Death by Accident of Mrs. H. Griffiths

Former Esteemed Resident of Town Dies from Burns Received in Accident at Her Home at Shillington.

Wide circles of friends in town learned last week of the death in Matheson hospital of Mrs. Henry Griffiths, of Shillington, formerly a popular and esteemed resident of Timmins. On Friday about half-past two in the afternoon Mrs. Griffiths, after finishing her housework for the time, went out to assist in the clearing of some of the land near the house. In some way her dress took fire from some of the burning brush and before the fire in the clothing could be smothered out, Mrs. Griffiths was very badly burned. Her husband hurried to her assistance and he too was very painfully burned about the hands. Both Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths were rushed to the Matheson hospital where all possible was done to relieve their sufferings and to guard against the danger of the severe burns sustained. Mrs. Griffiths, however, was so seriously injured that she passed away in the hospital about eight o'clock that evening. Mr. Griffiths, though his injuries were very painful, his hands and arms especially being badly burned, was sufficiently recovered to leave the hospital in a day or two.
The late Mrs. Griffiths was born in Wales and came to this country some five years ago with her husband and other members of the family. They settled in Timmins and Mr. Griffiths was for some time the Hollinger gardener. Last fall Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths went to Shillington where they took up a small farm there and were making a success of it, both being experts in the work and enjoying it.
During their residence in Timmins the family have made hosts of friends who deeply sympathize in the death of Mrs. Griffiths, who was held in very high esteem by all who knew her. To the bereaved husband and family the sympathy of all is extended.
In addition to the bereaved husband, Henry Griffiths, three sons and two daughters survive. One of the sons is in the Old Country and two others, Phil and Lewis are resident in Timmins. The daughters, resident in Timmins, are Mrs. W. Barlow and Mrs. Elms.
At the time of death the late Mrs. Griffiths was 69 years of age.
The funeral took place at Timmins on Monday from the S. T. Walker funeral parlours. Service was held at the Timmins Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Slade conducting the services. Among the Annual Banquet of Timmins A.Y.P.A.

Ven. Archdeacon Woodall Gives Delightful Reminiscences of England. Urges to Greater Loyalty to the Historic Church of England.

The annual banquet of the St. Matthew's A.Y.P.A. last week proved an event of outstanding interest and importance on the season's programme of the society. The event was entered into by a large crowd of young people with much vim, and not only did they do full justice to the delightful repast provided, but they all took their part on the programme in the community singing—so enthusiastically that their spirit was contagious.
S. G. Fowler, president of the A.Y.P.A. acted as toastmaster.
Mrs. Cretney delighted her audience with two solos, "Garden of Tomorrow," and "I'm awaying for You."
Miss Sinclair recited "Ajistoh," in able and effective way.
The toasts for the evening were as follows:—"The King," with the National Anthem being sung with fervor in response. "The Church," proposed by C. P. Walker, and responded to by Rev. R. S. Cushing. "The A.Y.P.A." proposed by H. C. Scarth, responded to by Miss Sinclair. Sid Burt proposed a vote of thanks to the retiring executive of the A.Y.P.A., and this was heartily endorsed by the gathering.
The guest speaker of the evening was Ven. Archdeacon Woodall, who gave an inspirational address, interspersed with wit and humour that was greatly enjoyed and much appreciated. A suitable title for the address would be, "Reminiscences of England." In his address Archdeacon Woodall described his trip to the Old Land in 1931, this trip taking him back to his old home and to the church where he spent the first days of his ministry. The episodes connected with each place visited were of more than usual interest. Archdeacon Woodall appealed to his hearers to show the greatest loyalty to the dear old church with its wonderful history, of which all should be justly proud.

Born—On May 17th to Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Whaley of Timmins,—a daughter.

Protect Highways from Broken Glass

Bottles Thrown on the Schumacher Road Make a Serious Menace to Safety. All should Help Protect Public in Cases Like This.

Last week on more than one occasion broken bottles were found on the highway between Timmins and South Porcupine. Apparently the bottles were thrown from passing cars, breaking on the road and forming then a serious menace to the travelling public. It seems hardly necessary to point out the danger from broken glass on the roads. Not only does it destroy good tires but there is always the chance that the tire so cut may cause a serious accident. It does not need for a car to be travelling very fast or for the car to turn or skid very far on a flat tire to result in serious accident and danger to life as well as property. Recently the town of Schumacher has suffered from several incidents where bottles were thrown in the road, breaking and thus forming a serious menace to traffic. Not only should those in cars avoid carelessly putting the danger of glass on the road, but the general public also might do well to assist in keeping this unnecessary danger from the roads. The police are doing all they can to save motorists from this menace of broken glass on the highway and any non-social motorist caught throwing bottles on the road or otherwise endangering the public safety will be prosecuted to the limit of the law as the practice is not only senseless but creates a real menace to safety.

Three Sent to Jail for Thefts in Town

Two of Them Were Stealing Gas. The Other Visited a Rooming House and Rifled a Pair of Trousers. Other Cases at Police Court Here.

It was not a lucky day for thieves at police court this week, three men convicted of this form of crime drawing terms in jail. Wm. McDonald, living at 50 Sixth avenue, was charged with burglary, though it was also a case of theft. He went into a rooming house in Moneta some nights ago and stole a watch and some money from the pockets of one of the roomers there. He was noticed coming out of the room but nothing particular was thought of it until the theft was discovered shortly afterwards. The police were notified, and it was possible to give a fairly good description of the culprit. With only the description to guide them the police were able to round up their man in the course of a couple of hours after a quiet but thorough search of the town. This looks like good work. When arrested the accused had an alibi which was supported by a woman he was with. The alibi did not hang together very well, however, and people at the rooming house positively identified the man. Also he had most of the money still with him, as well as the watch, though he tried to get rid of the latter by slipping it under the carpet in the police car. In police court on Tuesday he was sentenced to not less than six months nor more than two years less one day in the Ontario Reformatory.
Arthur LaRose was given thirty days for the theft of gas from Perreault's storage tank. He admitted taking a considerable quantity and made restitution and the latter fact won him a lenient sentence. He was given thirty days at Halleybury.
The other purveyor of gas was James McDonald who took the gas from other cars in unlawful way. The police caught him at the game and he was sentenced to thirty days.
A wilful damage case was remanded to next week. So also was the case of the woman charged with breach of both L.C.A. and the Excise Act.
A charge of burglary against Bill Romanuk, Jr., was withdrawn, after remand from last week.
A charge of fraud in connection with the renting of a house was remanded to next week.
Two speeders paid $10.00 and costs. A Schumacher man for reckless driving was assessed $50.00 and costs and had his license cancelled for thirty days.
Two men charged with running taxis without the necessary license were remanded to next week.
A charge of drinking in a public place cost one man $25.00 and costs.
Wm. Wilgen was fined $100.00 and costs for illegally having liquor.
Three boys were up in Juvenile court for the alleged theft of a wheel or wheel parts. The cases were remanded to next week.

Kingston Whig-Standard.—For many years the steel industry has been regarded as a barometer of business. As the steel industry became active so did business generally; as it slackened off business too fell off. Recent reports of increased business for this industry in the United States and Canada are thus an encouraging sign.
