

Mrs. Fadeorac Dead at South Porcupine

Highly-respected Resident of South End Passes Away. Other News from South Porcupine and the Dome.

South Porcupine, July 22nd, 1931. Special to The Advance.

Mrs. Andy McGinn and young son, of the Dome Extension, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton at Wolf-town.

In the police court on July 16th, there were three speeders but one was dismissed; the other two were fined. Three reckless drivers were also in court. Two paid fines. One had his charge of reckless driving withdrawn but it was proven he had a reckless tongue as well and he paid a heavy fine for using abusive language. For failing to return to the scene of an accident a South Porcupine man was fined. Dogs are still running at large it seems for four different parties were up in court again and had to pay for their canines' freedom. J. Rubick, of Schu-macher, who figured in the accident to the little Cicci girl there, was fined fifty dollars and costs for operating a motor car with the brakes not in order and also had his operator's license cancelled for thirty days.

Chief of Police McInnis would like to warn all drivers of motor vehicles to be very careful about the condition of their brakes. J. Besini of Timmins gives a free test of brakes and to see about this might be the means of saving a life and is only what is due the public.

Provincial Officer McCord had two cases at the court, one, a reckless driver, paying a fine of fifty dollars and costs and having his permit suspended for two months. The other was just a plain speeder who got off a little easier. Strong efforts both by Provincial and township officers are being made to keep the highway safe for traffic.

Mr. and Mrs. Greaves, of North Bay, are visiting their son, Elliot, in town.

Mrs. Audrey Londry and three children and Mrs. Carl Carruthers and little daughter, Jean, leave this week for a motor holiday in the South, during which they will visit Mrs. Londry's parents at Meaford. Master Maurice Londry will remain there to take a commercial course in Meaford.

The first baseball game of the season for this part of the camp was played on the Dome grounds on Wednesday, July 13th, between Dome Junior baseball team and the Iroquois Falls Juniors. The game became particularly exciting toward the end when Dome came from behind, after playing a rather draggy game, to even the score. Only seven innings were played as the game was late in getting started and darkness was setting in. The teams lined-up: Iroquois Falls—catcher, Mills; pitcher, Lefebvre; 1b., Grotteau; 2b., Johnson; 3b., Yurinchuk; shortstop, Fortier; 1.f., Wilkes; c.f., Nault; r.f., Walsh. Dome Mines—catcher, Burns; pitcher, T. Parsons; 1b., Miller; 2b., Laflamme; 3b., G. Michaelson; shortstop, Fortier; 1.f., H. McLean; c.f., St. Onge; r.f., Dominico. There were no runs made by either team in the first innings. Laflamme for Dome and Yurinchuk for the visitors each figured in two pretty catches. In the second innings Johnson was the first to make the diamond. For the Dome Parsons and St. Onge both fanned. Burns stole second and was at third when Dominico was caught out. When Iroquois Falls came to bat again Walsh made the home plate on an overthrow to first by Dome. Miller made a tally for the Dome and the fine fielding of Wilkes, who caught McLean's fly that went some distance outside the fence, were the features of the Dome's going to bat. In the next innings the visitors piled up two more runs, Fortier and Johnson doing the tricks. The Dome fielding was poor in this issue and the whole team seemed to be minus a proper think-cap. In the fifth St. Onge was put in the pitcher's box for the Dome. Dominico made a great catch of Walsh's fly when he jumped for it; the umpire had a nice dirt put in his mask when Nault's foul ball hit it, but no runs were made. For the Dome Miller stole third and again got home. No more tallies were added in the sixth. Smart work on the part of Johnson was responsible for Parsons being out at first. The game looked as though it was cinched by the visitors in the seventh. Nault, a very youthful looking player, was hit on the shoulder by the ball when at bat and Yurinchuk had to take his place at first. No more runs were made. Then something must have got the Dome team properly primed for the next inning. Wilkes made another wonderful catch from Burns far outside the outfield. Dominico walked then stole second, stole third and stole home, while Miller was at bat. Catarello's sprinting ability got him to first not a second too soon. He stole second and third and got home. The pitcher for the visitors seemed to be going to pieces after his good work. Michaelson walked and stealing second was let home along with Catarello by Laflamme's good work at bat. The game ended in a tie of 5-5.

The teams are also tied on the series, Dome having lost the first and won the second game played at Iroquois Falls.

The softball team of the Dome Mines Mill continued their winning streak on Thursday last when they smothered the Mine in a 25-10 score. There was the usual line-up for each team with the exception that Timlin was in the outfield for the Mill. The Mine tried different pitchers throughout the game but it made no difference to Percy Millions' gang. They romped around that diamond anyway. When Parsons, Clark, Michaelson and McLean all trotted home in the first innings of the Mine everyone thought it was all up with the old ball game so far as the Mill were concerned, but lo! T. Parsons, Mansfield, Lett Longworth, Catarello, Johns, Mason and McCann all touched the home plate for the Mill, putting them on the better side of the 8-5 score to start the second innings. Parsons and Zig Ostrowsky added two more nuggets to the Miners five but Longworth, Timlin, Catarello, McCann and Parsons each panned out a run for the Mill so the score for the third inning looked worse still for the Mine, 13-7, and they got nowhere in it. Catarello made a two-base hit with Timlin on base ahead of him and Johns let them both in and later came himself. Then Mansfield let Mason in and made a home run. Next came Lett with another home run, and the fourth period started with the Mill having nineteen runs against seven. None of the Miners got past second but Johns and Mason again tallied for the Mill making a score that tripled the Miners'. No running again was the Miners' next effort. It looked as, though their stoves were blocked completely. In the sixth the Mill run was Johns, Mason, McCann and Parsons, making 25 in all. Lett was particularly good for the Mill doing some fine batting and was quick-witted—in the field. His play when Proulx was put out in the fourth was nice work. Michaelson, Ray and Burke loosened up with three more runs for the Mine and the game was called with the score 25-10. Jim Fell was umpire.

On Monday evening the Mill were not so lucky, losing to the Engineers in a 13-10 score. McMurray and Cook were back from holidays and in their place for the Engineers. The field work of the Mill was not nearly up to its average and the work on the bases was weak at times. The only feature of the first inning was a pretty play on the part of Doran who caught Richmond's fly and got it back to the home plate in time to stop another count there. Michaelson made a home run for the Engineers. McNab for the Mill tied the score in the second but Fell, Crozier, McCaffrey, Richmond and Cook ran up the Engineers' score. Mansfield and Lett tallied for the Mill in the third but McMurray, Crozier and McCaffrey again counted against them. Parsons and Mansfield brought along

Pretty Wedding at Schumacher, July 15

Miss Cecelia Mary Craig and Louis John Faulkner Married at Schumacher Thursday Last. Other Schumacher News Items.

Schumacher, July 22nd, 1931. Special to The Advance.

Mrs. McCord, of Shawville, Quebec, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. Prior, 102 First avenue.

Born—Thursday, July 9th, 1931, to Mr. and Mrs. McCallum, Golden Centre, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Hawkins, of Butte, Montana, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hawkins.

Trinity United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon when Cecelia Mary, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Craig, 100 First avenue, was united in marriage to Louis John Faulkner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner, Timmins. The Rev. Mr. L. Hussey of South Porcupine performed the ceremony. The church was very tastefully decorated, with delphinium, snapdragon and sweet peas, the guest pews being marked off with white satin ribbon. The fair young bride looked very sweet as she entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her away to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. H. James. Her wedding gown was of a off shade of white silk net, made with tight fitting bodice and very long skirt; gloves, shoes, and hose to match. Her wedding veil of silk net was caught at the back of the head with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses, lily-of-the-valley, and baby's breath, and wore the gift of the groom, an onyx and diamond necklace. The bride was attended by Miss Mamie Green, who wore a period gown of pink silk net, with large hat of pink and white mohair and straw, with gloves, shoes, and hose to match, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby's breath. Little Margaret Scullion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Scullion, made an effective flower girl, dressed in her Kate Greenaway frock of baby pink organza with a Juliet cap of pink organza with rosebud trimming and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of sweet peas and snapdragons. Margaret's small brother, Thomas, acted as page, dressed in white satin Oliver Twist suit. The groom was supported by Mr. Douglas Craig. During the signing of the register Mrs. J. E. Harvey sang, "In the Garden of Tomorrow." Following the service a wedding dinner was held at the home of the bride for the bridal party and intimate friends and later in the evening a reception was held in the home of Mrs. J. R. Todd was very pretty with delphiniums, phlox and roses on Saturday afternoon when about thirty-four friends of Mrs. S. Folkin's, (nee Mary Byrnes), held a joint wedding shower in the form of a seven-day-a-week gift. As the bride entered the living room to a wedding march played by Mrs. Kitchen, Mrs. Todd presented her with a bouquet of sweet peas and escorted her to a chair decorated with white, over which hung white wedding bells, and to which the bride's nieces, Geraldine and Betty Macmillan, brought in a wagon with gifts for each day. During the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Todd. Mrs. J. A. Hawkins poured tea and Mrs. Dr. Byres poured coffee. Mrs. Folkins is leaving this week to join her husband in Halleybury.

After the gifts were presented and opened, cards and dancing were enjoyed, and Mrs. O'Hara served a sumptuous lunch.

another couple for the Mill but Fell and McMurray did likewise. Then in the fifth Catarello, Johns, Mason and Parsons ran up a tie score but Doran, Michaelson and Fell again put the Engineers in the lead, the game ending 13-10. Zig Ostrowsky acted as umpire. The Engineers had on their new sweaters and looked very nifty in them. They are a blue ground with white trimmings and no wonder the boys wanted to make a good showing.

On Sunday evening after nearly a year's severe suffering, Eufrosina Fadeorac, wife of C. Fadeorac, of Connaught Hill, passed away at her home. She was a native of Roumania but had been in this country nineteen years, coming first to Montreal, then living eight years at the Dome, and they have resided in South Porcupine during the last five years. She was thirty-eight years of age and had been married for twenty years. Besides the husband, one son, William, eighteen years of age, survives, but as a patient at the Muskoka Sanitarium at Gravenhurst for the past year. For them the deepest sympathy of the community is felt. The late Mrs. Fadeorac was taken to the Lockwood Clinic last fall where it was found she was suffering with cancer of the liver. She has been a patient sufferer at her home here ever since. The funeral took place at the Roman Catholic church on Tuesday, Rev. Father Gelinias, officiating. The funeral mass was sung by Mrs. Bessette and Mrs. Laforest and during the service "Lead, Kindly Light," was sung. Burial was made in South Porcupine cemetery. Mrs. Fadeorac was a woman respected and liked by all who knew her, whether her own country folk or not. She was of a strong, upright, honourable character that scorned to do a mean thing but was ever ready to do a kindness where it was needed and she will be sorely missed by those who knew her best.

Mrs. McKenzie, of Hamilton, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. C. Callum, Gold Centre.

A very pleasant time was held Tuesday by the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary when the members turned out to say good-bye to one of its members in the person of Mrs. V. McPadden, who has always been a willing worker in the church and its various organizations for a number of years. Mrs. McPadden was presented with a handbag as a token of appreciation, to what Mrs. McPadden replied that although leaving her many friends she would always look back upon those years with pleasure. Mr. and Mrs. McPadden are leaving this week for Navan, where they will reside in the future.
