Holy Week Services in Local Churches

Union Services of Churches Being Largely Attended, Last of Series of Services to be Held This Evening.

The Holy Week services being held this week in the several churches in Timmins and Schumacher are being largely attended and are proving interesting and inspiring.

The first of the series was held in Trinity United Church, Schumacher, the speaker being Adjutant I. Jones of the Salvation Army who spoke on the "Pharisees" in very effective way.

On Tuesday evening Rev. Bruce Millar, of the Timmins United Church gave a striking address on the subject "Mary the Mother of Christ," the service being held in St. Matthew's church.

Last night the special service was at the Salvation Army, Rev. W. H. Summrell, Schumacher, being the speaker and his subject, "St. John" being dealt with in effective way.

This (Thursday) evening the service will be at the United Church, Timmins, Rev. R. S. Cushing, of St. Matthew's church, to speak on "The Centurion."

These special Holy Week services have been a feature here for several years past. They are under the auspices of the Porcupine Ministerial Association.

In addition to these services, the churches of all denominations are holding the regular and special services that feature their respective churches.

District Badminton and Championships

Notable Event Concluded Last Week at Schumacher. Great Interest Taken by Large Crowds in the Event.

The Badminton enthusiasts of the Porcupine district gathered last week at the McIntyre Recreation hall for the district tournament.

The growing popularity of the sport in this camp was evidenced by the large group of interested spectators who assembled each afternoon and evening throughout the week to witness the play.

Under the efficient management of the committee in charge, sixty-seven matches—a large number of which went to three sets—were run off and the finals played by the end of the week, all on the one and only available court in the district.

Among the highlights of the tourney was the finished and consistent play of Mr. Fuke, who with Miss Mulvihill, won the mixed doubles, and with Mr. Wylie again came through to win the men's doubles from Drew and Moore. Another was the sterling performance of Mrs. Skavlem and Mr. Solomon, who finished in the finals after defeating many younger and apparently more active teams.

Very keen competition in the ladies' doubles brought Mrs. McKinstry and Mrs. Douglas against Mrs. Wokey and Mrs. Ashe in the finals. After a hard-fought match this event was won by the former.

So great was the interest shown in this tournament that another is planned and will probably be held about the end of April.

A summary of the events is as follows:—

Another Airship is Reported as Missing

Roy Smith Left Timmins by Air Wednesday and No Word has been Heard from Him Despite Promise to Wire.

Just before going to press The Advance learns that there may be another missing airship. Mr. Mowbray, of the Kingston hotel, this morning reported to the police that no word has been heard from Roy Smith who was here with a red plane for a couple of weeks and left here at 9.45 a.m. on Wednesday intending to go to Toronto. Before leaving he told Mr. Mowbray he would wire to him on his arrival in Toronto and that if no wire were received it would be because something had happened. Mr. Smith came to Timmins from Sudbury and it is understood that he and Art Chisholm and Mr. Clegg are in partnership in a firm owning two planes. Chisholm and Clegg are in Kirkland Lake. Mr. Mowbray wired them Wednesday night about the matter. Chief Jones also communicated with Kirkland Lake and also secured the services of the provincial police in the matter and search is being made for the missing flier.

Eganville Leader—Another proof that the spirit of patriotism is hard to kill has been provided by Margaret Anglin, eminent actress, and member of a well-known Canadian family. Miss Anglin, long resident in the States at a gathering in Washington on Tuesday, interpreted "the spirit of Wakefield," Washington's birthplace. This is a distinct honor, as the part calls for first-class histrionic and elocutionary ability. Asked by the Washington press if she were still a Canadian, Miss Anglin replied: "Is it possible to be anything else?" It should be recalled that this distinguished actress was born in the Speaker's Chambers of the House of Commons at Ottawa when her father, the late Hon. T. W. Anglin, presided over the deliberations of the Dominion Parliament, and that she is the sister of the present Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada. Truly, a Canadian, for whom it would be difficult "to be anything else."

High-Grade Samples from Week's Run of the Press

Pembroke Standard-Observer—Should the underworld find the Lindbergh baby, it will not enhance the reputation of the United States police, and should the kidnapers be paid and escape punishment, it will be the greatest travesty on justice in this century.

Midland Free Press—Don't hoard money is what President Hoover is advising in the United States. But his Government is not acting on that advice if the gold piled in the official vaults is any criterion.

Huntingdon Gleaner—Americans like noise while they eat is the decision of a New York cafeteria which had a big patronage but was very noisy. The management decided to install a soundproof ceiling and floor. At once the patronage began to decline. Fewer and fewer diners came, until at last in desperation the proprietor had the soundproofing removed. Immediately business increased.

Smith's Falls Record-News—Up in Hamilton a man threatens to bring an action against a dentist for $200 damages for torture. He claims the dentist undertook to extract a tooth for him and that he hurt him most unmercifully. We presume the dentist will plead privilege.

Kingston Whig-Standard—Eight speeches in two days makes the sum total this year of the debate on the Speech from the Throne, against six weeks last session. Parliament has made a good beginning in time-saving brevity.

London Free Press—Ottawa announces that a $30,000 pension for life, voted to Sir Henry Thornton, has been cancelled by the Bennett Government. The King administration was certainly generous with the money of the people.

Huntingdon Gleaner—Finland boasts what is perhaps the most athletic family in the world—the Jaervinens. The father of the family, P. Jaervinenn, was the first Finnish athlete to win Olympic honours for his country when at Athens in 1906 he won the discus throw Greek style. Now all his four sons are members of the Finnish national athletic team. Matti is the holder of the national record for the javelin throw; Akles was without a peer in the Decathlon; Kalle, the third brother, is a leading performer at heaving the 16 lb. shot, while "Little Asko," hitherto known only as an outstanding ski-jumper, has now shown enough proficiency as long jumper, and the hop-step-and-jump, to earn himself a place on the national team.

Toronto Mail and Empire—A New York watchman has come forward to claim that he is the son of George Eastman's brother. But as it appears that Mr. Eastman had no brother, the nightwatchman might try to pass himself off as the Lindbergh baby.

Brantford Expositor—The financial situation has so improved in England that it is no longer considered unpatriotic to go abroad for holidays. As long as a crisis threatened everyone was on the job to do their bit and the outcome has once more shown just what a patriotic people can accomplish.

St. Catharines Standard—"I was trying to entertain an audience," said Hon. G. N. Gordon in explanation of his scandalous attack on the Premier. But surely he did not have to go down in the sewer to do that. And his explanation is no compliment to the Hamilton audience.

Simcoe Reformer—Moscow denies that it had any connection with the recent Communist riot in Detroit. But the spirit which fostered that riot was the child of Moscow, and to that extent Moscow stands guilty.

Ottawa Journal—Gandhi says the dominating fear of mankind to-day is the loss of material possessions. We suppose he is worrying about that safety pin.

Sault Star—The solution for the problem of the rural doctor may lie in a plan adopted by the Cardston community near Lethbridge, Alberta. A news despatch states that families have agreed to contribute $25 each annually to a community fund from which two doctors will be paid. The plan is not original, but this is probably the first time it has been attempted in Canada, and the results may be interesting.

North Bay Nugget—The Mayor of Ottawa is advocating a "work and buy" campaign for this city. It is argued that the Ottawa district paid more in income tax than any other area last year and there is no lack of funds. Sure, but that was back in B. C. (Before the Cut).

St. Mary's Journal-Argus—By-stander: "I observe that you treat that gentleman very respectfully." Garageman: "Yes, he's one of our early settlers." By-stander: "Early settler? Why, he's not more than forty years of age." Garageman: "That may be true, but he pays his bills on the first of every month."

North Bay Nugget

Judging from the look of the auditors after they had been battling with the city records in the basement of the city hall the special ten year audit is going to be a dirty job.

Powassan News—A kid was asked what the thoughts were that passed through Isaac Newton's mind when the apple fell on his head. "I guess he felt awful glad it wasn't a brick," piped the kid.

Fort William Times-Journal—There should be general recognition among Canadian people that gold mining is firmly established as an industry in Canada and that its development is one of the important duties of those who wish to bring back prosperity to the Dominion. As has been pointed out by speakers in this city, there is no depression in those areas of Ontario where gold mining is being carried on. There is a constant demand for their product and so important is it, that the gold from Canadian mines is being taken by the government on its valuation in outside markets, not on the exchange value of the Canadian dollar. The old theory that gold mining can never be anything but a gamble is outdated, so far as Ontario mines are concerned. Gold production is an industry, like any other, in which the cost of production is nicely balanced against the price of the product and profits in the form of dividends are made. It is just as businesslike and cold-blooded a proposition to make a gold brick as to make a pair of shoes. The romantic gamble has been changed into a question of costs and bookkeeping.

Pembroke Standard-Observer—Lindbergh's young son kidnaped, was a headline in Wednesday's papers, and among the many things to be thankful for is that it would not be very safe for any gangster to stage anything like this in Canada.

Midland Argus—Times may seem a little tough just now but they generally work out all right. As Mark Twain once said: "Things are evenly divided in the world. The rich get the ice in the summer and poor get it in the winter."

Miss Betty MacDonald, teacher, Matheson, was the guest of Mrs. D. D. Chisholm over the week-end.

—Timmins Sons of Scotland announce a dance to be held on Saturday evening, April 2nd, Dancing 9 to 12. Club Royal orchestra. Admission, 75c a couple; 25c extra lady.

Mr. Babcock, better known as "Babcock the Lot Man," returned some days ago to Timmins after a visit to Florida and the South. Mr. Babcock brought back as a souvenir for The Advance a handsome metal key stamped with the words, "The Key to Florida," and giving the freedom of that state to the holder. Decorated with ribbon it makes a handsome souvenir, but a humorous touch is given to the memento by reason of the fact that this distinctly United States type of memento has stamped on a back corner in small letters the words, "Made in Japan."

"Help your wife," says a domestic expert. "When she mops up the floor, mop up the floor with her."
