Value of Heat Insulation Stressed by the Fuel Board

Substantial fuel economies are certain to follow once Canadian householders become thoroughly cognizant of the value of heat insulation in dwellings...

Development Bureau, Department of the Interior, on the proper use of insulation in the construction of dwellings...

The fuel board has issued a well illustrated 72-page booklet entitled "The Insulation of New and Old Houses..."

Meaford Mirror.—The tax on malt will likely put the home brewers out of business...

Array of Baseball Talent at Kirkland

Material for Ball Team at Kirkland Lake Said to be Unusually Striking. Notable Migration of Players Reported.

With district baseball one of the liveliest and liveliest topics of the day, the following article from "The Kirkland Lake Northern News" should prove of passing interest...

Under the direction of "Wib" Bousquet, veteran player and baseball scout, a lot of likely-looking material has been gathered together for the new Kirkland Sports Commission...

Bousquet in Lineup, Maybe Bousquet himself may get into uniform. He's played senior ball here before and knows the game to a T...

Besides this formidable aggregation there's almost an equal number of local boys who are fast enough to give the newcomers a battle for berths on the team...

Season To Open About June 14 Incidentally, according to word from Ike Solomon, of the Timmins camp, the ball season is likely to get under way about June 14 this year.

Proof that the Local Sports Commission has tackled the ball player problem with vigour and apparently good judgment is seen in the prospective roster of the Kirkland Seniors...

This List Looks Pretty Fair Some of the available material: 1. Milt Fries, of Kitchener, Ont., who has tentatively been booked to hold down the first sacker's job...

2. Sam Curry, pitcher, formerly of Danforth's, Toronto City League. 3. Jim Barclay, catcher, formerly of Danforth's...

4. Henry Turcotte, pitcher, formerly with the Native Sons of Canada team, Toronto, and rated one of the best. 5. Pete Giavanelli, short-stop...

6. Jack Richardson, third baseman, of Guelph, Ont. He's been playing country league baseball and has spent the winter attending Ontario Agricultural College.

7. Jack Armitage, pitcher, formerly of Barrie. "Army" is a scouthpaw of note and can take a first baseman's utility job, or an outfield position.

8. Don Price, first baseman and outfielder. He played ball with the Sudbury junior team two years ago when the club captured the Dominion championship.

9. Kelly Brown, second baseman, of Lindsay, who rates high in playing ability. 10. Belfry, outfielder, formerly of Toronto...

11. Tom Johnston, outfielder, formerly with the Beaches Club, of Toronto—and a good, all-round baseball player.
