travel from the post office, up Cassells street and return up Klock avenue and return, and then make a circuit of Fisher street, Laurier avenue, Brook, Hardy and John streets to return to the post office. A route will also be established on Main street east to the gates on Memorial Drive and return to the post office. A thirty minute service, so that the bus will make two calls at each point every hour, is the aim of the schedule."

It used to be considered the sign of real cityhood when a town secured a street car service. Those days are gone. Now the street car is being superseded by the motor bus, and so North Bay with its motor bus service no doubt feels itself a real city.

Halleybury public library, though only organized recently, has a membership of 200 and is proving very popular.

Simcoe Reformer:—In a recent sermon, a New Jersey pastor made a statement that sounds quite familiar, as follows:—"There is lawlessness everywhere. Children no longer obey their parents. It is evident that the end of the age is at hand." Then the pastor told his congregation that the words were not original with him, not even an utterance of the present day. They were translated from an inscription on a brick found in the ruins of ancient Assyria, dating centuries before the time of the patriarch Abraham.
