School closes on Tuesday of this week. The Continuation school are holding a party for pupils, ex-pupils and their friends. They are having two games of basketball first, then dancing and refreshments afterward. They are using the proceeds for hockey equipment for the school.
The public school teachers are holding their closing exercises on Tuesday afternoon in the different rooms. Then all will be leaving on Wednesday for their various homes, Miss Lynch for Orillia, Miss Faice for Bruce Mines, Miss McGavin, Miss Thorpe for Toronto, Miss Donley, Pembroke, Misses Pashlar, McNab and Walker for the Ottawa Valley, Miss Morris, Sheenboro, Quebec.
The pupils of the United Church Sunday School in town held a Christmas party on Monday evening beginning at five o'clock. Instead of having a supply of gifts from the Sunday School, besides what Santa brought, the pupils voted this year to send that amount as a donation to the stricken area of the West. When the striking came not a murmur of regret was heard over the absence of the school's gifts, but possibly more happiness than usual was given by Santa's visit. Messrs Saunders and Jones, of the Dome Sunday School staff, came in and give kindly assistance with the games, music, etc., during the evening. Cake, sandwiches and lemonade was served to the children after their games, then came carol singing by the school and by the various groups. Miss Mary McIntosh, the fourteen-year-old pianist of the Sunday School deserves credit for the part she has taken in getting up these carols. Alice Eyre, sweetly sang one of the carols as a solo. But all were "on the qui vive" for a visitor they had heard had been at the Dome on Saturday and when the one hundred and fifty young voices started to sing "Jingle Bells," sure enough he came with a huge box on a hand-sleigh. The ice had been a little slushy to bring his reindeer across the lake so he left them at the north end of the lake, where he had found a fine hiding place for them till after he visits the kiddies at Golden City on Tuesday night. Mrs. Coffey, superintendent of the Sunday School, assisted Santa in finding the boxes for each child but soon such excited groups were gathering round that the teachers all had to lend a hand or Santa would have talked till he was too hoarse to tell those reindeer and Mrs. Santa all about it when he got back to the north of the lake.

Miss McPhail, of the High School staff, is leaving Tuesday for her home in Uxbridge. Miss Lucas of the same staff left for Wyoming for the holiday season.
Miss T. Burns, musical directress of the schools, is holidaying at her home in Detroit.
Mr. Walter MacDougall is home to spend the festive season with his parents, Major and Mrs. A. MacDougall.

Mr. D. Murray is holidaying at Sudbury.
Messrs Anderson, Salmon and Clarke, members of the hockey club are holidaying at their homes in Pembroke.

The rink committee are planning a children's carnival for New Year's afternoon, from two to four. Admission will be free to all children in costume from Tisdale or Whitney township. This includes Schumacher, Dome, South Porcupine and Golden City. Adults and children not in costume will be charged admission. Good prizes are being offered for both fancy and comic costumes.
The First Troop of Boy Scouts are making plans for their winter camp at Three Nations. They plan to go Saturday of this week.
Mr. H. Kobler and Mr. E. J. Kinkel, of Buffalo, president and secretary-treasurer of the March Gold Mines, were visitors at the property during the past week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Knutson.
The choir of the United Church presented the cantata, "The Nativity" on Sunday evening under the able leadership of Mr. A. Suttie. The service began at seven o'clock instead of the usual hour of seven-thirty. A baptismal service was held at the beginning of the service when the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and the second son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Stanlake received the rites of baptism. After a very appropriate Christmas talk by Rev. Hussey, the choir augmented by two or three new members rendered this much loved Christmas cantata. The chorus parts were particularly pleasing, there being a better balance of male and female voices than on a former presentation. Mrs. E. Stanlake took the soprano solos Mrs. W. Christie the contralto and Messrs H. Jones, J. Reece, Mr. Hueston and Mr. B. Saunders did the men's solo work, some of the more difficult parts being very creditable to them. On behalf of the congregation who filled the edifice to capacity Rev. L. Hussey thanked the choir and their leader, Mr. A. Suttie, and stressed the good work of Mr. R. Jones as organist and his reliability for being at every practice. Next Sunday Rev. B. Millar, of Timmins, will occupy the pulpit here and Rev. Hussey will be in Timmins. Miss Maud Carne was the guest of Mrs. M. Knutson at the March Gold during the past week.

There will be two services in St. Paul's Anglican Church on Christmas morning, one at eight a.m. and one at a quarter to eleven. Next Sunday evening there will be the usual service, but instead of a sermon there will be carol singing.

Miss Alma Laforest is home from Rockland, Ontario, for the vacation.
Master Colin Seilers is spending his Christmas vacation in Cobalt.

The Senior Hockey team have been handicapped by the soft weather in getting the best from their practices. Many are watching them each night and reports are that we shall see some good hockey as soon as the holiday season is over. There are just three Senior hockey practice nights a week at the rink now, as there is so much demand for the ice from others, but coach Gordie Spence is getting a very likely-looking team into shape. Noranda, Kirkland Lake, Timmins and South Porcupine will comprise the teams for this part. It is said there will be two games each with Noranda, and Kirkland, one at home and one away in each half of the schedule and then double the number of games between the two neighbouring teams. The authorized schedule will be ready for publication very shortly. Once the Yuletide is past Porcupine fans will get warmed up for their usual hectic hockey winter, the first game we believe being around the New Year.

The arena here is being exceptionally well patronized this season by skaters from neighbouring towns. In spite of the busy pre-Christmas rush the attendance has been more than was expected.
Wishing all our readers a very happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.

ADMISSION—50c

The firemen had a call to 50 Second avenue Sunday morning but nothing more than a chimney fire was the cause.

Mrs. Marguerite Mackay, who is a student at Toronto University, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. MacKay, Second avenue.

The play in the United Church on Thursday and Friday evening by local talent, "Two Girls and a Fellow," was very cleverly presented. "Oscar Tojdt," (F. A. Boyce); "Genevieve," his wife, (Mrs. J. Prentice); their daughter, "Elaine," (Miss Bush); "Mrs. Ursula Smith," (Mrs. George Hawley); "Geraldine," her daughter, (Mrs. J. Hayward); "Anthony," her son, (Grant Barron); "John Leslie," (Rev. Mr. Summerville); "Mrs. Anderson," his housekeeper, (Mrs. B. Waite); "Mrs. Tubbs," charwoman, (Mrs. H. Barden); "Tommy," gruber boy, (Tom Moore). Owing to so many counter attractions there was not the attendance at the performances which otherwise might have been to hear it, as each and all the players were excellent.

School closed Tuesday for the holiday, and each pupil was presented with a gift from Mr. F. W. Schumacher, of Columbus, Ohio. School will open again on January the fourth.

There will be a special Christmas service in the United Church on Christmas morning at eleven o'clock.
Mrs. D. Craig returned Saturday from an extended visit to California.

Miss Dorothy Armstrong, who is attending Normal School at North Bay, came home Saturday to spend the holiday with her parents.

Timmins Garage Dealers for the Chevrolet Cars

In The Advance last week there was an impressive advertisement for the new Chevrolet Six for 1932. The advertisement detailed the outstanding features of this new car—silent shift, synchro-mesh, free wheeling, faster acceleration, 20 per cent. more power, smart new Fisher bodies, etc. To the advertisement as appearing there was added the name of the local dealer. Through an inadvertence, the wrong line was made for the dealer. The added line added it appear that Marshall-Ecclestone, Limited, were the dealers here. The line should have read "Timmins Garage." The dealers for the new Chevrolet Six for 1932 and for the other Chevrolet cars are the Timmins Garage, Timmins.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS FROM ALGONQUIN REGIMENT

From Major Cole, O.C., Algonquin Regt., Winnipeg, comes a very attractive little folder giving Christmas wishes. "The Commanding Officer and Officers of the Algonquin Regiment," says the greeting, "extend their heartiest Christmas Greetings and all Good Wishes for the New Year." The companies of the regiment are as follows:—A. Company, Sudbury; B. Company, Halleybury; C. Company, Kirkland Lake; D. Company, South Porcupine. On the little folder, which is printed in two colours, there is the following very interesting extract from "The Ottawa River," by Capt. Geo. Shortt, Ph. D., in "The Canadian Geographical Journal":—"From its discovery in 1613 by Champlain until the beginning of the next century, the Ottawa was known as "the Grand River of the Algonquins." There were many tribes of this race settled along the river from Regaud to Alouette Island, but the particular tribe from which the river derived its name inhabited the Manitoulin Islands and the northeastern shore of the Michigan Peninsula. These Indians are described as being, at the time of the advent of the white man, a brave honest and upright people, possessing many definite moral principles of conduct. They maintained fur-trading communications with the French at Montreal, and thus the "Grand River of the Algonquins" became known as the route of the Ottawa country."

In reference to the article in The Advance last week mentioning a twenty-nine hand at cribbage, the information was given the paper that several such unusual hands have been held by players in the famous tournaments conducted under the auspices of the Timmins Volunteer Firemen's Club here.
