Canada's Latest Gold Rush in the Senneterre Area

Senneterre, Que., Nov. 7.—Planes tonight winged their way toward Lake Obaska, Tiblémont township, scene of Canada's newest gold rush. Report by Jack Wood, Senneterre prospector, of discovery of a vein 40 feet wide with considerable free gold has sent prospectors hurrying to the spot, mostly by airplane. Ground some miles east and west of the find is being staked.

Obaska Lake is some miles south of Senneterre, northeast of the rich Pascals and Louvicourt mines.

Details are at present lacking but the find, made by Wood while accompanying a party of Senneterre business men on a hunting trip, is said by prospectors who have already visited the area and have returned here to be one of the most important made in Canada this season. Possibility of the discovery materially assisting in increasing the activities of the Northern Quebec mining was believed considerable.

Roosevelt to be the New U.S. President

Democratic Party Sweeps the United States. Canadian Distillers Hope to Profit from the Return to the Wet.

The United States election on Tuesday of this week showed a remarkable swing over to the Democrats and early in the evening it was apparent that President Hoover had lost out. Later returns showed a popular vote of almost two to one in favour of Roosevelt.

This had been expected for some time by the political prophets in the United States, but even the enthusiastic Democrats are really surprised at the force of the swing-over. Despatches over the O'Hearn & Co. private wire this morning indicate that Roosevelt has been elected by a majority approaching two million of the popular vote, and that the Democrats have made a general sweep of the country. The change is no doubt partly due to the depression, such times always being against any and every government. The liquor question has also had an effect, the Roosevelt platform being known as a "wet" one. It is said that Canadian distillers hope to profit from the election results, having a large supply of liquor on hand to dispose of and a wet United States offering a great new market.

Some Sidelights

Ballot-counting in the United States elections found the States going this way as midnight approached:

California, Hoover's home State, 499 precincts out of 10,457—Hoover, 39,916; Roosevelt, 64,512.

Wisconsin, usually Republican, going straight Democratic.

Louisiana staying Democratic by 24 to 1 for Roosevelt, and favouring of State Prohibition Enforcement.

Mississippi routing Republicanism as in 1928.

Massachusetts remaining strongly Democratic.

Rhode Island electing Democrats, Federal and State.

Maryland, Republican in '28, going solidly Democratic.

Oklahoma, also Hooveristic in '28, piling long Roosevelt lead, and Democratic victory for State ticket.

New Hampshire appearing safe for Hoover. Unchanged.

Alabama remaining Democratic by long margin.

Nevada reverting from Hoover to a slim Roosevelt lead.

Maine sweeping back to Hoover after going Democratic in State elections.

Pennsylvania staying strongly Republican.

Colorado reverting from Republicanism to a narrow lead for Roosevelt.

Connecticut giving Democrats a slim lead against Republican majority in '28.

New York, slightly Republican last election, doing a determined right-about-face.

New Jersey, 3 to 2 for Hoover last time, going heavy for Roosevelt.

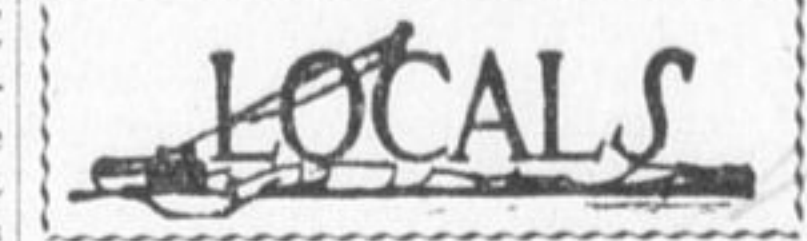

Iowa switching from Hoover, with straight Democratic ticket in lead.

Missouri returning to the Democratic ticket "right down the line."

Michigan, last Democratic in 1892, returning to that fold.

Georgia, Democratic stronghold, giving Roosevelt greatest Presidential vote on State record.

Florida quitting Hoover column to give Roosevelt 3-to-1 lead.

W. Rinn was called this week to Creemore, owing to the death of his mother, who passed away at Tottenham some days ago and who was buried this week at the family home town, Creemore.

Mrs. R. Richardson and Miss Patricia Richardson left to-day to spend the week-end in North Bay. They will visit Miss Mabel Richardson who is attending Normal School in that city; they will also visit other acquaintances, including Mrs. W. J. Edwards, formerly of Timmins.

The New Liskeard Speaker last week says:—"Mr. S. H. Teeple, who has been managing the T. Eaton Co. store here for some time has been transferred to the store in Kirkland Lake. Mr. Kerr, recently of the Sudbury branch is the new manager."

A school to teach flying is to be opened in North Bay at an early date, it is said. On a couple of occasions in past years classes to teach flying were started in Timmins, but they did not continue to be successful and so were eventually discontinued in each case.
