DEATH AND FUNERAL OF JOSEPH DENIS TIERNEY

Popular Resident of Timmins for Several Years Passed Away Last Week After Illness of Only a Few Days. Buried at Allumette Island.

The death occurred at St. Mary's hospital, Timmins, on Tuesday, Dec. 2nd, of Joseph Dennis Tierney, a well-known and esteemed resident of Timmins, in his 35th year, after a very brief illness of only about five days.

His death came as a decided shock to his many friends in Timmins and district, where he had lived for several years, and in Allumette Island, his old home. His mother arrived at Timmins from Allumette Island a few hours after his death.

The late Denis Tierney was born in Allumette Island on Nov. 25th, 1895 and attended the parish school, Ottawa University and Pembroke high school. He was of clever and amiable disposition and was loved by all who knew him.

The funeral took place on Thursday of last week, Dec. 4th, at Timmins. Requiem high mass was sung by Rev. Fr. Caulfield. The pallbearers were V. Cotnam and J. Doolan (brothers-in-law), T. Toner (cousin), Aloysius and Allan Tierney (brothers) and Jim Forrester. From the church the remains were shipped to Pembroke, internment being made at his former home at Allumette Island on Saturday, when the body was taken from his childhood's home to St. Joseph's church where requiem high mass was sung by Rev. H. E. Letang, who also assisted at the grave. Edward Tierney, brother of the deceased, assisted in the sanctuary.

The pallbearers were there his three brothers, and three brothers-in-law. The very large attendance at the funeral services, the great number of mass cards and the many floral offerings both at Timmins and at the home of his boyhood, testify to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The list of mass cards was as follows:—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Poirier, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cox and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh N. Lackie, Miss Anna Thero, Mr. and Mrs. F. McNamara, Allan Tierney, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sullivan, the Altar Society, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Doolan, Mr. and Mrs. F. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. V. Newton (spiritual offering), Mrs. L. S. Rogers (spiritual offering), M. Joallin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gavan, Mr. and Mrs. D. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. D. Chisholm, Mr. and Mrs. Leo May, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Tierney, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lackie and family, Mrs. S. Thero (requiem), Mrs. A. O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tierney, Mr. and Mrs. H. See.

The floral offerings included:—"A Broken Heart," from his wife; "A Pillow," from the family; sprays, from Mr. and Mrs. Forrester, G. Latimer, Mr. and Mrs. L. Tait, Mr. and Mrs. Boucher.

Besides his widow, who was formerly Miss Mabel Cox, of Allumette Island, he leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tierney, and five sisters and four brothers, as follows:—Mrs. Victor Cotnam, Mrs. J. Doolan, Aloysius and Allan Tierney, of Timmins; Hazel Tierney, of Detroit, Mich.; Hector Tierney, of Cleveland, Ohio; and Cicely, Emily and Ebby at home.

All members of the family were home for the funeral.

The deepest sympathy of all who knew the late Denis Tierney will be extended to the bereaved widow and family and to all the other near relatives and friends in the sad loss sustained through the unexpected and untimely death of Joseph Denis Tierney.

Annapolis Royal (N.S.) Spectator:—Any blacksmith anywhere can shoe a horse. That's part of his trade. Some can do the job better than others, and some couldn't make a good horseshoe even if they could fit one. But the art of shoeing oxen seems to be one of decreasing demands and many modern smiths couldn't properly shoe an ox if they tried. Annapolis Royal however is still one of the places where a good many oxen are shod and the shoes as yet have to be made by hand. It was interesting the other day to inspect the process by that expert smith J. M. Harris, up on St. George St.

Plan Meeting Settlers Here Early in New Year

Mr. Lacasse, president of the Northern Ontario Settlers' Association, kindly volunteered this week to come to Timmins and address a meeting of the settlers here, with a view to organizing a branch of the organization here. Effort was made to arrange here for such a meeting, but a number consulted felt it would be utterly impossible to notify enough of the settlers in the district to allow for a representative meeting on Saturday evening of this week as suggested. So it was decided to postpone the matter until early in January. In the meantime, if agreeable to Mr. Lacasse, plans will be made for a meeting that will be representative of the settlers of this part of the district, the meeting to take place in the early part of January. In view of the difficulty of reaching any number of the settlers in the winter time, it was utterly impossible to arrange a meeting for Saturday of this week, and it was thought best to defer the effort until later. All spoken to in this district are favourable to the new organization, but enough of them could not be gathered together this week to make the meeting representative.

S.O.E. CHRISTMAS TREE TO BE ON THURSDAY, DEC. 18TH

The S.O.E. Christmas Tree will be held in the Hollinger hall on Thursday, Dec. 18th, and all parents and children of the general lodge and the junior society are kindly asked to be at the hall at 6.15 p.m., as the children's tea will be served at 6.30 p.m. Santa Claus is due to arrive at 8 p.m. This year's arrangements provide for a real English Christmas evening. There will be games for the children, in which the parents are asked to join; carol singing will be another feature; and there will be many other items to make the evening as pleasant as possible for all. Everyone is welcome to attend. A special invitation is extended to Cornish people who are noted for their musical talent to attend and give their gifted help to the carol singing. The ladies of the Goldfields Sewing Club will give a cup of "tea" and piece of cake to all.

On Dec. 27th the S.O.E. are giving an open dance in the Hollinger hall and there will be plenty of pleasure for all at this event.

On Dec. 31st, a grand Hogmanay dance will be held in the Hollinger hall. The Club Royal orchestra again will supply the most up-to-date music. There will be many novelties and a real treat watching the old year out and the new year in.

The ladies' Goldfields Sewing Club will be held at Mrs. Everett's, 49 Main avenue, Friday evening of this week at 7 p.m. Anyone interested may attend this meeting and receive full particulars as to the plans on which the club is conducted. The club meets every Friday evening.

GUARD AGAINST FIRE RISK IN CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

Canadian Fire Underwriters Send Out Their Annual Warning Regarding Danger from Fire in the Inflammable Christmas Decorations Used.

Every Christmas there are a number of fires throughout the country that originate in the flimsy and inflammable Christmas decorations used. Carelessness in putting these decorations near stoves, stove-pipes, furnace pipes, electric lights, etc., and in their position in stores cause many fires annually. There have been fires of this kind in Timmins even though the fire chief here has always added his warning and advice to that sent out by the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association. Each year for many years past, the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association has sent out a letter of advice and warning in regard to Christmas decorations and this letter is always specially worthy of thoughtful attention. One of the troubles in past years has been that it did not always reach the newspapers in time to be of the greatest possible use. This year, however, Fire Chief Borland has handed his own copy of the letter to The Advance for use, and it is especially timely this week. The letter reads as follows, and all should read it:—

Re Christmas Decorations
Dear Sir:—Following our usual custom at this season of the year, I beg to draw your attention to the danger to life and property from Christmas decorations, such as draperies, scenery, cotton to represent snow, etc. Displays of this nature, and the lighting arrangements in connection therewith, add very considerably to the ordinary risks of fire.

I would also point out that should an accident of the kind occur in a crowded store or meeting, the rapid spread of fire in such inflammable material is almost certain to occasion a panic with attendant risks to life and limb. A few simple precautions may reduce the danger to a minimum, and these should be considered essential where large numbers of people and particularly children are to be gathered.

See that inflammable material is clear of and not hung over heating and lighting devices, steam-pipes, stove-pipes, electric light bulbs, etc.

See that your electric circuits are properly fused and not overloaded by the addition of temporary lights.

Examine your fire extinguishing appliances and see that they are sufficient in good order and readily accessible.

Have all temporary decorations removed and safely disposed of as soon as they have served their purpose.

Remember that nothing can render these displays absolutely safe, and that if accidents are not to mar the festive season, constant vigilance and care must be exercised.

High-Grade Samples from Week's Run of the Press

London (Eng.) Daily Express:—There has just died in Paris a man whose name was once on the lips of nearly every person in Europe, Mathieu Dreyfus. Brother of the man who went to Devil's Island for a crime he never committed, it was his unswerving loyalty that finally brought justice to an unhappy man. The world has forgotten them now; one by one the traducers and defenders of his brother Alfred have passed beyond mortal judgment. Now that Mathieu Dreyfus and Clemenceau are dead only the central figure of that strange drama which rocked France to its foundations remains. The man who suffered and was tortured has outlived them all, to become a comment on the ways of life and on the shortness of human memories.

St. Mary's Journal-Argus:—The cost of doing business is as nothing compared with the cost of not doing business. That is why live business people speed up their advertising activities during dull periods.

North Bay Nugget:—A long skirt crusade has been started in Bologna, Italy. Does that mean it's the baloney?

Old-Time Yuletide Glories Return

One hundred years ago the Lord of the old Papi-neau Seigniorie, at Montebello, celebrated Christmas in the good old-fashioned way, surrounded by his family and dependents through a series of festivities lasting several days. The Yule-log crackled in the great fireplace; the merry voices of men and maidens rang through the great halls of the manor house; carols, so old that the origin of some of them was even then untraceable, were sung; bright garlands of evergreen decorated the apartments and corridors and—in a word—Christmas was King. Then, for a century, the song of the minstrels and the laughter of the guests was hushed and only the falling snow told the historic seat of the Papi-neaus of the advent of the Christmas season. This year, however, Lucerne-in-Quebec has stretched its magic wand over the historic site and the ancient glories are to be revived, on a scale which will outlive all their predecessors. With the Log Chateau as headquarters, 88,000 acres of beautiful countryside will be thrown open to visitors to the unique hotel. Bob-sleighting on one of the longest runs on the continent; ski-ing; ski-joring; ski-jumping; skating; snowshoeing and dog-sled drives will be offered to the devotees of winter sports, while the most complete comforts and appointments of up-to-date hotel-keeping; good food and bright entertainment will await the guests at close of day. Among the special features arranged for the Christmas festivities are the rendering of carols by The Children of His Majesty's Savoy Chapel Choir (London, Eng.); old-time songs by Charles Goulet's troupe of French-Canadian artists and the interpretation of Tudor dances by experts from the Margaret Eaton School of Dancing. Thus, once again, will the old walls of the historic mansion hear the strains which roused them to Christmas celebration a century ago, and before that. Lucerne-in-Quebec is ideally situated, on the northern bank of the Ottawa River, about half way between the Canadian Capital and Montreal, and only an overnight run from the great cities of the Eastern United States.
