

Death in Cornwall Bereaves Sons Here

J. Youlton, Well-Known in Timmins, Where he had Three Sons, Passes Away at His Home in Cornwall, England.

Many in Timmins will regret to learn of the death at Gunnislake, Cornwall, England, of Mr. Jeremiah Youlton, who had three sons in Timmins, had visited here on two different occasions, being here in 1924 and 1926. He made many friends here during his visits, and in addition many present citizens of Timmins knew him in Cornwall, England. The Tavistock Times of recent date gave the following account of the death of Mr. Youlton:—

Gunnislake's Loss

The death of Mr. Jeremiah Youlton, of Gunnislake, was learned with much regret by all who knew him. It had been known for some time that deceased was in falling health and when there was little hope of his recovery a cablegram was sent to his three sons in Timmins, Canada, with the result that the youngest son, Louis, immediately sailed for home. Happily he reached Gunnislake some days before his father passed away. Mr. Youlton, who was 59 years of age, carried on a very successful business as an agent for most of the leading shipping companies. He also represented the Hearts of Oak Assurance Co. and the Ocean Accident and General Assurance Co., Ltd., as agent for the district. In all these capacities he was very successful. On two occasions he conducted parties of immigrants to Canada. He was also connected with the United Methodist Church, and was a very acceptable and well-known local preacher. The deepest sympathy of all will be extended to the widow and family of three sons (two of whom are at present in Canada) and four daughters. The funeral took place on Friday, when the service was held in the United Methodist Chapel conducted by the Rev. M. May. The hymns, "Jesus, Lover of my Soul" and "Rock of Ages," were sung, and as the cortege left the chapel Mrs. Collins impressively played a funeral march. The service at the Albaston cemetery was also conducted by the Rev. May. The chief mourners were the widow, Mr. L. Youlton, son; Mrs. F. Harvey, Mrs. Pridham, Misses Ada and Christine Youlton, daughters; Mrs. Walters (Tavistock), sister; Mr. F. Harvey, son-in-law; Mrs. H. Youlton, daughter-in-law; Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Lillcrap, sister-in-law; Mr. S. Kittow, brother-in-law; Mr. W. Trethewey, Mrs. Maker, and Mr. H. Maker, cousins.

The bearers were Messrs J. Bennett, W. Durant, T. Gerry, C. Murton, J. Strong and A. Stephens.

Beautiful floral tributes were sent as follows:—From his loving wife and children; in loving memory from Hédley, Alma and Ken; in loving memory from his sister Vic, Joe and niece; in loving memory from Louie, Edie, and Gladys; in loving memory from Father, Bessie, Myra, Sam and Sid; with deepest sympathy from Mr. and Mrs. F. Nicholls and Mrs. May; from Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lewis; from Mr. and Mrs. Williams and family; from Mr. and Mrs. C. Southcott; from Mr. and Mrs. S. Renfree; from his sister Nellie; from Nellie, Winnie and Alf to dear uncle; from Mrs. Veale and family; from Mr. and Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Hutchings and family; from R. E. Kittow; with heartfelt sympathy from Mabel; from Mr. and Mrs. W. Harris; from Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Harris and Leonard; from Mrs. Glanville, C. Harris, and Marjorie; from Mr. and Mrs. H. Hambley and family; from Mrs. Bray and family, "Peace, perfect Peace"; from Mr. and Mrs. Parkin; from Mr. and Mrs. Bridgman; from Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Durant; from Cousins Will and Polle; from Aunt Neomi Sims and Cousins Olivia and Horace Maker; from Mr. and Mrs. Wedlock; with deepest sympathy from the Plymouth Staff Hearts of Oak Assurance Company; with deepest sympathy from the Ocean Accident Guarantee Company, Ltd., Plymouth. Messrs W. Duence and Sons were the undertakers.

Fine of $1,000 and Truck Confiscated

Kirkland Lake Man Caught with Seventy Cases of Beer. Other Cases at Police Court Here This Week.

At police court here this week Dick Roberts, of Kirkland Lake, faced a charge of being in possession of liquor other than purchased on his individual permit. He pleaded guilty, and a fine of $1,000.00 and costs was imposed by Magistrate Atkinson, while the beer found in the motor truck and the truck itself were also confiscated as required in such cases by the Ontario Liquor Control Act. Sgt. Craik and Constable Grigg caught the truck on the Hollinger road on Saturday morning at four o'clock. There were seventy cases of beer in the truck which was apparently headed back to Kirkland Lake. Eddie Burley and Nelson Assad, also of Kirkland Lake, who were on the truck with Roberts at the time of the capture were also taken in charge by the police. These two young men said they had simply come with Roberts on the trip for the pleasure of the motor journey. The charges against them were withdrawn. In police court Roberts took all the onus for the possession of the liquor on the truck. His story was that he was taking it to Kirkland Lake for a man named Tony, whose other name he did not know, but who would be looking for him at Kirkland Lake. He claimed to have secured the seventy cases of liquor on the athletic grounds at Timmins where a man told him the stuff would be.

Another liquor case at the same court was that of Wm. Shaw, who was charged with having liquor not purchased on his permit. It looked all right for him when Sgt. Craik said he found three cases of liquor in possession of the accused one evening recently and that the permit showed a recent purchase of three cases of exactly the same kind of beer. It did not look so well, however, when the sergeant proceeded to prove that the three cases found were not the three cases purchased, as it could be shown by the marks on the cases found that they had not left the brewery at London at the time the three cases were entered on the permit. Asked if he wished to give his story on the witness stand the accused said he guessed not. He was fined $100 and costs or three months, and last night it looked as if he would take the time, the money not being forthcoming.

A young woman charged with the theft of $24.10 from a taxi driver in town was dismissed.

On a charge of reckless driving a fine of $10.00 and costs was imposed but the same man when charged with the additional offence of failing to stop at a stop sign had this charge against him withdrawn. In another case a fine of $2.00 and costs was imposed.

A charge under the dog by-law was withdrawn.

A charge of illegal possession of liquor laid by the provincial police was dismissed after it came to trial.

For assaulting his wife a local man was assessed $20.00 and costs or thirty days. For a time it looked as if he might take the time, but yesterday the fine was paid.

Alex Dubriel, otherwise known as Gervais, was sentenced to sixty days on a charge of vagrancy. He was the winner of an automobile at one of the bazaars this summer, which may seem lucky, but evidently he did not know his luck. He sold the motor car for $500.00, but apparently let the money slip away from him, losing some of it one way and another, and spending some of it one way and another. Recently there were complaints that he was begging at houses and otherwise annoying people. When he was picked up by the police he had only thirty or thirty-five cents.

An assault charge, apparently arising from a drunken row, was dismissed.

There was one solitary common drunk and he paid the common penalty of $10.00 and costs.

St. Mary's Journal-Argus:—"Ain't you going to work today, Bill?" "Naw, I ain't gonna put my foot in dat coal yard till da boss takes dem words back he said yesterday." "Well, what did he say?" "You're fired," says he.
