Kirkland Lake Man Says He Shot Woman
William Antonowicz on Trial on Murder Charges at the Assizes at Halleybury. Details Given of Shooting Affray.

A despatch from Halleybury yesterday says:—
"William Antonowicz, whom Chief of Police William Shane, of Kirkland Lake, described as having found civil and inoffensive while he was using the Kirkland Lake police station as sleeping quarters for a month before the alleged crime, was on trial for his life before Mr. Justice Kerwin and an assizes jury here today charged with the murder of Mrs. Annie Munduk, his former common law wife. According to the chief, accused was "one of the best that was there, so far as his conduct was concerned."
"Evidence adduced by D. J. Cowan for the Crown told of the fatal shooting on McCamus avenue, Kirkland Lake, in the early afternoon of January 9 last, when Antonowicz is alleged to have shot down William and Annie Munduk, husband and wife, the woman dying within a few minutes and the man going to hospital for 17 days. A bullet wound through the brain killed the woman, Dr. E. R. Franksish, medical-legal adviser to the Attorney-General's Department, said.

Had Lived Together
"Munduk told the court that prisoner and the woman came to Kirkland Lake last fall, living together at the boarding house of William Banasuk, with the "murder of whose wife, Frances, accused also is charged. Subsequently, Antonowicz was "driven out" of the place by the landlady, Munduk said, for abusing the woman, who soon after married Munduk. The bereaved husband married Antonowicz had threatened on one occasion "to fix me." The shooting was witnessed from his front verandah by John Markowksi, who said after the woman was shot she partly rose and screamed, whereupon Antonowicz, who had run away, came back and fired at her again.

"Antonowicz got his meals at the soup kitchen. According to Dr. Franksish, his autopsy on the woman showed her to be 18 or 19 years of age and in good physical condition. He said that the mortal bullet had been fired from the revolver given him by Chief Shane, "and it could not have been fired from any other gun." Both the accused and his alleged victim are Ukrainians by birth.

Admits the Shooting
"Giving evidence on his own behalf, Antonowicz admitted shooting the woman, declaring that, while he loved Annie, "she had fooled me and was unfaithful to me, and I'm sure it was because of her I was beaten up and thrown out," of his rooming house. Accused claimed to have been threatened and followed about by other men and to have been told to leave Kirkland, which he could not do as he had no money and was sick. He had tried his best to keep his temper, he said, but could stand it no longer. He became upset and "I don't know why I did it, but I did," he told his counsel, M. G. Hunt.

"Accused is a former soldier in the Austrian army, who served on two fronts in the war and was wounded by shrapnel. Since that time he has suffered from headaches, he said. He also was conscripted by his native Ukraine to fight Poland, after the World War, but was ill and put in hospital. Dr. W. C. Rumball, Kirkland Lake said he had been treating Antonowicz prior to the tragedy for kidney trouble and he told Crown Prosecutor Cowan that accused's headaches, of which he had complained might have been due to this cause, although he had seen two or three pieces of shrapnel in his scalp.

"When being sworn, Antonowicz demurred at kissing the Bible, which he said he figured was too holy for him to take in his hand. He did not feel "worthy to take the oath" in this form but finally did so. He told the court that Mrs. Munduk, before her marriage had lived with him in many centres, from Toronto to Porcupine, and how he had twice taken out a marriage licence to wed her, only to have her put off their nuptials. He told Mr. Cowan the revolver found on him, when arrested the day after the murder, belonged to the woman, although he had taken it when ejected from his rooming house. He had hidden this weapon in the snow but found it on the morning of the crime."

Eternal Tragedy of the People of Israel

Observance of the Passover on Monday Recalls Early Story of Jewish People and Modern Instances of Persecution.

(By Bernard Sky)
Last Monday night as the festival of Passover was ushered in by world Jewry, the Three Sons of Mordecai again gathered with our families to perpetuate the rites, celebrate the feast and recite the "Hagadah," which sets forth the story of Israel's deliverance from Egypt and the Pharaohs. The large table is set in accordance with the traditional requirements of the feast—"Matzos" wine and bitter herbs, the latter to remind us of the bitterness and humility our ancestors endured in Egypt. Such are the Passover scenes in millions of Jewish homes throughout the world, and as we explain to the children the miracles of Israel's first liberation from destruction by the Pharaohs,—as we acquaint them with the story of our great emancipator and law-giver, Moses,—the wanderings of the tribes through the deserts in search of the promised land,—a parallel of a far greater tragedy is brought home to us this very day by the desperate situation of our brethren in Germany. Any attempt of our rejoicing and feasting over ancient liberations becomes a bitter irony when the agonized cry of oppression and cruelty reaches us from the thousands of Jews doomed to a fate worse than death by a modern Pharaoh who surpasses in bestiality and injustice any of the tormentors the Jewish race ever recorded in its long history of persecution! It seems impossible for one's mind to conceive or for human emotions to fathom the stark terror and despair that hangs like a hideous nightmare over the lives of those unfortunate Jews that come daily, each more ghastly than the last, of the unbelievable atrocities committed with cold-blooded brutality by the present rulers of Germany, causes us to wonder if after all our civilization has advanced from the barbarism of the Middle Ages, whether the Commandments handed down by Moses from Mt. Sinai and the brotherly love preached by Christianity for centuries, have had any effect on the Teutonic race. Liberal minds of the world seek to exonerate the masses of German people from the degrading deeds of Hitler's government. It is true that public opinion and the press of Germany are stifled and rigorously censored, therefore the present sentiment of the people is not known. Yet we can not overlook the fact that Hitler and his Anti-Semitic policy was preached in that country for ten years, as were all his reactionary, back-to-Junkerism ideas. It is upon this platform that he was legally elected by a large majority. Is it then not clearly apparent that the sabre-rattling Hun is again rampant in Europe with the hope of flaunting Deutschland's mailed fist in the face of decency and peace? The world powers see these signs but too well. And again we have fine British tradition assert itself, and Mother England takes up the cause of an oppressed people and opens its arms to give succour to the sufferers. Hope is yet held out that Hitler and his conception of "Gott" will not conquer the combined forces of Jehovah and Christianity. Some day we Jews will again gather to celebrate the feast of Passover, and tell our children the story of our deliverance from the Pharaohs and—Hitler.

POPULARITY OF BADMINTON IN THE PORCUPINE AREA
(From North Bay Nugget)
While on the subject of badminton it might be as well to recount the notable advances being made by the promoters of the game in Schumacher. The club members were introduced to new and elegant quarters quite recently and the opening, attended by more than three hundred persons, indicated that the "risky game is due for large patronage. The club is accommodated in the old McIntyre Mine stores building, remodelled and re-decorated from cellar to garret. The floor provides three courts with ample space on the sides for spectators. The playing floor is 80 feet by 55 feet with a 25-foot ceiling, making the arrangements almost ideal. Upstairs is provided a spacious and avishly furnished lounge room and in another section is located a modern kitchen and other facilities for serving refreshments. Speaking of the club's prospects, The Porcupine Advance says: "The Porcupine Badminton Club promises to be the most popular sports organization in the district. Already there is a large membership and it is growing rapidly, many feeling that the club features alone are worth while, even though the game itself is not played. At the same time among players there is the greatest enthusiasm and confidence that the Porcupine Badminton Club is to be one of the most popular of the sporting organizations in the district."

North Bay Nugget—Just because several Hollywood producers have stopped making talkies is no reason to think there is a shortage of sound money.

Fatal Accident at Mine on Friday Last

Mike Baby, Well Known in North Killed in Fall of Rock at Hollinger, Another Man Slightly Injured in the Accident.

At the Hollinger Mine on Friday evening last, April 7th, a fall of rock resulted in the death of Mike Baby, well known in the Porcupine and other mining camps of the North, and in the injury of E. Fajatovich, of Schumacher, who was along with Baby at the time the accident occurred. Fajatovich had his leg hurt, but was not seriously injured and is now out of the hospital. The accident occurred just before six o'clock on Friday evening. Following the usual rule in all such cases an inquest will be held in connection with the death of Mike Baby. The inquest is to open this (Thursday) afternoon at 4 p.m.

The late Mike Baby (or Babe, as it is sometimes written) was well known and popular in Cobalt, Timmins and Detroit, in which places he had spent nearly a quarter of a century. He was born in Sinautic de Jos Bucovina. It was under Austria's flag that he was born but since the world war it is part of Roumania. The late Mr. Baby spent many years in Timmins and had wide circles of friends here. He was a naturalized British subject and was prominent in many good works, being known for his kindness to the poor. He was also much interested in sports.

The late Mr. Baby is survived by one son, John Baby, 36 Fifth avenue, Timmins, and two daughters, Mrs. Frozina Hretnick and Mrs. Domnita Tracy, both in his native land. Another son, Peter Baby, resides in Fayetteville, U.S.A.

The funeral took place on Sunday, April 9th, 1933, at 2 p.m. from the home of his son on Fifth avenue to St. Anthony's church. The pallbearers were old friends for years, Steve Tarabasz, George Kocharan, John Mahiliski, Fred Fizzal, John Haralavich, and many old friends of the late Mike Baby were also present to pay their last respects.

High mass was said, and after the funeral services, pictures were taken. There was a very large attendance, fully five hundred being present to show their deep regard and respect.

Following an old custom in honour to the dead, the pallbearers and the other near friends among the mourners were invited to the house for dinner. There were many beautiful floral tokens. These included— from Son and Daughter-in-law, a heart; from John Malahisk, palms; from nephew, Bill Marica, Jennie and Johnny Babie, George Boychuck and family, wreaths; from Anthony Yanyk rosary; from his grandchild, Pearl Jehna Babby, holy picture.

Permission Granted to Parade Here on May First

At a special meeting of the town council last night it was decided to give permission for the holding of a parade here on May 1st at 6 p.m. Those asking for permission agreed to submit the banners to the chief of police for approval before using them, also to carry the Union Jack in the parade, and to keep the event quiet and orderly. Councillor Massie opposed granting the permission as he thought the parade unnecessary and liable to cause disorder as similar events had in the past. The application for permission was signed by a number of names of organizations, such as the Canadian Labour Defence League.
