

No Fretting

"During Baby's teething period I found BABY'S OWN TABLETS especially beneficial, as my child did not fret or cry as so many children do. I consider BABY'S OWN TABLETS a Mother's Friend," writes Mrs. Earl Hayre, Monton, N.B.

Similar proof of the effectiveness of BABY'S OWN TABLETS is being constantly furnished by Mothers everywhere. These sweet, inexpensive little Tablets are positively harmless. Read the guarantee of safety in every 15-cent package.

HAPPY METHODS TO HIT THE PAN-HANDLING FRATERNITY

Everybody is sympathetic to the honest fellow out of work at the present time. So they should be! The dishonest fellow, however, has a big part in alienating sympathy from the worthy. A good-hearted man is imposed upon once or twice by the crooked fellow and he becomes inclined to think all saying they need relief are likely to be dishonest and unfair. Of course this is not the fact. They are lots of good fellows in misfortune these days. And they get hearty help when their case is known. But how to tell the good from the bad? Well, the secret lies in offering work. The good fellow is ready to do anything honest. The other kind usually issue an alibi. This fact has been taken advantage of by Goderich in dealing with the transients. Here is Goderich's plan as referred to by The Renfrew Mercury last week:—"Goderich has dealt to the panhandler a knock-out blow. Not a rough, physical wallop, but an artistic thrust, aimed at the mind rather than the body. The panhandler is notified that the town has purchased ten cords of four-foot hardwood, and had it piled behind the town hall. Citizens are advised not to feed the panhandler, but direct him to the town hall. This is by way of luring him to his downfall. Exhibit A at the civic offices will be the woodpile; exhibit B, the saw; exhibit C, the axe. Sentence: Saw and split one-quarter cord of wood before meals. It is expected that, when news of this ridiculous imposition spreads about, Goderich may have difficulty in getting its wood cut."

Kincairdine Review-Reporter:—Advertising will not cure all the ills of business, but it will most certainly act as a strong tonic to a constructive sales programme. The sooner business realizes that the end of the depression depends on the amount of effort put forth the sooner will prosperity return.

Renfrew Councillor on Charge of Bigamy

James Fennessy, of Renfrew, who was in Limestone last year on account of Charges Against Chief Greer, Arrested at Council Meeting

The name of Councillor James Fennessy will be familiar to many here on account of the fact that he figured prominently in the making of the charges last year against the chief of police of Renfrew, Mr. Greer, formerly police chief here. Chief Greer emerged from the investigation into the charges made by Councillor Fennessy, the police chief clearing himself in very complete fashion. On account of the sensation made by the Fennessy charges against Chief Greer many have heard about Councillor Fennessy who would not otherwise know of him. Because of this many here and in the district will be interested in the news coming over the wires last week to the effect that Councillor Fennessy had been arrested as he was attending a council meeting. A despatch from Renfrew says:—"On a warrant sworn out before Fred Bowie, Justice of the Peace of Campbell's Bay, Que., James Fennessy, member of the Renfrew Town Council, was arrested on a charge of bigamy as he attended a meeting of the Council at 8:15 o'clock Tuesday evening.

"The arrest was carried out by Sheriff Dominic Scan, of Pontiac County, and High Constable Michel St. Germain, also of that county, who came to Renfrew in an automobile and called on Chief M. Greer, head of the town's constabulary, to assist in the arrest.

Called Out of Meeting

"Mr. Fennessy, who is a 54-year-old cattle drover living on Lorne street, and who has been a member of the Council for the past six years, was called out of the meeting in the Temperance Hall, and, as he stepped out the door of the council chamber, was taken into custody by the Pontiac officers.

"They drove to Councillor Fennessy's home to obtain a few articles of clothing, and then left by automobile for Campbell's Bay.

"The warrant under which Mr. Fennessy was arrested, at the instructions of the Attorney-General's department at Quebec, charged that he did, on or about September 16, 1903, at Shawville, Que., go through a ceremony of marriage with an Osgoode, Ont., girl, while already married to a Miss Alberta Braley.

"Mr. Fennessy was first married to Miss Braley, it is alleged, at Rochester, N.Y., many years ago, there being two children of the union. While Miss Braley was still alive he is alleged to have gone through a marriage ceremony at Shawville, Que., with the Osgoode girl. Mr. Fennessy's present wife at Renfrew, mother of two other children, was formerly Miss Mary Farrell, and they were married in Montreal in 1912.

"The Renfrew councillor will appear before Justice of the Peace Bowie at Campbell's Bay, and will probably be remanded until April 19, when Judge Roland Millar, of Hull, will sit in the Pontiac courts.

"It was on charges originated by Councillor Fennessy on February 9, 1932 that a judicial probe was conducted by the Department of the Attorney-General of Ontario into the administration of justice in the town of Renfrew.

"The arrest of the councillor occurred with a dramatic suddenness in the midst of a debate in which Mr. Fennessy was a leading figure.

"As the bi-weekly meeting opened with Mayor F. X. Plaunt in the chair, one of the local ratepayers among a large crowd of spectators demanded that the tax collector's roll be brought in, suggesting that rumours were current, one of the councillor's taxes were still unpaid. The mayor ruled this demand was out of order, and declared

Her BACKACHES have GONE!

Quick, sure relief with Fruit-a-tives

"Your splendid remedy acted like a tonic to my entire system. I can't begin to tell what I suffered from backaches due to kidney derangement. When I would bend down it pained that I couldn't straighten up again. I was continually awakened at night from the same cause. Dizzy, sick headaches and a weak stomach made me feel perfectly wretched. Now thanks to your wonderful 'Fruit-a-tives', I am enjoying life again."

the tax roll could be seen any time in the clerk-treasurer's office.

Fennessy Is Called.

"Councillor Fennessy asked that the roll be produced at once, however. A sharp discussion ensued. During the debate W. A. Black, clerk-treasurer, left the room, as though to bring the roll from his vault. In a few minutes Mr. Black was back in his seat, minus the book. Just as he resumed his seat Councillor Fennessy was called outside. He did not come back, although the town's business awaited him for a short time. As Mr. Fennessy left the hall there was a small commotion among the spectators packed around the doors, and rumors soon flew that law officers had taken the councillor in custody and driven him to Campbell's Bay jail. This was later confirmed.

Favourites Among the French Sweets

"Crepes Suzettes," Said to be the Very Queen of Famous French Dishes. Some Recipes for These French Pancakes

Writing recently in The Toronto Mail and Empire, Ann Adams, expert in domestic science has the following:—

From France Comes Crepe Suzettes!

If we admiring and somewhat odd "foreigners" attempt to rate a favorite of our own and guess at the outstanding favorite amongst all the amazing array of French sweets—we should almost be unanimous, probably in declaring for Crepes Suzettes—those filmy-thin French pancakes that are rolled up and served blazing hot and probably with a wonderful sauce.

In Paris it is not unusual for the head waiter himself to arrive, attended by his minions, who will set up a chafing dish right on your table—and with a ceremony, scarcely to be surpassed on any occasion, "the lord of the dining-room" will, himself, fry and serve the Crepes Suzettes.

Our own modern electric table grills offer the greatest inducement for the making of French pancakes right on our own tables. Or, of course, they can be cooked on a greased griddle on a kitchen range.

The batter must be thin, indeed if you are making the cakes with a prepared flour, such as will thicken on standing, keep on adding milk—for the pancakes must be very thin indeed when finished. The real Crepes Suzettes have no leavening in them at all except that supplied by the eggs, and these are used generously enough to make the mixture almost custard rich. Here are quantities to serve six persons:

- 2 cups flour
 - 3-4 cup powdered sugar
 - 5 eggs
 - 1 pint milk
 - Flavoring
 - Pinch of salt
- Mix flour, salt and sugar. Add milk slowly to form thick paste. Mix thoroughly well-beaten eggs. As flavouring use lemon or orange peel.
- On hot greased griddle, fry very thin cakes until almost crisp but soft enough to roll.
- Of course, you can serve your delicately rolled pancakes with various sweet finishing touches. You can spread the pancake with jelly or conserve or with a mixture of butter-sugar-lemon, before you roll it. Or you can use a favorite syrup or honey, or a mixture of honey and chopped fruit.
- But for something truly superb, get some of those tiny bright tangerine oranges that invite you constantly from the fruit stands (you will like them for other desserts, and for salads, too—or for eating quite plain.)
- And make this tangerine sauce:
- 2 tangerines
 - 6 tablespoons butter
 - 1 cup powdered sugar
- Cream butter and sugar. Add grated rind of tangerine. Drop by drop (so as not to curdle) add juice of tangerine, stirring carefully.

THINGS SURELY SEEM TO BE UPSIDE DOWN THERE

—But the bull which is so much the delight of connoisseurs as to have become a chestnut or classic, according to the perceptions of one's funny bone (is that a bull or a metaphor?) hails from the Antipodes. An Australian one day addressed his fellow parliamentarians at Canberra on a point of order. His protest began: "Gentlemen, a member of this House has taken advantage of my absence to tweak my nose behind my back. I hope that the next time he abuses me behind my back like a coward he will do it to my face like a man, and not go skulking into the thicket to assail a gentleman who is not present to defend himself."

The United Farmers of Alberta, who control the Government party are on record as opposed to a cut. In Ontario it is a Conservative Government which is reducing the Legislature by twenty or more.
