SOUTH PORCUPINE FIREMEN STAGE GREAT MASQUERADE

Event One of the Most Successful Ever Held in the Camp. Meeting of Township Council. Other Items of News from South Porcupine.

South Porcupine, Nov. 5th, 1930. Special to The Advance.

The council of Tisdale township met on Wednesday evening of last week with the reeve and all the councillors present. The meeting had been postponed from Monday owing to the illness of the reeve. Quite a delegation were present from the Moneta Extension reeve's office in the road out there where the water stands in spring and is a menace. The reeve and engineer visited there some time ago but not thinking a certain place looked deep enough, like Old Bill they went seeking "The Better Ole" and found that it was not on the public highway. However, this proved to be the wrong hole and Moneta came in about a dozen strong to explain to them where the "worse ole" really was. It is probably graded and filled in by now as the engineer had located it just the week before. There was also a petition for water for residents at the lower end of Pine street, south, at Timmins, in Moneta. As this is all sand the work can be expedited more than if there were rock. But sewers cannot be put in, in this locality without their being extra septic tanks in Timmins. A man from Gillies wanted to know where to make application for their water but was told that in that locality the engineer would take forms to each resident to fill out. Again the attention of the council was called to the fact that some people gave charity to indigents without having the authority of the council and then expected the council to repay them. In future any such case will receive but scant consideration as anyone expecting to be re-imbursed for charity given, must first have the authority of the council to give it. Several charity cases were considered. The Hollinger wanted to change the location of a pipe line in Schumacher. This was granted but a plan was asked to be furnished Tisdale for future reference. A letter re the founding of an Old Man's Home at New Liskeard was considered but the council thought they were not quite ready yet to decide what they could do towards it. The reeve and councillors themselves still feel quite youthful. The routine wages and accounts were passed for payment.

The Hallowe'en masquerade ball given in the Continuation School here on Friday last under the auspices of the South Porcupine Fire Department was an outstanding success. Many quote it as the best dance ever given in this part of the camp. The night was ideal, the music of Tommy Stephens' orchestra was as good or better than ever, and all entered into the spirit of fun that prevailed during the evening. Fully ninety per cent. on the crowded dance floor were in "make up" of some kind. Many of the costumes were wonderfully rich and colourful, which others were the limit for being ludicrous. The spirit of rowdism sometimes found in a public affair on Hallowe'en was practically lacking. Every one was there to enjoy the fun and help the other fellow enjoy it, too. The hall was colourful with evergreens, shaded lights, and Hallowe'en effects in decoration. It was a serious problem to pick out five prize winners from those in costume. There were so many others just as good in their line as those chosen, that the five judges had a difficult time agreeing among themselves. One outstanding

Dominion Dollar Stores To Open Here Saturday

An unusual type of store but one that promises to be popular with the public will open in Timmins on Saturday when the Dominion Dollar Stores will commence business here. The store here is to be one of a chain of similar stores to retail merchandise at $1.00. The full page advertisement elsewhere in this issue shows the wide range of good carried and the remarkable values obtainable at this store at $1.00. The limited number of specialists listed gives some slight idea of the wonderful array of useful and desirable articles that may be bought for a dollar. A visit to the store itself will still further impress this point. A hearty invitation is extended to all to visit the Dominion Dollar Stores on the day of the formal opening, Saturday of this week.

The Dominion Dollar Stores are operated by Sky Bros. Their slogan is: "Nothing over a dollar," and their practice, to judge from their advertisement in this issue, is to give a great deal for a dollar. The new Timmins store is at 15½ Pine street, south, the premises having been handsomely appointed, with attractive modern front, and the stores are stocked to the limit with literally hundreds of articles that are big value at one dollar.

Urges Square Deal for Aurelio Lago, Timmins

In an editorial in its issue of Tuesday, Nov. 4th, The Toronto Star says:—"Mr. Aurelio Lago, of Timmins, Ont., has a grievance and he sets it forth in a lengthy letter in The Porcupine Advance. It sometimes happens that a man meets with an injustice from which he suffers much, but he can find no remedy for it. Mr. Lago of Timmins appears to be in that position.

"Mr. Lago was employed in the Hollinger mine. He was one of the first group of men who went there and for ten years, until last February, was employed in the refinery. On the 19th of that month he was handed his "time slip"—he was discharged. He wanted to know the reason, but nobody could tell him. He asked for and secured an appointment with the general manager of the mine. Two strangers were present at the interview, who, Mr. Lago learned next day, were provincial policemen. "Imagine the shock I received," writes Mr. Lago in his letter, "when he (the general manager) accused me of selling gold four times last year, $1,600 worth in all." Mr. Lago demanded to be faced by his accusers, to be arrested and prosecuted. Nothing was done about it. He has been unable to secure particulars of the alleged accusations against him or the source whence they came. He has written to the attorney-general, but received no reply. He has written to Inspector Moore at Cobalt and the commissioner of provincial police. Sergeant Gardiner on March 6th told Lago that he was not the man he was looking for and that he had so informed the general manager, and this the general manager next day confirmed, saying he would again give him a job, but not the same one as before. He was put to work on the scrap heap. The manager declares to Lago that he accuses him of nothing; the provincial police declare they do not accuse him. Mr. Lago asks, "Who does accuse me?" and can get no answer. His reputation has been taken away, his ten-year responsible job is gone—and there is nothing he can do about it but write a letter to the press.

"It does seem that Mr. Aurelio Lago of Timmins has had a rather raw deal. He appears to have been the innocent victim of circumstances and of suspicions which somebody else had probably made to point in his direction rather than in his own. This is a tough world sometimes and a just man may get far less than a square deal."

THIRD ANNIVERSARY SALE AT THE ELLIES BROS. STORE

The third anniversary sale of Ellies Bros. Men's Furnishing Store, is being observed this week. Notice of the advertisement elsewhere in this issue will serve to convince Timmins buyers that this firm is endeavouring to make their third anniversary sale an outstanding one, with a list of worth while bargains, and a few suggestions for early Christmas shoppers who are here offered an opportunity to save money, this list being particularly opportune in view of the fact that the Yuletide season is but forty shopping days away.

toes, etc., composed by the Firemen for the occasion. Owing to the throng many did not get reading them and by request we are reproducing some of the best:—"Special winter rates on bush fires. Hot stuff." "Oh! where is my wondering boy to-night? Echo from any Schumacher Fireman's home." "Ain't he light on her feet?" "Park all crocks with the chief." "Hold Every-thing," says the Captain. "This is our nite off, says who?" "Our ladders are tested by the Chief. Get the hook?" "Don't clean your pipes or chimneys! We need the money. Fires, wholesale and retail. Our hose is treated. Watch our smoke!" "Last year without the chief we won the prize for the best looking brigade. This year he paraded. Nuff sed." "Where there's a will, there's a way. But who can say Will's away when he's away, anyway!" "Household tips:—Don't cache your liquor in the fire distinguisher." "Theme song—'What's yours?' Fireman, Fireman save my child." "Vocal selection, the Midnight Alarm, by George Starling." "Water, water everywhere, but not a drop to drink! Oh, yeah!"

The Firemen have been especially requested to put on another masquerade carnival in the near future. They particularly appreciate the number who attended from neighbouring towns in spite of many counter attractions.

HEAVY FINE FOR GASHING FRIEND'S HEAD WITH BONE

Big Fight and Odd Weapon Used at Moneta Sunday Night. Jos. Las Pays $50.00 Fine, $50.00 Damages and Costs for Use of Sharp Bone as Weapon.

Sunday evening about nine o'clock Stanislaw Myrda went into the police station with blood coming from several bad cuts in his head. He said that the injuries had been inflicted by Jos. Las, at 211 Pine street, south, rear where Myrda, Las and two others were living in a shack. The police sent Myrda at once to a doctor who found it necessary to use several stitches to close the wounds in the head and face. The police at the same time went out to the Moneta shack where they found Las lying on the bed. He had evidently been in a fight, having a number of scratches on his face. It was thought at first that the injured man had been stabbed with a knife, but the police discovered that instead of a knife a sharp bone evidently from a pig's foot had been used as the weapon. It had certainly proved an effective implement of torture to judge from the severe injuries inflicted. Las was locked up and a charge of assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm was laid against him. He came before Magistrate Atkinson in police court yesterday on this charge and after the hearing of the evidence he was fined $50 and costs and also ordered to pay $50.00 damages to the complainant. A. C. Brown defended the accused, while the Crown Attorney, S. A. Caldwell, conducted the prosecution. The evidence showed that the trouble arose over the price of some furniture bought for the shack and for which each of the four men using the place were to pay equal shares. Jos. Las was the purchaser of the furniture and he said the price was $25.00, while Myrda said it was only $16.00. The two men quarrelled over this dispute, but were separated, the one being kept in one room and the other in another part of the house. Eventually, however, they both got together in the bedroom and resumed the quarrel. Las got Myrda down on the bed and using the bone as a weapon wielded it with such effect that it looked for a little while like as if it might be close to a case of Myrda. Both the men concerned in the case are Russian Poles. On account of the nature of the dispute Myrda may say that he was boned for money, while viewing the total cost for him, some hundred and thirty dollars, Las may feel that he certainly pulled a bone play.

W. H. Tonkin was charged with illegal possession of liquor, having no permit. As it was his second conviction against him under the Liquor Control Act, he was given a term of three months at Haileybury. A charge against a woman living on Wilson avenue of illegally having liquor was dismissed, as it was shown that the woman's husband was at home and he was the head of the house under the law.

FUNERAL ON FRIDAY LAST OF THE LATE ALBERT SIMPSON

The funeral of the late Albert Simpson, who was fatally injured on the Dome Road last week, was held on Friday last at his home at Shillington, Ont.

The funeral was conducted by the Timmins Funeral Service, leaving the parlours here by motor for Shillington, where the Rev. John McCartney, United Church minister, conducted the service in the Protestant Church at that place.

The large number of floral tokens and the large attendance at the funeral testified to the esteem in which the late Mr. Simpson was held by large numbers of friends.

Her many friends in town and district will regret to learn that it was necessary to operate on Mrs. Geo. S. Drew at the hospital here this week for an attack of appendicitis. All will be pleased to know that she is making satisfactory progress to recovery.
