Timmins Wins Close Game from McIntyre

Game Last Night had to go Ten Innings for Decision. Fans Liked This Game Makes League a Closer Race.

After an exciting game yesterday and overtime to decide the issue, Timmins won from McIntyre in the Senior Baseball league on the local diamond, thus making the league a closer race.

Turning the tables of last week's game, Timmins came from behind to win a great game. Excitement was so tense that the 600 fans present were fairly roaring till the tenth innings to see the home team win.

McIntyre scored four runs in the fourth when O'Donnell was pulled and Chambers pitched the next six innings. One run was scored in the fifth, two in the seventh, Timmins scored one in the fifth, four in the seventh, and Buck was released by Cowden and in the ninth two runs crossed the plate to tie the score. McIntyre failed to score in the tenth and Timmins scored in that frame to win the game. Woods at left field made the spectacular catch of the game.
