SUDBURY DISTRICT MAN GIVEN PENITENTIARY TERM

Two years in the Portsmouth penitentiary was the sentence imposed on Monday at Sudbury by Judge Proulx on M. Goldberg, a man of 26 years of age, who was found guilty of forgery on three different counts. Goldberg was arrested in Toronto on information sworn to by E. J. Jewitt, chairman of the union school board for the townships of Appleby and Hagar, near Sudbury. After his arrest in Toronto the accused was returned to Sudbury for trial. Goldberg had been secretary-treasurer of the school board in question for several terms and the charges against him arose from alleged irregularities in connection with the funds of the board. It was held that during the month of February that Goldberg improperly cashed three cheques, the funds for these cheques being drawn from the school section account. The sentence being a penitentiary one was much more severe than would ordinarily be given for a theft of the amount involved in this case, but the judge very rightly looked upon the defrauding of a school section as a very serious offence.

While at the bowling alleys this week Mrs. E. Stevens had the misfortune to fall and break her wrist. She heard the fire bell and hurrying to the rear window to see if the fire could be seen she slipped on the smooth floor and throwing out her hand to save herself her wrist struck the siding of the alley, the bone in the wrist being fractured. All will be pleased to know that Mrs. Stevens is making good recovery from the unlucky accident.

Sudbury Star—A man, it is stated, should have enough zinc in his system to make two carpet tacks. The matter is one of health, not of tack production. With loose rugs in style, we do not use many carpet tacks nowadays. And even if we did it would be cheaper to buy than to raise them.

Toronto Mail and Empire—Various publications solve, according to their own taste, the problem which frequently arises of whether to spell out an oath or indicate it by an initial, followed by a dash. One of the Macfadden publications has made a happy compromise. It says "Hell," but always uses a reverent capital letter.

Kapuskasing Tribune—Life is one fool thing after another: love is two fool things after each other.

Pembroke Standard-Observer—The Provincial Government will appoint a Royal Commission to inquire into the treatment of cancer by radium. The people of Ontario will approve of a large expenditure of money when it is devoted to the discovery of the cause and cure of cancer.
