Dec. 14th Last Date to Receive Entries

N.O.H.A. Secretary Says Entries Coming in Well. List of Transfers Allowed to Some of the Clubs.

As soon as the elections are out of the way and the famous Charity Turkey Stag is over, there will be increased interest and excitement in the line of hockey in the North. No doubt, already there are many thinking about the great winter sport and recalling the great days of old and hoping for still greater days to come. North Bay, being closer to the secretary of the N.O.H.A. than Timmins, for instance, hears a few things extra in regard to N.O.H.A. hockey. For instance, last week The Nugget said:—

"Slowly but surely the teams interested in this season's scramble for N.O.H.A. honours are toing the scratch. Within the past few days W. A. Thompson, secretary-treasurer, has received entries from a few clubs but there are some who still have to go through the formality of putting their signatures on the dotted line. Entries will be received up to and including December 14. Any sent in after that date will have to take pot luck. The executive is scheduled to convene here on Friday, December 16, to pass on entries, applications for playing certificates and receive the reports of the group conveners.

Sudbury, North Bay, Montclair Academy and Noranda Que., are the only clubs that have so far squared accounts with the association. New Liskeard, Halleybury, Kirkland Lake, Cobalt, Timmins and South Porcupine have yet to signify their intentions in a definite way. Cochrane, Kapuskasing and Smooth Rock Falls, of the Mattagami group, and Chapleau have not made a forward move in any respect.

Transfers okayed by the association are:

South Porcupine (senior)—Clarence H. Meier, Albert J. Gingras and Leonard Benjamin Smith, all from Stratford; J. H. Murphy, from Queen's University, Kingston; W. Burton Smith, from Belleville; John Edwin Masecar, from Niagara Falls; Harvey Roy Heximire, from Niagara Falls; Norman C. Rashleigh, from Toronto.

Sudbury (junior)—William Ronald Durnan, from Toronto; Mervyn Charles Thompson, from Parry Sound, and John T. W. Young, from Aurora.

Noranda, Que. (senior)—Charles N. Mayo, from Simcoe.

Applications for transfer received from the Noranda, Que., club are:

W. B. Montgomery, from Kenora; Norman J. McCann, from Ottawa; Horace B. Hillcrest, from Amherst, N.S.; A. C. Mulvihill, from Arnprior; E. T. Malone, from Yorkton, Sask.; A. F. Ginn, from Ottawa, and Ross Terryberry.

"A communication received from G. H. Cross, South Porcupine, for information on the procedure to be followed in advancing a junior entry was referred to Charles Roach Timmins, convenor of the Northern group, for report."

MAGISTRATE REMEMBERS MAN WHO DEFAULTED IN 1915

Magistrate Atkinson has a long memory, as many have learned in police court throughout the North, sometimes to their cost, and sometimes to their advantage, for the memory of the magistrate is accurate as well as long. There was a sample of the magistrate's long memory during police court at Kirkland Lake some days ago. Sam Kuznick, 45 years of age, and now resident of Boston Creek, was in court to answer a charge of assaulting Jack Wurzin, of Boston Creek. The magistrate noticed Kuznick sitting in the court waiting for his case to be called and at once remembered the man. He enquired about his name and then could tell why he recalled him. Kuznick was fined in Cobalt for breach of what was termed the "Idleness Law," a war time measure that required all men to have an occupation of some legal sort. Kuznick skipped and no doubt forgot about the matter after all these years, but the magistrate remembered it all after seventeen years. The assault case against Kuznick was remanded for a week.

THIS TRAVELLER HAD THE RIGHT KIND OF A RADIO

A group of travelling men were swapping lies about their radios in a Smith Centre drug store. An old man had been listening silently.

"Got a radio, old man?" asked one of the drummers.

"Yeah," replied the old fellow: "I got a little two-tube affair. It's a pretty good one though."

"Can you tune out these little stations with it?"

"Well, I was listening to a quartette the other night, an' I didn't like the tenor, so I just tuned him out and listened to the other three."

Results Last Week in Bowling League

Nations Win from Bucovetsky's and Sinclair's from Pierce's in the Mercantile Bowling League Contests.

The National Grocers on Monday evening of last week were out in their shipment, or rather, Bucovetsky's were shy when they got the goods. The grocers delivered the goods all right having three out of four points.

Sinclair's pressed Pierce's, but it turned out a case of fifty-fifty, each getting two points.

All this was despite the fact that "Five Cent" freely offered odds.

The standing in the Mercantile league as at Nov. 28th, was as follows:—Sinclair's, 16; Pierce's, 14; Nationals, 12; Bucovetsky's, 6.

LIKED THE RECIPE FOR THE MAKING OF GOOD COFFEE

This story is told by The Northern Tribune, of Kapuskasing, in its issue of last week:—

Having boasted in an article that he knew how to make an excellent cup of coffee, G. B. Shaw received a request for the recipe from a country parson. Shaw sent it and added to his letter: "I hope this is a genuine request, and not a surreptitious mode of securing my autograph."

This angered the parson, who replied by return mail: "Accept my thanks for the recipe for making coffee. I wrote in good faith, and in order to convince you of that fact, allow me to return what it is obvious you intimately prize, but which is of no value to me—your autograph."

Cobalt Young Man Had Feet Slightly Frozen

Said by the police to have encountered a provincial officer on a trail in Gilles Limit while he was hauling allegedly stolen mining equipment toward the Silver Centre branch tracks of the T. & N. O. on a toboggan as day was breaking on a recent morning, John McGarry, a Cobalt young man had both feet slightly frozen during a walk of two miles back to the point where a district headquarters car was waiting for Constable R. O. Stromberg and his companion. McGarry was not seriously injured, according to the account in The Cobalt Weekly Post. The young man was held for appearance before the magistrate at Cobalt, on a charge of theft. The young man broke away when the officer appeared, it is stated, and a chase of a mile in the bitter cold of the early morning hours followed. Subsequently, Constable Stromberg and McGarry came back by Bass Lake to the police car, and on the way the latter complained his feet appeared to have become frozen. Snow was applied to the affected members and treatment continued after Cobalt had been reached. Articles included in the stuff found comprise a drill, some blacksmith's tools and other mining equipment. They are said to have been missing from the property owned by William Newton, and near the Hector mine, since last summer, and police say they were cached in the bush nearby. When Constable Stromberg met McGarry the latter was coming along a trail from the property, the officer said, and he subsequently said he was alone, although the policeman believes others are involved. Constable Stromberg, searching in the district for moonshine, had been on the trail for three weeks, and for three night had been out in that section of the district. Friday night was bitterly cold, the thermometer dropping sharply below zero. With the police car also was Constable Stewart Young, of district headquarters at Halleybury, and the driver, Lloyd Lonsdale. All said they had found the night cold, says The Cobalt Weekly Post.
